Consumer Protection Act, 1986 Section 11(2)- Territorial Jurisdiction . Plot situated outside the territorial jurisdiction of Panchkula District. Demand for some additional payment had been made at a place outside its territorial jurisdiction. The mere fact that the complainant had impleaded the Chief Administrator of HUDA as opposite party whose head office happen to be at Panchkula , was not enough to confer jurisdiction on the District Forum at Panchkula.

ORDER

1. M.R. Agnihotri, President- Haryana Urban Development Authority has come up in appeal against the order dated 3.12.1997 passed by the learned District Consumer Forum, Panchkula , whereby the complaint of an allottee Smt Swatantra Bala Jain, the owner of plot no. 1675-P in Urban Estate II, Hissar, alleging deficiency in service against HUDA , has been allowed.
2. According to the complainant, HUDA had issued a demand notice for a sum of Rs.27, 862.50 on 15.06.87 followed by another demand notice for Rs.19,352.30 on 18.02.88. Since the complainant had not deposited the said amounts, another demand notice for Rs. 1,61,310/- was received by the complainant but without any statement of accounts, which was arbitrary. In their reply, HUDA pleaded that demands were on account of enhanced compensation under the Land Acquisition Act, which the complainant was bound to pay. Thereafter, on 5.11.97 the complainant submitted an application before the learned Forum that she was ready to pay interest at the rate of 15% PA after the date of demand notices. She was also ready to forego all other prayers. Accordingly, the learned District Consumer Forum, Panchkula, disposed of the complaint by issuing the following directions:-
“Therefore, the present complaint is disposed of with the direction that if there is any discrepancies in the statement of accounts regarding interest of calculation then the same may be got corrected and fresh statement of accounts be prepared @ 15% simple interest under the head of enhancement within seven days from the receipt of this order and if complainant pays the amount, No objection Certificate be issued to the complainant with in seven days from the receipt of the payment No order for the cost. Let order be complied. Copy of this order will be sent to the parties free of costs.”
3. In the appeal before us, the learned counsel of HUDA has vehemently contended that apart from the merits of the case, it was evident that the plot in question was situate at Hissar and the demands had also been made by the Estate Officer HUDA Hissar. In view of this factual position, the complaint was not maintainable before the learned District Consumer Forum, Panchkula, at all. It was further contended that this objection had prominently been taken as the very first preliminary objection in the followings words:-
“That the Hon’bie Forum has got no territorial jurisdiction to try and entertain the present complaint because the plot in question is situate in Hissar.”

Again, in the body of the written statement in para 10, the objection was repeated as under:-

“That the para No. 10 of the complaint is wrong and hence denied. The Hon’ble Forum had got no jurisdiction to try and entertain the present complaint because the plot in question is situated at Hissar and the office of the respondent No. 1 is also situated at Hissar and the record of the plot in question is also at Hissar.”

It is strange that despite this the learned District Consumer Forum Panchkula, assumed jurisdiction and proceeded to decide the complaint on merits without first appreciating the preliminary objection, much less to deal with the same.

4. After hearing the learned counsel and having gone through the record, we are of the considered view that the appeal deserves to be allowed and the impugned order is liable to be set aside on the short ground; that the District Consumer Forum at Panchkula lacked territorial jurisdiction to adjudicate upon a dispute arising out of a certain plot situated outside the territorial jurisdiction of Panchkula and regarding which demand the some additional payments had been made at a place outside its territorial jurisdiction. The mere fact that the complainant had impleaded the Chief Administrator of HUDA as one of the opposite parties, whose head office happens to be at Panchkula , was not .enough to confer jurisdiction on the District Consumer Forum at Panchkula. Resultantly, the appeal is allowed and the order passed by the learned District Forum is set aside. The complaint is returned to the complainant - respondent to present the same, if so advised before the District Forum, Hissar. In the circumstances of the case, there shall be no order as to costs.

Announced in open court.

No. HUDA-Acctts -Acctt-1-2007/ 653-75

Dated: 8.1.2008

To

1. All the Administrators
HUDA (in the State).
2. All the Estate Officers,
HUDA (in the State).

Subject: Guidelines for defending the court cases in respect levy of compound interest by HUDA on the delayed payment of installments.

1. This is in continuation to letter No. HUDA-Acctts- 2007/5903 dated 04.09,2007 vide which the orders of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in SLP No. 12084, 12085,12167,12169,12170,12168 of 2004 arising out of CWP No,2099, 10422, 6280 of 2003, 19098, 18344, 19099 of 2002 to charge compound interest @10% p.a. was brought to your notice with the request to quote these orders in all the cases of similar nature pending in the Courts/Forums / Commission and invariably attach the copy of these orders alongwith the reply and specifically bring it to the notice of the Courts during arguments.
2. The increasing number of court cases in respect of levy of compound interest on the delayed payment of installments is causing great concern to the Authority. In this regard the advice of Senior Advocate Sh. Sanjiv Sharma was obtained in order to defend the cases properly in the courts to safeguard the interest of the Authority. Sh. Sanjiv Sharma has analyzed the various judgments announced by the various courts in respect of levy of compound interest and has given valuable suggestions to defend such cases in the court. The copy of the advice is enclosed for ready reference.
3. In nut shell, Ld. Advocate has advised that HUDA can charge the differential rate of interest i.e. normal rate of interest and penal rate of interest in respect of two kinds of allottee i.e. those who opt to pay in installments and those who are defaulters. Although on the question of compound interest, Ld. Advocate has advised that HUDA can not charge the compound interest but in this regard the instructions issued by. L,R., HUDA vide letter No. HUDA-Acctts-2007/5903 dated 04.09.2007 may be followed keeping in view the judgement of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the above said cases.
4. The judgement in the case of Sh. Gian Inder Sharma vs. HUDA & others in CWP No. 16497 of 2001 was delivered on 11.11.2002 and judgement in the case of Smt. Kant a Devi Budhiraja v/s. HUDA was finalized on 02.04.2000. Accordingly HUDA Authority decided to charge simple rate of interest w.e.f. 03.04.2000 i.e. immediately after the announcement of the judgement by the various courts to charge simple rate of interest, The Ld. Advocate Sh. Sanjiv Sharma was also requested to advice on the question of charging interest keeping in view the following factors.
 1. Where limitation period has been expired.
 2. Where no due certificate has been issued.
 3. Where full payment has been made and conveyance deed/sale deed has been executed.
 4. The compound interest has been charged as per the orders of the competent Authority passed in the judicial/quasi judicial capacity.

On these issues, the Ld, Advocate has advised as under:-

1. Where limitation period has expired:

There are two cases under this category (i) where relief has been sought to levy simple interest and to recover the excess payment made by the allottee, (ii) Where restraint has been sought against HUDA from demanding the compound interest.

In both these cases the provision of limitation Act 1963 will apply. In both the cases the limitation period would be three years except for (ii) above where the limitation would commence from the date of demand of interest. However, any demand made for reconciliation of accounts beyond a period of 3 years after the last payment may not be tenable. Therefore, in all the court cases, the point of limitation may be examined and may be taken as preliminary objections invariably while filing the reply.

2 & 3. Where no due certificate has been issued. Where full payment has been made and conveyance deed/sale deed has been executed:

The same situation will prevail as described in para (1) above. In such cases where no due certificate has been issued and where full payment has been made and conveyance deed/sale deed has been executed, the limitation Act 1963 will apply. In such cases also, point of limitation may be examined and taken in the preliminary objections invariably while filing the reply.

4. The compound interest has been charged as per the orders of the competent Authority passed in the judicial/quasi judicial capacity.

In such cases where compound interest has been charged based upon the orders of the judicial/quasi judicial authorities, the compound interest may be charged as per the orders of the above said authority and no relief is required to be given in such cases.

You are, therefore, requested to examine the above said points while filing the reply in the courts in respect of case of levy of compound interest by HUDA and also take all these points in the preliminary objections as well as forcefully argue in the courts. In case replies have already been filed, amendment can be done on above lines. You are also requested to bring these points to the notice of the Advocates who are defending such cases in the various courts so that these comments are properly incorporated in the reply/argued in the Courts.

EX-PARTE OPTION ON LEVY OF COMPOUND INTEREST BY HUDA ON DELAYED PAYMENTS OF INSTALLMENTS

1. The Honorable High court disposed off CWP 3737 of 2007 on 8.5.2007 by passing a direction that:-“Haryana Urban Development Authority shall uniformly apply the guidelines issued in Gian Inder Sharma case (Supra) to all affected and also in the case of the petitioners. Respondents are further directed to decide each case of petitioners within a period of eight weeks from today.”
2. Gian Inder Sharma’s case was decided on 11.11.2002. The operative part of the judgement reads as:
“We are of the opinion that the respondents are not entitled to charge compound interest on the delayed payment of additional price of the plot in question. They can charge only simple interest at the rate of 15% per annum on the said amount. The case of the petitioner is squarely covered by division Bench decision of this Court in M/S Bhatia brothers’ case (supra). Learned counsel of the respondents could not point out to us any provision of law under the Act and the 1978 Regulations or any condition in the allotment letter, which authorized the respondents to charge compound interest on the delayed payment. As per clause 6 of the allotment letter, the respondents are entitled to charge 10% interest on the amount of instalment. The contention of the petitioner that he is liable to pay simple interest at the rate of 15% per annum on the delayed payment of additional price of the plot in the question is totally justified. The respondents, in spite of the decision of this Court, are illegally demanding the compound interest on the aforesaid delayed payment from the petitioner. We find that action of the respondents in demanding compound interest from the petitioner is totally unreasonable and arbitrary and without any authority of law. Therefore, we direct that the respondents can charge only simple interest at the rate of 15% per annum from the petitioner on the delayed payment of additional price of the plot in question. Since the petitioner has already deposited Rs. 2,10,000/- under protest with the respondents towards the additional price, the respondents are directed to calculate the additional price with 15% simple interest and adjust the same towards the above payment made by the petitioner. If there is any excess amount the same shall be refunded to the petitioner within a period of three months. It is however, made clear that no penalty can be charged from the petitioner on account of delayed payment of additional price. However, if there is any other amount due against the petitioner, the same shall also be adjusted against payment already made by him and after making adjustment, if any amount is found due towards him, the same can be recovered from him.”
3. The aforesaid case relates to allotment on 22.5.1987, of a residential plot bearing number 1615, sector-7, Karnal on freehold basis. The total cost of the plot, was Rs. 90,597/-. The petitioner deposited 25% of the amount of the cost i.e. Rs. 22,649.25 on 15.5.1987 after which an allotment letter dated 22.5.1987 was issued. The balance amount of Rs. 67,947.75 was to be paid either in lump sum within 60 days from the date of issue of allotment letter or in 6 annual instalments. Each instalment was to be recovered with interest on the balance amount at the rate of 10%. While payment towards the initial cost of the plot was made in full, two demands on account of additional price of the plot were made on the petitioner. The first was made on 19.4.1990 for an amount of Rs. 31,448.65 and the second on 10.12.1991 for Rs. 17,650/-. These additional payments were to be recovered from the petitioner in the same manner as instalments were to be recovered. It appears, that the demand made by HUDA contained an element of compound interest and therefore, when the statement of account was issued on 17.6.2001, which is ten year later, a total amount of Rs. 2,13,306/- was demanded of which Rs. 1,76,350/- was on account of additional price with interest up till 6.6.2001 and Rs. 36,956/- on account of extension fees until 31.10.2000. Under threat of resumption, the petitioner deposited the money however he made a request on 29.8.2001 that only simple interest be charged and not compounded interest. According to the petitioner, only Rs. 85,065/- was payable in case simple interest was levied.

4. CWP 2278 of 1999 M/S Bhatia Brothers had already been decided on 14.2.2000 holding that HUDA cannot charge compound interest as there is no provision under the Haryana Urban Development Authority Act, 1977 or Haryana Urban Development (disposal of Land and Buildings) regulations, 1978 and the conditions of allotment to do so. The Special Leave petition filed by HUDA against the aforesaid judgement was dismissed on 11.9.2000. Thus, based on Bhatia Brothers case, the decision in Gian Inder Sharma's case came to be passed on 11.11.2002.
5. It is the aforesaid decision in Gian Inder Sharma's case that has been followed in the case of CWP 3737 of 2007.
6. In this background, I have been asked to render advice on the question of charging interest and compliance of the judgement dated 8.5.2007.
7. Before addressing the query, it would be appropriate to briefly recapitulate as to how compound interest came to be charged in the first place and whether there is any provision under the HUDA Act, 1977 that can be referred to as the source of such power.
8. The first provision that calls for notice is section 15 of the Act.

15. Disposal of land.

1. Subject to any directions given by the State Government under this Act and the provisions of sub-section (5), the Authority may dispose off:-
 - A) any land acquired by it or transferred to it by the State Government without undertaking or carrying out any development thereon; or
 - b) any such land after undertaking or carrying out such development as it thinks fit to such persons, in such manner and subject to such terms and conditions, as it considers expedient for securing development.
2. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as enabling the authority to dispose off land by way of gift, but subject to this condition, reference in this Act to the disposal of land shall be construed as reference to the disposal thereof in any manner, whether by way of sale, exchange or lease or by the creation of any easement right or privilege or otherwise.
3. Subject to the provisions hereinbefore contained, the Authority may sell, lease, or otherwise transfer whether by auction, allotment or otherwise any land or building belonging to it on such terms and conditions as it may, by regulations provide.
4. The consideration money for any transfer under sub-section shall be paid to the Authority in such manner as may be provided by regulations.
5. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, for the time being in force, any land or building or both, as the case may be, shall continue to belong to the authority until the entire consideration money together with interest and other amount, if any due to the Authority on account of the sale of such land or building or both is paid.
6. Until the conditions provided in the regulations are fulfilled, the transferee shall not transfer his right in the land or building except with the previous permission of the Authority, which may be granted on such terms and conditions as the authority may deem fit.
7. Thus, under Section 15 regulations may provide for the terms and conditions of sale/lease/transfer. The next provision to be examined is Section 17 which reads as:

Section 17

Resumption and forfeiture for breach of conditions of transfer:-

1. Where any transferee makes default in the payment of any consideration money, or any instalment, on account of the sale of any land or building, or both, under section 15, the Estate Officer may, by notice in writing, call upon the transferee to show cause within a period of 30 days, why a penalty which shall not exceed 10 percent of the amount due from the transferee, be not imposed upon him.
2. After considering the cause, if any, shown by the transferee and after giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard in the matter, the Estate officer may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, make an order imposing the penalty and direct that the amount of money due along with the penalty shall be paid by the transferee within such period as may be specified in the order,
3. If the transferee fails to pay amount due together with the penalty in accordance with the order made under subsection (2) or commits a breach of any other condition of sale, the Estate Officer may, by notice in writing call upon the transferee to show cause within a period of 30 days, why an order of resumption of the land or building, or both, as the case may be and forfeiture of the whole or any part of the money, if any, paid in respect thereof which in no case shall exceed 10 percent of the total amount of the consideration money, interest and other dues payable in respect of the sale of land or building or both, should not be made.
4. after considering the cause, if any, shown by the transferee in pursuance of a notice under subsection (3) and any evidence that he may produce in support of the same and after giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard in the matter, the Estate Officer may, for reasons to be recorded in writing make an order resuming the land or building or both, as the case may be, and direct the forfeiture as provided in subsection (3) of the whole or any part of the money paid in respect of such sale,
5. any person aggrieved by an order of the Estate Officer under section 16 or under this section may, within a period of 30 days of the date of the communication to him of such order, prefer an appeal to the Chief Administrator in such form and manner, as may be prescribed: Provided that the Chief Administrator may entertain the appeal after the expiry of the said period of 30 days, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from filling the appeal in time.
6. The Chief Administrator may, after hearing the appeal confirm, vary or reverse the order appealed for and pass such order as he deems fit.
7. The Chief Administrator may , either on his own motion or on an application received in this behalf at any time within a period of six months from the date of the order, call for the records of any proceedings in which the Estate Officer has passed an order for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the legality or propriety of such order and may pass such order in relation thereto as he thinks fit. Provided that the Chief Administrator shall not pass any order under this section prejudicial to any person without giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard.
8. From the words used in section 17 it shows that the Chief Administrator may pass such order as he deems fit while confirming, varying or reversing an order passed by the Estate Officer. Thus, he may in a given case require payment of interest at a rate higher than what has been stipulated in the terms of allotment since, the parties may no longer be bound by the same.
9. The power to make Regulations is contained in Section 54 which is:-

Section 54:- Power to make regulations. - The Authority may, with the previous approval of the State Government, make regulations consistent with this Act, and without prejudice to the generality of this power such regulations may provide for –

Provided that in the case of sale/lease of undeveloped land/building possession thereof shall be delivered within 90 days of the date of allotment.

13. Clauses of the letter of allotment issued in Form C, CC and others prescribed by the 1978 Regulations, reflect the statutory provisions and can be seen however for ease of appreciation their provisions are on the following lines:-

Your application /bid for plot No. _____ Sector _____ at _____ has been accepted and the plot/ building as detailed below has been allotted to you on free-hold basis as per the following terms and conditions and subject to the provisions of the Haryana Urban Development Authority Act, 1977 (hereinafter referred to as the Act) and the rules/regulations applicable there under and as amended from time to time including terms and conditions as already announced at the time of auction and accepted by you.

The plot is preferential...../OR

The sum of Rs. _____ deposited by you as bid money at the time of bid will be adjusted against the said plot/building.

In case you refuse to accept this allotment, you shall communicate your refusal.....OR.

You are requested to remit Rs. _____ in order to make the 25% price of the said plot within 30 days from the date of issue of this letter. The -payment shall be made by a bank draft payable to the Estate Officer, HUDA, _____, and drawn on any scheduled bank at _____. In case of failure to deposit the said amount within the above specified period, the allotment shall be cancelled and the deposit of 10% bid money deposited at the time of bid shall stand forfeited to the Authority, against which you shall have no claim for damages.

The balance amount i.e. Rs. _____ of the above price of the plot/building can be paid in lump sum without interest within 60 days from the date of issue of the allotment letter or in 8 half yearly instalments. The first instalment will fall due after the expiry of six months of the date of issue of this letter. Each instalment would be recoverable together with interest on the balance price at % interest on the remaining amount. The interest shall however, accrue from the date of offer of possession.

You will have to complete the construction within two years of the date of offer of possession after getting the plans of the proposed building approved from the competent authority in accordance with the regulations governing the erection of buildings. This time limit is extendable by the Estate Officer if he is satisfied that non construction of the building was due to reasons beyond your control, otherwise this plot is liable to be resumed and the whole or part of the money paid, if any, in respect of it forfeited in accordance with the provisions of the said Act. You shall not erect any building or make any alteration/addition without prior permission of the Estate Officer. No fragmentation of any land or building shall be permitted.

Note. For the exact words used in the forms Kindly refer to the same.

14. A reading of the statutory provisions as noticed above, the substantive portions of which are incorporated in the letter of allotment, clearly shows that allottees are required to pay 25% of the price before the delivery of possession and the balance price in lump-sum without being required to pay interest or to pay the same in 8 instalments with interest. The failure of the allottees to deposit 25% of the price within 30 days could entail cancellation of allotment and forfeiture of 10% of the bid money. For paying the balance price representing 75% of the total price, the allottees are given two options. The first option was to pay total balance price in lump-sum within 60 days from the date of issue of allotment letter. In that case, they were not to pay interest. The other option available to them was to pay the balance price in 8 half yearly instalments with interest @ 10% payable from the date of offer of possession.

15 It is therefore safe to suggest that HUDA has power to demand interest on the balance price when instalments are opted for.

16. From a perusal at page 12 of the noting sheet it appears that the Authority decided to charge interest on late payment of instalments at a rate of 18% per annum and instructions in this regard were issued on 15.01.1987. Similarly, a decision to charge interest on delayed payment of enhancement at the rate of 15% per annum was also taken on 02.04.1987. The noting sheet does not however disclose as to whether the decision of the Authority was to charge compound or simple rate of interest. Be that as it may, the levy of compound interest became the subject matter of challenge in the number of cases and while it would be difficult to identify in exactly which case this levy was first struck down, suffice to notice that one of the cases was that of Aruna Luthra reported as 1998 (2) PLR 687 In which it is held that HUDA is entitled to charge interest in terms of the contract that is the allotment letter but not according to HUDA Policy, Thus, it stood settled that what could be recovered is interest as provided by the terms of the allotment as well as the regulations and the Act itself. Policy decisions would not be applicable unless it could be shown that they had sanctity of law. This judgement of Justice• N.K. Sodhi & Justice Iqbal Singh is reproduced below for easy appreciation.

“In an auction held on 30.10.1980 the petitioner purchased S.C.F No. Sector-7 in Faridabad and an allotment letter was issued to her on 5.12.1980. The price of the building was Rs. 2,83,100/- and 25% of this amount including the amount deposited at the time of auction was to be paid within 30 days from the date of issue of the letter and the balance amount was payable in half yearly instalments. Each instalments was to be paid together with interest on the balance price @ 10% on the remaining amount. Interest was, however, to accrue from the date of offer of possession. According to clause (22) of the allotment letter all disputes and differences between the parties arising out of or relating to the allotment were to be referred to the sole arbitration of the Chief Administrator, Haryana Urban Development Authority (for short HUDA) or any other officer appointed by him. After purchasing the building the petitioner wrote to the Estate Officer, HUDA, Faridabad to hand over vacant possession of the same. It appears that the building was occupied by some unauthorized occupants and, therefore, its possession could not be delivered to the petitioner. It was only on 4.5.1987 that the possession was delivered to her. At the time of delivering possession to the petitioner it was found that the building had been damaged and there were breakages. A statement about the details of damages and breakages as found in the building was prepared. The petitioner continued representing to the respondents that the damage caused to the building by the unauthorized occupants be repaired so that the same becomes habitable. It was also represented by the petitioner that interest on the balance amount payable to the respondents should be charged only from the date when the defects in the building were removed. Since the respondents did not pay any heed to the representations of the petitioner, she invoked the arbitration clause and filed a petition under Section 20 of the Arbitration Act in the Court of Senior Sub Judge, Faridabad. This application was allowed on 26.7.1989 and the Chief Administrator was appointed the arbitrator to settle the disputes’ between the parties and he was directed to pronounce his award within four months. The parties were also directed to file their claims and counter-claims before him within the time schedule fixed by the Court. The Administrator exercising the powers of the Chief Administrator decided the matter as per his order dated 21.5.1990 and directed the Revenue Officer, Faridabad to get the deficiencies removed which had been found at the time of delivering possession to the petitioner. In addition, the petitioner was directed to pay interest on the balance instalments from the date of delivery of possession. It is stated that the deficiencies have not been removed so far and the premises are lying unused. The petitioner applied to the respondents for transfer of the building in the name of one Surinder Nischal and in response to her application she was informed that a sum of Rs. 14,77,660/- was payable by her to HUDA. It is submitted that the petitioner then verified from the office of the respondents as to how this amount was due. She also submitted the details of the payments made by her. A copy of the letter dated addressed to the Estate Officer in this regard is Annexure P-12 with the petition. A perusal of the payment schedule as contained in this letter would show that the petitioner delayed the payment of instalments for which she is liable to pay interest. The petitioner also requested that a conveyance deed be executed in her favour. It was then that the present petition was filed under Article 226 of the Constitution for quashing the demand made by the respondents requiring the petitioner to deposit a sum of Rs. 14,77,660/-. It is also prayed that the respondents be directed to execute the conveyance deed in favour of the petitioner.

2. In the written statement filed on behalf of the respondents, it is pleaded that an amount of Rs. 14,77,660/- is due from the petitioner and that interest @ 18% per annum has been charged as per HUDA policy. It is admitted that a sum of Rs. 2,30,490/- was deposited by the petitioner on 19.4.1996. It is denied that the petitioner is entitled to any damages as claimed.

3. We have heard counsel for the parties and from their pleadings it is clear that the possession of the S.C.F. was delivered to the petitioner on 4.5.1987. As per the decision of the Administrator, HUDA dated 21.5.1990 the petitioner is liable to pay interest only from the date of delivery of possession. This is also in accordance with clause (6) of the allotment letter. Even according to Regulation 5 (7) of the Haryana Urban Development (Disposal of Land and Buildings) Regulations, 1978, interest on delayed payments has to accrue only from the date of offer of possession of the building. The question that, however, arises for consideration is at what rate is the interest payable. According to the respondents, HUDA had prepared some policy on the basis of which interest is being charged @ 18%. On the other hand, the learned counsel for the petitioner strenuously urged that in terms of Clause (6) of the allotment letter, the instalments were recoverable together with interest on the balance price @ 10%.
4. Having given our thoughtful consideration to the rival contentions of the parties, we are of the opinion that the petitioner is liable to pay interest at the agreed rate of 10% as stipulated in the letter of allotment. Allotment of S.C.F. through an open auction was the result of a contract between the parties whereby it was agreed between them that the unpaid instalments would be recoverable together with interest at the rate of 10% on the balance price. Clause (6) of the allotment letter contains this stipulation. In the light of this clause, it is not open to HUDA to claim and charge interest @ 18% as is being done in the instant case. All that is stated in Para 14 of written statement is that the petitioner is liable to pay interest @ 18% per annum as per HUDA policy. What is that policy, under which provision of law has it been framed and whether it can override the contractual stipulation contained in Clause (6) of the allotment letter has not been spelt out in the written statement. No provision of any law or the aforesaid regulations has been brought to our notice whereby HUDA could charge interest at a rate exceeding the agreed rate of interest.
5. In the result, it has to be held that the petitioner is liable to pay interest @ 10% as agreed between the parties and that too w.e.f. 4.5.1987 on which date the possession of the premises was delivered to her. Consequently, the communication dated (Annexure PII with the writ petition) insofar it requires the petitioner to deposit a sum of Rs. 14,77,660/- is quashed and respondents 2 to 4 are directed to work out afresh the total amount, if any, payable by the petitioner together with interest @ 10% per annum w.e.f. 4.5.1987 and intimate the same to the petitioner who shall have to pay the same. The amounts deposited by the petitioner will, of course, be taken into account and she shall be given credit for the same. The amount - as worked out is deposited by the petitioner, the respondents shall execute the deed of conveyance in her favour in accordance with law.
6. Another grievance of the petitioner is that in spite of a direction given by the Administrator on 21.5.1990 the damage caused to the premises by the unauthorized occupants which was subsisting at the time of delivery of possession has not been repaired so far and premises are lying unused as they are not capable of being inhabited. This averment of the petitioner has not been specifically denied in the written statement. We, therefore, direct that the petitioner should serve one last notice on the respondents pointing out all the deficiencies and damage in the building requiring them to repair the same. If such notice is received, respondents 2 to 4 may have the premises inspected through their staff and clause the repairs to be made within three months from the date of receipt of the notice failing which it will be open to the petitioner to have the premises repaired on her own at the cost of these respondents. This direction has become necessary because we find that the Administrator, HUDA itself while giving its decision on the disputed issues between the parties had given a direction to the Revenue Officer to get the deficiencies removed and damage repaired which were found at the time of delivery of possession of the premises.
7. This writ petition stands allowed in the above terms. No costs. Petition accepted. ”
17. What needs to be noticed is that in the aforesaid case the allotment was not cancelled and there was no resumption. Furthermore, the Court held that a lawful binding contract came into being, the terms of which could be changed unless law permitted it. The essential difference that I wish to draw attention to is that power under Section 17 was not exercised.
18. While in the aforesaid case it was held that the policy of HUDA would not be applicable on the question of rate of interest, in another case a contrary view was taken. This is the case of Ram Kishan Gulati v. State of Haryana, (P&H)(D.B.) G.S. Singhvi and Mehtab Singh Gill, JJ. In C.W.P. No. 15746 of 1997 decided on 02.06.1999. This judgement took into consideration the following cases and its operative part reads as:

Cases referred:

- i. Aruna Luthra v. State of Haryana and others, 1997(2) PLJ 1.
- ii. Baij Nath Gargv. The Chief Administrator, HUDA and others, 1995 (2) RRR 27 (P&H).
- iii. Ajit Singh and others v. Chandigarh Administration through Administrator, Union Territory and others, C.W.P. No. 9503 of 1996, decided on 29.8.1996.
- iv. Sukhpal Singh Kang and others v. Chandigarh Administration and another, I.L.R, 1999(1) Punjab and Haryana 141.
- v. Haryana Urban Development Authority and another v. M/s Roochira Ceramics and another, 1997 (1) RCR (Civil) 696 (SC).
- vi. Manju Jain and another v. HUDA and others, C.W.P. No. 4405 of 1998 decided on April 2, 1998 Vii Ashwani Puri v. HUDA, C.W.P. No. 2363 of 1996, decided on 3.12.1996.

“The facts necessary for deciding this petition filed by Ram Kishan Gulati and three others for quashing of the notices and orders issued by the Estate Officer and the Chief Administrator, Haryana Urban Development Authority, Panchkula (hereinafter referred to as “HUDA”), are that on the basis of highest bid of Rs. 9,55,500/- given by them in the auction held by respondent No.3, Show- room Plot No. 7, Sector 11, Panchkula measuring 574.75 sq. metres was allotted to Sh. Agya Ram and others (predecessor-in- interest of the petitioners). They deposited 10% price of the plot at the fall of hammer but delayed the deposit of remaining 15% as required by clause 4 of the letter of allotment. A part of 15% of the price was deposited on 22.9.1986 and the balance was deposited on 11.10.1986. Notwithstanding this default, possession of the plot was delivered to the allottees on 21.6,1988. Thereafter, they constructed the building and occupied the same. Due to non-payment of instalments in accordance with clause 5 of the letter of allotment, proceedings under Section 17 of the Haryana Urban Development Authority Act/ 1977 (hereinafter referred to as the Act) were initiated against Sh. Agya Ram and others. Notices under Section 17(1) to 17(4) of the Act were issued to them but they did not deposit the instalments of the price. Instead, Sh. S.R. Suri, Advocate who appeared on their behalf before the Estate Officer, Panchkula (hereinafter described as ‘respondent No. 3’) pleaded that interest may not be charged because the development works were not complete at the site. This plea of Sh. Suri was rejected by respondent No. 3 who observed that the development work had, in fact, been completed. He further held that the allottees are evading the payment of outstanding dues. On that premises, he ordered resumption of the site and forfeiture of Rs. 2,30,143/- out of amount deposited by the allottees. The relevant portion of the order passed by respondent No. 3, which we have taken from the original file produced by Sh. R.S. Chahar is reproduced below:-

“As per condition No. 5 of the allotment letter, it was incumbent upon the allottee to pay the due instalments on due dates, but they did not deposit the due amount. Therefore, the following regd. Notice u/s 17 of HUDA Act for recovering a sum of Rs. 9,10,000/- on account of outstanding dues were served upon the allottees.

Notice U/s 17(1) vide memo No. 18819 dated 7.10.89 for Rs. 9,10,000/-.

In response to the above notice, reacting sharply the allottees have resorted to frivolous correspondence and contended the noncompletion of development works and charging the alleged interest on account thereof. While replying to the notice vide their reply dated 1.11.89. They have also supported their reply with the copy of undertaking given by the then Administrator, Miss Leena Nair dated 17.2.88 stating that no interest on the principal shall be charged if shops from the residential premises were not vacated. Since this undertaking was not held valid by the Chief Administrator, HUDA because she was not competent to give such undertaking. Therefore, both these representations were not considered satisfactory being not based on facts having any authenticity. Since the development works were complete at site at the time of allotment of this site, therefore, by rejecting their representations the further notices U/s 17 of HUDA Act as per detail given below were again served upon them.

Notice U/s 17(2) vide memo No. 22216 dated 13.12.89.

In response to the above notices neither the allottees have appeared for hearing nor have they deposited even a single penny against the outstanding dues. This negligence was viewed seriously and the Estate Officer had imposed a penalty of Rs. 91,000/- vide this office memo No. 462 dated 11.1.90 and further directed them to make the payment of outstanding dues within 30 days. But the allottees have filed an appeal before the Administrator, HUDA, Panchkula against these orders. The appeal has also been rejected by the appellate authority and the order issued by the Estate Officer, HUDA, Panchkula is upheld. However, a lenient view was again taken and to give them further opportunities the process of notices was again adopted and the notices u/s 17(3) were again served upon them.

Notice U/s 17(4) vide memo No. 7922 dated 21.5.93 for Rs. 21,23 ,850/-

In response to the above mentioned notices the Advocate of the allottee Sh. S.R. Suri appeared for hearing on 8.6.92 and he has given a representation that the development works were not complete at the site. Therefore, the interest should not be charged against the outstanding dues. It is not out of place to point out here that the development works were complete at site when it was sold and the allottees are evading the payment of outstanding dues by resorting to these frivolous contentions. It is also pertinent to mention here that since the allotment of site the allottees remained grossly defaulter in making the upto date payment of instalments. Whereas, all 8 Nos. half yearly instalments had already been elapsed on 19.8.90 and the amount of outstanding due has accumulated to Rs. 20,62,680/- upto 8.6.93. Whereas the Show Room is constructed at site and the allottees are deriving all the benefits after occupying the same without obtaining occupation certificate from this office on the one hand, but evading payments of outstanding dues on the other. This clearly shows that non-seriousness of the allottees in clearing outstanding dues.

From the facts mentioned above it is clear that allottees are willfully defaulting in making the due payment in spite of various notices issued by this office from time to time. Whereas, repeated opportunities have been given to them. Hence, I am of the considered opinion that the allottees have violated the terms and conditions of the allotment letter by not making the due payments in time. Hence, I order the resumption of Show Room site No. 7, Sector-11, Panchkula under powers conferred upon me U/s 17 of the HUDA Act. I also order the forfeiture of Rs. 2,30,143/- out of the amount deposited by them.

Dated 9.6.1995

Endst. No. 8617

By an order dated 4.2.1997, the Administrator HUDA, Panchkula (exercising the powers of the Chief Administrator, HUDA) dismissed the appeal filed by the petitioners. The relevant extract of the appellate order is reproduced below:-

“Keeping in view the arguments of both the parties and facts on record, it is clear from the record that the appellants have retained the Show Room in question after paying almost 25% of the tentative price only. A number of notices has been issued to the appellants but they did not bother to pay any amount against the outstanding instalments which have become due. Moreover, the appellants had constructed the building over the Show Room in question and occupied illegally without obtaining Occupation certificate as required under the Erection of Building Regulations, 1979. Therefore, I find no illegality in the order of Estate Officer which is quite in accordance with terms & conditions of allotment and as per provisions of HUDA Act, 1977. Order of Estate Officer is upheld and the appeal is dismissed.

Announced in the open Court on 4.2.97.

The revision petition filed by the petitioners was dismissed by the Commissioner and Secretary to Government, Town and Country Planning Department, Haryana, who expressed his concurrence with respondent No. 3 and the appellate authority in the following words:-

“I have heard both the parties, it is admitted fact that not a single instalment was deposited by the allottees till 24.4.95. If the instalments were paid on due times then the entire price of the plot would have been deposited by August, 1990. During the course of arguments the learned counsel of the petitioners admitted that they were ready to deposit the outstanding dues alongwith interest within three months if the site in question was restored to them. Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case, I hereby order that HUDA would arrive at the outstanding dues afresh by levying 10% interest on the instalments till 19.8.90 and, thereafter, interest as per the policy of HUDA. Calculation sheet so prepared will be supplied to the petitioners by 15.4.97 and they will deposit the amount within three months from 15.4.97. If they fail to deposit the amount within the stipulated date, the site shall stand resumed immediately after the expiry of the period.

The application dated 9.5.1997 filed by the petitioner under Section 151 C.P.C. with the prayer that the revisional order may be modified by directing the respondents to charge interest from the date of completion of work was filed by the Chief Administrator with the observation that the said order was passed with the consent of the petitioners.

In the meanwhile, proceedings under Section 18(1)(b) of the Act were initiated against the petitioners and after issuing notice to them, respondent No. 3 passed order Annexure P.6 dated 18.03.1997 directing their ejection from the plot in question.

The petitioners have challenged the impugned notices/orders by contending that the respondents cannot charge interest from them because they failed to develop the site in accordance with the provisions of the Act and the Regulations framed thereunder. Another contention urged by them is that the demand of interest over and above the rate specified in clause 5 of letter of allotment is without jurisdiction. They have pleaded that after having agreed to charge interest @ 10% on the delayed payment of instalments, the respondents axe stopped from charging interest at higher rates.

The respondents have contested the writ petition by stating that the development works were completed before issuance of the letter of allotment and possession was given to them after providing all the amenities. They have defended the resumption of plot on the ground that the allottees willfully defaulted in the payment of instalments. They have averred that after having secured the restoration of allotment by making a statement before the revisional authority that they will pay the outstanding dues with interest, the petitioners cannot turn around and question the jurisdiction of the respondents to levy interest as per the policy of the HUDA. The respondents have further averred that the construction of the show room and occupation thereof by the petitioners even without obtaining required certificate under the Haryana Urban Development Authority (Erection of Buildings) Regulations, 1979 (hereinafter referred to as the 1979 Regulations) belies their claim that the development work has not been carried out.

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

We are further of the view that the condition requiring the allottee to pay interest on the balance price, if he/she decides to pay the same in instalments, is based on simple but sound logic and is quite rational. If an allottee pays the balance price in lump-sum then the respondents can deposit the amount in a bank and earn interest. This is not possible if the balance price is paid otherwise than in lump-sum. In that event, money remains with the allottees who can utilize the same for his/her benefit and even earn interest on it by keeping the same deposited in the bank. Therefore, charging of interest @10% on the balance price cannot be termed as arbitrary, unreasonable, unconscionable or illegal. The condition incorporated in clause 5 of the letter of allotment that interest shall be payable from the date of offer of possession operates as a safeguard for the allottees against any possibility of exploitation. In view of this condition, the allottee is not put to the burden of interest before he gets an opportunity to take the possession. We, therefore, do not find anything inherently wrong in the levy of interest on the balance price in a case in which an allottee decides to pay the balance price in instalments.

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

The issue which remains to be decided is whether the respondents can charge 18% interest from the petitioners as a condition for restoration of the plot. The argument of Sh. Kapoor is that in view of the express provision contained in the letter of allotment, the respondents cannot charge interest at a rate higher than 10% per annum. According to him 10% is the outer limit of the rate at which the interest is to be charged for normal as well as delayed payments and, therefore, the decision of the respondents to charge interest @ 18% from the petitioners should be declared as without jurisdiction, arbitrary and illegal. He strongly relied on the observations made in Aruna Luthra's case in support of his submission that the respondents do not have the authority to charge interest @ 18% per annum. In our opinion, the contention of the learned counsel is wholly untenable and merits rejection. At the cost of repetition, we deem it appropriate to observe that 10% interest which the allottees were liable to pay is not an interest on delayed payment. Rather, it is an integral part of the price determined by the respondents. The allottees and their successors were required to pay balance price in lump-sum without interest or to pay the same price in 8 half yearly instalments with interest. They adopted the second course and in this manner, they incurred the liability to pay interest@ 10%. In our considered opinion, Regulations 5(6) & (7) and 6(3) of 1978 Regulations read with Clause 5 of the letter of allotment which deal with payment of balance price and interest in case the allottee opts to pay the balance price in instalments do not have any application to the cases in which the allottees commit default in the payment thereof on due dates. The cases of this category are to be dealt with under other provisions of the Act and the Regulations. Section 3 of the Act, which deals with the constitution of the HUDA, declares that it shall be a body Corporate with power to acquire, hold and dispose of property. In terms of Section 3(3) of the Act, the Authority consists of a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Chief Administrator and maximum of 12 other members to be appointed by the government. Section 13 of the Act lays down that the objective of the Authority shall be to permit and secure development of all or any of the areas comprised in an urban area. For that purpose, the authority has been vested with the power to acquire by way of purchase, transfer, exchange or gift, hold manage, plan, develop and mortgage or otherwise dispose of land and other property and to carry out by itself or through any agency, building, engineering, mining and other operations, to execute works in connection with supply of water, disposal of sewerage, control of pollution etc. Section 15 deals with disposal of land. Section 30 lays down that the Authority shall carry out the directions, as may be issued, by the State Govt, for efficient administration of the Act. Section 53 empowers the State Govt, to make rules for carrying out the purpose of the Act and Section 54 empowers the Authority to make Regulations, which may provide for the various things enumerated in the said section including the terms and conditions on which transfer of any right, title and interest in any land or building may be permitted. A cumulative reading of these provisions generally and Section 15 in particular shows that the transfer of property vesting in HUDA, by way of allotment, is governed by the Regulations framed under Section 54 and policy to be framed by the HUDA from time to time. The exercise of the various powers vested in HUDA is subject to the directions which the State Govt. may issue.

The issue whether penal interest should be charged from the allottees who default in the payment of price was considered in the 36th meeting of the Financial Committee of the HUDA held on 14.8.1987. the proposal put up before the Finance Committee was that in the case of default interest shall be charged @18% instead of the normal interest @10%. This proposal was approved by the Finance Committee vide agenda item No.. XXXVI(17) and on that basis circular No. HUDA-Acctts-87/1398-1408 dated 15.1.1987 was issued by the Chief Administrator. That circular read as under:-

Xxxxxxxx

The decision contained in the above reproduced circular was reiterated in the 37th meeting of the HUDA held on 29.3.1988 under the Chairmanship of the Chief Minister. The decision taken and the agenda item No. A-XXXVII(2) was that for the delayed payment interest @ 18% should be charged. The relevant extract of that decision is reproduced below:-

“It was further decided the payment schedule in respect of residential/industrial plots will be as under:-

- (i) 10% bid money at the fall of hammer;
- (ii) 15% within 30 days from the date of issue of allotment letter; and
- (iii) Balance 75% in six half yearly instalments.

However, for payment in instalments interest @10% per annum may be charged from the date of offer of possession with provision to charge 18% interest on delayed payments.”

In our opinion, these policy decisions govern the ease of the petitioners and other cases of delayed payment of instalment/default in the payment of instalments and, therefore, no illegality has been committed by the respondents in charging 18% interest as a condition for restoration of the plot.

We are further of the opinion that the petitioners cannot question the levy of penal interest at a rate higher than 10% because theirs is not a case of simple delayed payment. Their plot was resumed by the competent authority because of the non-compliance of the conditions of allotment. That order was upheld by the appellate authority and when the revision came up for hearing before the Commissioner and Secretary, Town & Country Planning Department, the counsel appearing for the petitioners stated that his clients will pay the dues of instalments alongwith interest, which necessarily means that the interest payable in accordance with the policy of HUDA, In our opinion, after having given an unequivocal undertaking before the revisional authority to pay the dues of the instalments with interest, the petitioners cannot turn around and challenge the jurisdiction of the respondents to charge interest @18% in accordance with the policy. The plea of the petitioners that they cannot be asked to pay interest @18%, if accepted, will lead to anomalous results. In that situation, no allottee of the HUDA land would pay the price in accordance with the conditions of allotment and feel relief against the resumption of plot by stating that he/she/it is ready to pay the entire price with interest at the normal rate. Otherwise also, it sounds wholly incongruous that an allottee who has defaulted in the payment of instalments of the price is treated at par with the one who regularly pays the instalments with interest. [Important]

A reading of the judgement of Aruna Luthra’s case (supra) shows that S.C.F. No. 33, Sector 7, Faridabad, was allotted to the petitioner on 5.12.1980. However, possession of the site was delivered to her some time in 1990. The Administrator, HUDA, exercising the powers of the Chief Administrator (acting as Arbitrator) issued direction in this respect. After some time, the petitioner applied for transfer. At that stage, the respondents demanded penal interest @18%. This Court held that the petitioner cannot be made to pay interest because the possession of premises was delivered to allottee on 4.5.1987. The relevant portion of that decision is extracted below:-

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX`

Manju Jain's case (supra) was decided on the basis of the judgement rendered in Aruna Luthra's case (supra). In Ashwani Puri's case (supra), the following order was passed by the Court:-

“The petitioner has deposited Rs. 3.64 lacs and undertakes to deposit the balance amount, if any, intimated by the respondents through registered post AD as undertaken by them, with 10% interest within one month from the receipt of intimation.

In view of this stand taken by counsel for the parties, the writ petition is disposed of..

19. Soon after the aforesaid decision the case of Kanta Devi Budhiraja came to be decided on 16.11.1999., by relying upon the judgement in the case of Ram Krishan Gulathi the Honourable court was pleased to hold in paragraphs 16 to 19 as under:~
16. By applying the ratio of Ram Kishan Gulati's case (supra) of the case of the petitioners, we hold that the decision of the respondents to charge interest @18% from the allottees for the period of default does not suffer from any legal infirmity.
17. However, there is merit in the argument of Sh. Harbhagwan Singh that the respondents cannot charge compound interest from the petitioner, Neither the Act nor the 1978 regulations nor the resolutions passed by the HUDA empower respondents No. 2 and 3 to charge compound interest from the allottees in respect of the period of default. Therefore, to this extent, relief deserves to be given to the allottees.
18. In view of the our conclusion that the allottees are not entitled to get any relief except to the limited extent indicated hereinabove, we do not consider it proper to non-suit them on the ground of improper impleadment of the parties. The allottees would have been well advised by their counsel to change the description of the parties. However, this lapse cannot be made a ground to non-suit them.
19. For the reasons mentioned above, the writ petition is dismissed subject to the direction that the respondents shall not charge compound interest from the allottees in respect of the period of default. We also direct respondents No. 2 and 3 to communicate to the petitioner the amount due from the allottees (instalments of the price plus interest @ 18%) within a period of two months, the petitioner/allottees shall pay the amount specified in that communication failing which the order of resumption shall stand revived and the respondents shall be free to take possession thereof in accordance with law. If it is found that the petitioner has already paid excess amount, then the same shall be refunded to the allottees alongwith interest at the end of four months period in terms of the order of this Court dated 24.9.1998.”
20. Admittedly, the appeal that was filed against this judgment in the Supreme Court came to be dismissed on 03.04.2000. Thus, the validity of levy of compound rate of interest was struck down for the first time by the Hon'ble Supreme Court on 03.04.2000.
21. In this background, the Authority in its meeting held on 29.08.2000 decided that simple interest may be charged and accordingly instructions were issued to do so with effect 01.09.2000.
22. Soon thereafter, the case of Roochira Ceramics was decided on 29.11.2000 holding that HUDA can charge 10% interest per annum as provided in the allotment letter and not 18% per annum.
23. It appears that notwithstanding the decision in the case of Kanti Devi Budhiraja as well as Roochira Ceramics clearly holding that compound interest could not be charged, HUDA continued to do so.
24. The case of Gian Inder Sharma that is CWP 16497 of 2001 is one such case which highlights this fact. It is specifically seen from the facts of this case that HUDA continued to charge compound interest. It is under the circumstances that the judgment dated 11.11.2002 as noticed above, came to be passed.
25. Apart from this petition, from Page 13 of the noting sheet it is disclosed that CWP 7172 of 2003 was also filed in which the levy of compound interest prior to 01.09.2000 was challenged. In this context, it was also questioned as to why HUDA was not refunding the excess amount that had been charged on account of compound interest which, was against legal provisions. In this context, advice of the Advocate General Haryana was obtained and he was of the view that the amount of compound interest at the 18% by HUDA deserves to be refunded upon representation by the original allottee in that regard. Moreover the original allottee would be entitled to seek a refund of the amount of compound interest in the date of transfer of property by him in favour of a third party.

26. One last factor which is required to be noticed is that a decision was taken on 29.12.2005 which stands implemented, to charge simple interest with effect from 03.04.2000 that is, the date on which the appeal filed by HUDA against the judgment in the case of Kanti Devi was dismissed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court.
27. Having noticed the relevant facts and judicial pronouncements it is important to again refer to the decision in CWP 3737 of 2007 which was decided along with nine other petitions all of which laid challenge to the levy of compound interest. From these it is evident that despite numerous judicial pronouncements and the complete absence of any legal provision to levy compound interest, HUDA continued to do so leading to situation where the direction that has been passed in CWP 3737 of 2007 has had to be issued.
28. In the aforesaid background, I have been asked to render advice on (1) the question of charging interest, whether compound or simple and from what date and (2) compliance of the judgment dated 08.05.2007 keeping in view the following factors;

Cases where:

- a) limitation period has expired
 - b) due certificate has been issued
 - c) full payment has been made and conveyance deed/sale deed has been executed
 - d) Compound interest has been charged as the orders of the competent authority passed in judicial/quasi judicial capacity.
29. I however find that there is another aspect of the matter. There are two categories of cases which form two distinct classes of allottees. The first case is that of a person who has chosen to pay in instalments and the other that of one who is a defaulter and the plot stands resumed. Therefore, the question of levying interest has also to be seen in this context since both these situations have been dealt with distinctly by the Courts.
 30. The first aspect which is to be seen is whether compound interest can be levied. The answer stares one in the face in view of the catena of judgments only some of which have been referred to above. Thus, only simple rate of interest can be levied unless and till such time, the HUDA Act 1977, or its Regulations of 1978 allow for compounded rate of interest.
 31. Having settled the first aspect, the next question that arises is whether there can be a differential rate of interest? This is in context of the two kinds and class of the allottees those who opt to pay in installment and those who defaulters
 32. Keeping in view the decision in the case of Ram Kishan Gulati Vs State of Haryana, (P & H) (D.B.) G.S. Singhvi and Mehtab Singh Gill, jj. In CWP No. 15746 of 1997 decided on 02.06.1999, the answer is again in the affirmative. When a distinct class of allottee is identified, each will be governed by its own terms. The Allottee whose not in default will be bound by the terms of the allotment letter read along with the relevant provisions of the HUDA Act, 1977 and the Regulations of 1978, The other category is a defaulter in whose case the policy guidelines laid down by the Authority to deal with such category of persons would be applicable. With these observations, the question that I have posed in paragraph 29 above stands answered.
 33. To arrive at a date from which the interest at simple rate is to be charged, it would be safe to determine 03.04.2000 as the cut off date as this is date on which the Hon'ble Supreme Court finally decided the question. Therefore, levy of interest post this date has to be based on a simple rate of interest. There cannot be any difficulty in this because even the Authority had taken a decision on *29.12.2005 to levy simple interest with effect from 03.04.2000. In case there is a case of an allottee who has been charged compound rate of interest after 03.04.2000, this action by HUDA would be against its own decision and hence can be corrected by HUDA itself by revision the accounts.
 34. The Hon'ble High Court has directed Haryana Urban Development Authority to uniformly apply the guidelines issued in Gian Inder Sharma's case to all affected and also in the case of the petitioners. HUDA has been directed to decide each case of the petitioners within a period of eight weeks.

35. As already noticed, in Gian Inder Sharma's case a direction was issued to charge only simple interest at the rate of 15% per annum from the petitioner on the delayed payment of additional price of the plot in question and to calculate the additional price with 15% simple interest and adjust the same towards payment made by the petitioner, further to refund any excess amount to the petitioner within a period of three months. Additionally no penalty can be charged from the petitioner on account of delayed payment of additional price. Any other amount due can also be adjusted against the payment already made and after making such adjustment, if any amount is found due the same can be recovered.
36. From a perusal of the direction that has been issued in CWP 3737 of 2007 it is not clear as to what the facts of this case were however, it is more than obvious that the Hon'ble Court has made it crystal clear that compound interest cannot be charged. In case, it has been, in that event the amount due is to be recalculated by charging simple rate of interest and thereafter in case any other amount is due from the allottee, after adjusting the same, the balance amount if any, is to be refunded to the allottee,
37. The question of limitation as a defence to refuse to carryout this recalculation has not been decided. However, it would be useful to notice the words used while disposing of CWP 3737 of 2007. It speaks of granting the same relief to others who are similarly situated. This would obviously mean only such allottees who have raised a dispute with regard to levy of compound interest and the facts of whose case are pari materia to that of the petitioners.
38. In context of the other criteria that is to be addressed as stated in paragraph 28, essentially, the relief that is claimed while demanding levy of simple interest is one of recovery of excess payment or a restraint against HUDA from demanding an illegal amount. For both, the provisions of the Limitation Act 1963 will apply. The limitation would be 3 years for both, except that for the latter, it would depend upon when the demand to deposit the interest is made, it is from this date that limitation would commence. Thus, demands for reconciliation of accounts, made beyond a period of three years after the last payment has been made may not be tenable. I would, however qualify this by stating that since a levy of compound interest has been found to be illegal per se it would always be open to an allottee to come forward and state that he has only recently discovered that he had been made to pay an illegal amount. In such a case, the Hon'ble High Court may be approached under its extra ordinary writ jurisdiction to which the strict provisions of the Limitation Act 1963 do not apply and only delay and laches can taken as a defence. This risk will have to be considered as, it cannot be lost sight of that the very levy of compound interest is unlawful and therefore, there may be cases where limitation may not stand as a foolproof defence.
39. In view of that has been stated in paragraph 38 above, the same situation would cover cases where a "no due certificate" has been issued and also where full payment has been made and conveyance deed/sale deed has been executed.
40. In those cases where compound interest has been charged based on orders of judicial/quasi judicial authorities, it would not be possible for HUDA to grant any relief on its own. However, it would always be open to the aggrieved party to file a revision under Section 30 of the HUDA Act, 1977 or for the State Govt, to Suo Moto take notice of the illegality and grant relief. In such cases, where the matter is sub-judice, any decision taken now pursuant to the directions of the Hon'ble High Court order dated 08.05.2007, would be binding and hence all pending litigation on the question of compound rate of interest, wherever it may be pending, can be brought to an end by charging simple rate of interest.

HARYANA URBAN DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY, PANCHKULA

No. HUDA-Acctts-2007/5903

Dated:4.09.2007

To

1. All the Administrators,
HUDA (in the State).
2. All the Estate Officers,
HUDA (in the State).

Subject: Charging of compound interest on the delayed payment of instalment.

1. Please refer to the instructions issued by this office letter No. 2381-2401 dt. 23.1.06 wherein it was intimated that simple interest @ 18% p.a. on the delayed payment of instalment will be charged from 3.4.2000. These instructions were issued keeping in view the judgment passed by the Hon'ble High Court in the case of Kanta Devi Budhiraja Vs HUDA wherein the appeal filed by HUDA in the Hon'ble Supreme Court was dismissed on. Therefore, the instructions to charge simple interest were made applicable from 3.4.2000.
2. The issue regarding charging of compound interest prior to the period of 2.4.2000 has been causing attention of the Authority and in number of cases the Hon'ble Courts have decided to charge the simple interest on the basis of judgement passed in the case of Roochira Ceramics Vs HUDA & others. HUDA has been fighting the cases in the various Courts and has been pleading that prior to 3.4.2000 compound interest is chargeable on the delayed payment of instalments as per policy of the Authority.
3. Now in the SLP No. 12084, 12085, 12087, 12167, 12169, 12170, 12168 of 2004 arising out of CWP No. 2099, 10422, 6280, of 2003, 19098, 18344, 19099 of 2002, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India has ordered to charge, the compound interest @ 10% p.a. The facts of these cases are given below:-

These cases relates to allotment of commercial sites which were auctioned during the year 1989 to 1991. Clause-5 of the allotment letter stipulates that "the balance 75% amount of the auction price can be paid in lump-sum- without interest within 60 days from the date of issue of allotment letter or 8 half yearly instalments. The first instalment will fall due after the expiry of six months of the issue of this letter. Each instalment would be recoverable together with interest on the balance price @10% interest on the remaining amount. The interest shall however, accrue from the date of offer of possession". No other clause of charging of interest was mentioned in the allotment letter. In these cases the Hon'ble High Court has ordered to charge interest on the delayed payment of instalments on the basis of orders passed by Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of Roochira Ceramics Vs HUDA & others (2002) 9 SCC 599. The SLPs were filed in these cases. The copy of orders of the Hon'ble High Court which were challenged, question of law, grounds of appeal, grounds for interim relief etc. filed in one of these cases in Hon'ble Supreme Court of India is enclosed herewith for ready reference. From this it may be seen that under the questions of law, the question has been raised whether the ratio of Roochira Ceramics case is applicable in the facts of the present case? Similarly under the grounds of appeal grounds has been taken that the Roochira Ceramics case is totally different from the present case as in the case of Roochira Ceramics, interest @ 10% p.a. is chargeable if the installments are paid in time by the allottee. The allotment letter is silent with regard to the rate of interest being chargeable on the failure to pay the installments in time. It is only in case of the failure of the allottee to deposit the installments on the due date that interest @ 18% p.a. is chargeable in accordance with the policy of the Authority. Keeping in view the submissions made by HUDA in these cases, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India has ordered as follows:-

"The question arising in these cases is as to what is the rate of interest to be paid by the respondents for delayed payment to the petitioner- HUDA. We make it clear that the respondents are liable to pay compound interest @ 10% p.a. in these cases. We further make it clear that this direction is only confined to these cases. In other cases, HUDA would be at liberty to charge interest on the defaulting parties in accordance with law. The special leave petitions are disposed of accordingly. No costs".

The copy of the order of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India is enclosed herewith.

You are, therefore, requested to quote these orders in all the cases of similar nature pending in the Courts / Forums / Commission and invariably attach the copy of these orders alongwith the reply filed in these cases and specifically bring it to the notice of the Courts during arguments. In cases where replies have already been filed, these facts may be brought to the notice of the Courts/Forums/Commissions by either filing amended replies or Civil Misc. Application. These instructions will be applicable in only those cases where specific rate of interest or policy regarding charging of interest on delayed payment is not mentioned in the allotment letter. These instructions may be followed in letter and spirit.

Acknowledgement of receipt of these instructions should be sent by each office.

ORDER

Amarjeet Chaudhary J. (Oral)

Haryana Urban Development Authority has come up in appeal against the order of the District Forum, Gurgaon dated 06.08.2001 vide which the District Forum on a complaint filed by Sh. Shashi Sahni had issued direction to the opposite parties to allot original plot No.231-P of Sector-12A, Urban Estate Gurgaon to the complainant if lying vacant and unallotted or to allot any plot either in the same sector or in the adjoining sector or of the sector of the choice of the complainant at the same rate at which the original plot was allotted to him. The opposite parties were further directed to pay interest over the deposits made by the complainant at the rate as per HUDA policy which is to be calculated after two years from the date of deposit till the date of delivery of possession.

Notice of the appeal was issued Service is complete. However, there is no appearance on behalf of the respondent.

We have heard the counsel for the appellant and have also perused the impugned order. From the record, it is seen that the original plot No.231, Sector-12-A, Gurgaon was allotted to one Daulat Ram in the year 1986 but due to litigation, possession could not be delivered to the complainant and an alternative plot No. 1764, Sector-45, Gurgaon was offered to Sh. Daulat Ram, which was duly accepted by him. Subsequently, in the year 1997 the said plot was transferred by Sh. Daulat Ram to the complainant - Shashi sahni. Since the complainant had purchased the alternative plot No. 1764, Sec-45, Gurgaon from the original allottee, she should not have purchased the plot with closed eyes and should have seen the situation/location of the plot and should have verified whether area is fully developed and all the facilities are available or not. Once the complainant had repurchased the plot in the year 1997 from the original allottee, she can not make any grouse regarding price of the alternative plot. It was incumbent upon the District Forum to have gone through the entire record before issuing direction to allot the alternative plot. It is pertinent to note that the complainant had not filed any replication to the written statement and as such, the plea raised by the opposite parties is deemed to have been admitted by the complainant that possession of alternative plot No. 1764 was accepted by the original allottee- Daulat Ra, from whom the complainant had re-purchased the plot. In view of the above discussions, the appeal is allowed, impugned order is quashed and the complaint is dismissed.

ORDER

R.C. Kathuria. President

This appeal is directed against the order dated 22.8.2006 passed by the district consumer Disputes Redressal Forum, Panipat whereby while accepting the complaint of the respondent-complainant direction has been given to the appellants-opposite parties to allot the original allotted plot No. 1490, Sector-18, HUDA, Panipat & if the same was still lying vacant and not to hand over the same" to other person. In the alternative if the said plot had been allotted to some other person, then the opposite parties shall allot an alternative plot to the complainant of same size and in same sector, in the same terms and conditions on which the original plot was allotted to the complainant. Further the direction was issued to the complainant to pay the remaining cost of the plot with interest and penalty as per the rules of the HUDA.

In order to focus to controversy involved in the present appeal, the facts as set out in the complaint need to be noticed briefly, Plot no. 1490 measuring 8 Marlas located in Sector-10, Urban Estate, Panipat was allotted to the complainant as per letter bearing memo No.9648 dated 30.7.1998 on a tentative price of Rs.4,99,187/-. Thereafter the opposite parties demanded the enhanced price of the plot on account of enhanced compensation from the complainant. The complainant was also informed as per separate letter for taking possession of the said plot. The complainant instead of making the payment of the enhanced price of the plot demanded from his submitted a letter of request dated 24.10.2002 surrendering the plot in question with request to refund the amount deposited by him with the opposite parties. The opposite parties after deducting 10% of the cost of the plot, refunded the amount of Rs.2,83,950/- through cheque bearing No. 1036558 dated 11.2.2003 drawn on Union Bank of India, Panipat. Thereafter the complainant instituted the present complaint on 26.5.2006 taking a stand in the complaint that at the time when the offer of possession of the plot was made to him, the development work in the sector was not complete whereas the opposite parties demanded an huge amount of enhanced price of the plot and started charging possession interest which caused mental agony to him and for that reason he had surrendered the plot to the opposite parties. The opposite parties were unjustified in making deduction of 10% of the price of the plot and for that reason he had approached the opposite parties to refund the same including the deducted amount but no action was taken by the opposite parties, which forced him to file the present complaint. Accordingly, he claimed that direction be given to the opposite parties to make the allotment of the alternative plot of same size in Sector-18, HUDA, Panipat and to adjust the deducted amount alongwith interest towards the price of the alternative plot and to receive the balance sale consideration from the complainant as per HUDA policy. Further direction was sought against the opposite parties to pay interest @ 18% per annum on the deposited amount till the date it was refunded and also to pay Rs. 1,00,000/- on account of deficiency of service. In addition Rs. 20,000 was claimed as compensation on account of mental agony and harassment caused to him and Rs.5500/~ as litigation expenses. Claim was contested by the opposite parties. A preliminary objection was raised with regard to the complaint being barred by limitation as it has been filed after refunded amount of Rs.2,83,950/- was received by the compensation vide cheque No. 1036558 dated 11.2.2003. Further pleas of estoppel, locus standi and ant of jurisdiction of the District Forum to try the complaint and non-maintainability of the complaint were also raised. On merits, it was stated that the possession of the plot was offered to the complainant after completion of the development work in the area and the enhanced price of the land was claimed from the complainant as per the rules of the opposite parties and in terms of the allotment letter issued to the complainant. They justified the deduction of 10% of the cost of the plot as the complainant had voluntarily surrendered the same after accepting the refunded amount. He had relinquished all his claims against the said plot. Accordingly, it was prayed that the complaint merited dismissal. Talcing into account the respective stands of the parties and evidence adduced on record, the District Forum accepted the complaint and issued the directions as per order dated 22.8.2006 noticed above. It is against the said order the present appeal has been filed by the appellants-opposite parties.

Learned counsel representing the appellants-opposite parties had been heard at length. None has chosen to appear to argue the matter on behalf of the respondent.

The District Forum has primarily accepted the complaint on the ground that the offer of possession of the plot made to the complainant was illegal because all the basic amenities had not been provided at that point of time and for that reason offer of possession letter was termed as paper possession. With regard to the surrender of the plot made by the complainant, it was held to be involuntarily. Learned counsel representing the appellants- opposite parties while assailing the above finds of the District Forum contended the District Forum had totally overlooked the factual and legal position brought on record. He assailed the order on three counts. Firstly, that the complaint was barred by limitation and the district Forum had not dealt with the specific plea raised in this regard in the written statement filed. Secondly, that the complainant had voluntarily surrendered the plot and after accepting the refunded amount as per cheque bearing No. 1036558 dated 11.2.2003, as such the complainant had no locus standi to file the complaint. Thirdly, that the complainant himself had not deposited the enhanced price of the land and put up a concocted version of non- development of the land in area where the plot in question is located in order to overcome his default. The submission made, as such, cannot be faulted. It is admitted by the complainant himself that after the opposite parties had demanded the enhanced price of the land on account of land compensation, he had no financial position to pay the demanded price of the land along with interest and for that reason he had chosen to approach the opposite parties for the surrender of the plot. Except the assertion of the complainant in the complaint, no other evidence has been adduced on record as to what were the compelling reasons for him to surrender the plot. It is not his case that the opposite parties had any role to play in this regard. The opposite parties were justified in making the demand of the enhanced amount in terms of the Clause-19 of the allotment letter which clearly provide that the price written in the allotment letter was tentative to the extent that any enhancement of the cost of the land awarded by the competent authority under the Land Acquisition Act shall be payable proportionately so determined by that authority. So, this liability was bilateral liability which the complainant was duty bound to pay. Therefore, having decided not to pay the additional price of the land, he had chosen to for the plot in question by moving an application dated 24.10.2002 for surrender of the plot to the opposite parties. The opposite parties after making the deduction fo 10% of the cost of the plot had refunded the amount to the complainant. The action of the opposite parties cannot be termed as illegal and unjustified under the circumstances of the case, rather, the complainant has accepted the refunded amount. The deduction of 10% of the total cost of the plot was fully justified under the circumstances of the case, rather, the complainant has accepted, the refunded amount. The deduction of 10% of the. total cost of the plot was fully justified as per HUDA policy. The position of law in this regard has been well settled in civil Writ Petition No.13951/2003 Naresh Kumar Solanld Vs. Haryana Urban Development Authority, wherein the facts were that the petitioner had expressed his inability to pay the enhanced price and for that reason had chosen to surrender it. The respondent refunded the amount paid by the petitioner after making deduction of Rs.50,069/- representing 10% of the total sale consideration. The action of the respondents was challenged on the ground that 10% deduction could not be made only on the tentative price of the amount of Rs.2,71,092/- and not on account of the enhanced price determined thereafter. The stand taken by the petitioner was rejected by coming to the conclusion that the deduction had been made in accordance with the policy of Haryana Urban Development Authority, which had come into force after allotment of the plot in the present case. The ratio of the above mentioned case would fully apply to the present case as well. Therefore, there is absolutely no merit in the claim made by the complainant that the plot in question was not surrendered voluntarily. The findings of the district Forum in this regard cannot be sustained.

As already noticed, the surrender of the plot was accepted and the amount of Rs.2,83,950/- was refunded to the complainant through cheque bearing No. 1036558 dated 11.2.2003 drawn on Union Bank of India, Panipat which was accepted by the complainant and while the present complaint came to be filed on 26.5.2006. Manifestly, the complaint on the date when it was filed was barred by limitation in terms of the provisions contained in Section-24-A of the Consumer Protection Act, 1986. The District Forum was duty bound to take into account the above stated provisions while deciding the complaint. It is not even the case of the complainant that he had moved an application seeking condonation of delay. Therefore, the complaint filed by the complainant was clearly barred by times and for that reason it was liable to be dismissed on that account as well.

Lastly, the basis of the stand taken in the complaint is that all the amenities had not been provided to the complainant when offer of possession of the plot was made to him as per letter bearing memo No.6707 dated 6.7.2001. The District Forum in its order has noticed that basic amenities of roads, electricity, water and sewerage had been provided but still decided to return a finding against the opposite parties mainly on the ground that shopping centre, schools, post office, telephone exchange had not been provided in the Sector before making the offer of possession of the plot to the complainant. These facilities cannot be termed as a condition precedent in terms of the pronouncement of the Hon'ble Supreme court of India in case Municipal Corporation Chandigarh & Ors. Etc. Vs. M/s Shantikunj Investment Pvt. Ltd. Etc. J.T. 2006(3) SCI, wherein it was observed as under:-

“Therefore, the term mandate in the context of real estate is to men facility as provided under Section 2(b) of the Act, but it can never be treated to mean that it is a condition precedent. It is for the better use of allotted price of land but does not mean that it should be provided first as a condition precedent in the matter of the present case.”

I was further laid down that once the allotment of the land has been made in favour of the allottee. He can take possession of the property and it does not mean that all facilities should be provided first for so called enjoyment of the property. The ratio of the above mentioned case would fully apply to the present case. The district Forum has totally overlooked the legal and factual position in this regard and for that reason this finding also cannot be sustained.

For the aforesaid reasons while accepting the appeal, the impugned order is set aside and the complaint is accordingly dismissed.

1. A notice under Section-27 on Consumer Protection Act has been issued to Sh. S.S. Dhillon, IAS, the then Chief Administrator, HUDA for not complying with the orders of National Commission in Original Petition No. 470 of 2002 (Lt. Col. Mehar Chnad Soni Vs HUDA and others). For this lapse, appropriate action is being taken against the delinquents.
2. To guard against such omissions in future, it is hereby ordered that if decision is taken by the competent authority to implement the orders of any Court/Forum, a compliance report stating that the orders of the Court/ Forum have been implemented shall be sent under the signatures of Estate Officer/Asstt. Memo No.24329-45

Subject:-Filing of revision petition against the orders passed by the Administrators of HUDA in the appeals.

The appeals against the orders passed by the Estate officers are heard by the concerned Administrators of HUDA exercising the powers of CA, HUDA. However, it has been observed that whenever an appeal is accepted by the Administrator, the cases are not referred to head office for examining the matters legally and taking a final decision whether a revision petition should be filed before the State Government U/s 30(2) of the HUDA Act against the orders passed by Administrator, HUDA in appeal. It has, therefore been decided that cases in which appeal has been accepted by the Administrators exercising the powers of CA, HUDA and order passed by the E.O have been set aside should be referred to headed office in Urban Branch for taking decision whether a revision should be filed before the State Government or not. You are, therefore, requested to take further action in the matter accordingly and refer all such cases to Head Office. The list of all such cases alongwith details of decided cases during the last 6 months should also be sent to this office

Strict compliance of the above said directions may be ensured. In case of any default on the part of any officer/ official disciplinary action would be initiated against him.

Subject:-Order passed by Revisional Authority u/s 17 (9) or u/s 30(2) of HSVP, Act, 1977.

Reference on the subject cited above.

1. It has been observed that the orders passed by Revisional Authority u/s 17 (9) or u/s 30(2) of HSVP, Act, 1977 are neither implemented nor challenged expeditiously. The same position exists where the order itself sets a timeline for implementation of the same. In fact, the reply of the Estate Officers is already a part of the file of revision petition which is maintained in Legal Cell, HSVP, H.Q. Even the plot files are uploaded on PPM database and all the concerned DDAs/ADAs of Legal Cell, HSVP, H.Q. has been given ID and password to access the PPM database.
2. Therefore, it has been decided that the concerned DDAs/ADAs of Legal Cell, HSVP, H.Q. shall examine such orders immediately on receipt and if there occurs any delay in the implementation or challenging of time bound order, he shall be personally responsible.

Subject: Review Petitions before the Revisional Authority

Refer to the subject cited above.

It has been noticed that the Estate Officers are filing Review Petitions before the Revisional Authority in some cases inspite of the fact that of the that the same are not maintainable as HUDA Act, 1977 does not confer power of review upon Revisional Authority. Therefore, in future Review Petitions be not filed before the Revisional Authority. The Reiew Petitions already filed have been withdrawn by legal Cell (HQ) separately.

Subject: SCO No.3, Sector-9 Ambala City-Challenging the orders of Revisional Authority-Competence of Hon'ble CM .

It has been observed that Principal Secretary to Government, Haryana Town & County Planning Department exercises the powers of Revisional Authority under Section 17 (8) & 17(9) of HUDA Act, 1977. Reasoned orders are passed by the PSTCP. However, in certain cases it is decided to challenge the orders of PSTCP (Revisional Authority) in the Hon'ble High Court.

It has now been decided that in case such orders are to be challenged, then cogent grounds must be recorded for doing so and approval of Hon'ble Chairman HUDA should be taken so that unnecessary litigation is avoided.

These instructions should be complied with in letter and spirit.

Memo No.213-217

Dated:10.01.2013

Subject:- Guidelines for the Appellate and Revisional Authorities to decide the Appeals/ Revisions u/s 17 of the HUDA Act, 1977- CWP No. 19503 of 2010 titled as Suresh Chand Vs State of Haryana and others.

The Hon'ble High Court in the above mentioned case directed on 04.12.2012 that the Haryana Urban Development Authority (HUDA) should evolve guidelines for the Appellate and Revisional Authorities to decide the appeals/revisions. In compliance thereof, the matter has been considered in depth in the Review Meeting held on 15.12.2012 under the Chairmanship of Principal Secretary, Town & Country Planning Department and it has been decided that henceforth the Appellate and Revisional Authorities shall keep in mind the following guidelines while deciding the appeals/ revisions as per the provisions of HUDA Act, 1977:-

The Authorities shall not give relief to the allottees on arbitrary grounds by using expressions like financial hardship, unavoidable circumstances, routine health problems, illness of relatives, long period of absence from the Country/ place of residence, ignorance of payment schedule, technical infirmities in the letter of allotment like condition of payment of interest in hand written form instead of typed form etc. However, in the following circumstances, the Authorities may consider providing relief:-

- i) If, allottees goes in coma and remains under coma for the period when the payments were due and recovers subsequently.
- ii) If, allottee has to incur major financial expenditure on treatment of serious diseases like cancer, major surgeries, accident traumas rendering him unable to discharge the liabilities of such due payments. In such cases, the allottee will have to submit complete proof of his treatment duly authenticated.

The above parameters will also apply in case the allottee's spouse or children suffers from such kind of eventualities.

2. Non development of site/ area of the sector or providing other amenities will not constitute ground for non payment of due instalments and will not be considered as such while deciding the cases.
3. In case the appeal/ revision has been filed by the GPA/SPA purchaser then it should be ascertained whether the GPA/SPA was executed before or after the passing of resumption order. If the GPA/SPA has been executed after the passing of the resumption order, such GPA/SPA holder will be considered as one having no locus standi. In case the allottee is very old or infirm person and has executed General Power of Attorney (GPA) either before resumption or during the pendency of appeal, the same shall be considered if the same is executed in blood relation for carrying on day to day proceedings with respect to the plot on behalf of the allottee and does not amount to sale.
4. In cases where the allottee has failed to pay price of the plot after depositing 25% initial amount till the schedule of payment is over, the authorities shall not provide any relief in routine manner. Such cases will be considered only under extremely justifiable circumstances for which allottee needs to give documentary proof of failures in making due payment.

5. Maintainability:-

The Authorities shall give a definite finding in the order in this regard. For example, an appeal U/s 17 of the HUDA Act against eviction order passed by the Estate Officers u/s 18 of the HUDA Act, 1977 is not maintainable. Similarly, an appeal does not lie against an order of cancellation of offer of allotment of plot due to non deposit of 15% amount within the given 30 days from the date of offer of allotment. The Authorities also shall not entertain appeals/ revisions for restoration of sites in case of surrender of plot.

6. Question of delay:-

The Authorities shall not condone the delay in a routine manner. The appellant must explain the delay to the satisfaction of the Authorities, failing which the Authorities shall dismiss the appeal/ revision on the ground of delay.

7. The Authorities shall keep in mind the principles of res-judicata and res-subjudice while deciding the appeals/ revisions. It shall also be kept in mind that the appellant has not resorted to forum hopping.
8. The Authorities shall keep in mind the law laid down by the Hon'ble High Court and Hon'ble Apex Court while deciding the appeals/ revisions.
9. The order of restoration must be well reasoned explaining in detail the reasons of acceptance of appeal/ revision.

These instructions must be complied with meticulously with immediate effect.

Subject: D.O. CWP No. 2212 of 2014 titled as Hukum Singh vs. State of Haryana-Re-inviting of oustees claims.

The petitioner filed the ibid CWP seeking a direction to HUDA to allot a plot to petitioner under Ousteas policy and prayed for quashing of the impugned order dated 02.02.2014 (whereby auction of commercial sites in sector 29, 31 Part, 31-32A, 46 and 55 shopping center was fixed) and 28.09.2013 whereby advertisement was issued for inciting claims from Ousteas whose land was acquired for development of Sector road 21 to 34, 39, 43, 46 to 67, 71A Gurgaon and Badshahpur Nala Phase-I, by pass, Mehrauli road, 90 meter NPR, DMRC since 05.03.2005.

The Hon'ble High Court vide order dated 20.08.2014 while allowing the writ petition has been pleased to observe that the action of the HUDA in putting a cut-off date in the advertisement runs counter to the Division Bench judgment of this Court in Sandeep's case. The Hon'ble High Court has set aside the cut off date in the advertisement inviting claims only from the land owners whose land was acquired after 5.3.2005. HUDA has been directed to issue a fresh advertisement inviting applications from all land owners, whose land was acquired in the area in question. It was decided by the Chief Administrator, HUDA not to file SLP and to invite the claims from the land owners whose land was acquired for development of HUDA Sectors before 05.03.2005 separately.

The above observations of the Hon'ble High Court were conveyed to your vide email dated 25.11.2014 by Legal Cell HUDA (HQ) for necessary action. But in one of the matters listed in the Hon'ble High Court on 02.03.2015, it has been pointed out by the Hon'ble High Court that despite of the directions in Sandeep's case and Hukam Singhs case, the speaking orders are being passed by the Officers of HUDA which are contrary to the judgments passed by the Court in above mentioned cases. For instance, still speaking orders are being passed by the Estate Officers whereby the claims of the land owners are being rejected on the ground that the land of the petitioner was acquired before 05.03.2005 and all Ousteas policies except the R & R policy dated 05.03.2005 and 09.11.2010 have been withdrawn.

You are therefore, directed to decide the appeals/representations/ applications/Legal notices etc. keeping in view the judgments of the Hon'ble High Court in above mentioned cases.

Yours sincerely,

Pls find attached herewith the copy of order passed by Hon'ble High Court in the case mentioned in the subject.

It has been approved by CA HUDA that in regard to the above observations of the Hon'ble Court in judgment dated 23.04.2012 passed in LPA No 2096 of 2011 has observed that the failure to apply in response to an advertisement will not dis-entitle an Oustee from submitting application at a subsequent stage as and when advertisement is again issued inviting applications for allotment of plots. The above said judgment has been upheld by the Hon'ble Apex Court vide order dated 06.03.2014. It is relevant to mention here that HUDA had issued the impugned advertisement on 28.09.2013 i.e. during the pendency of the SLP before Hon'ble Apex Court. Therefore, as of now, the said advertisement is contrary to the observations of the Hon'ble High Court order in Sandeep's case. Therefore, the case is not fit for filling SLP. However, as far as the issue of applicability of policy for considering the claim of a land owner is concerned, the opinion of Sh D.V Sharma Sr Advocate was obtained. He has opined that the eligibility of an Oustees is to be seen as on the date of issuance of notification under Section 4 of the Land Acquisition Act. He has further stated that the Hon'ble Division Bench has specifically quashed any other date for the purpose of eligibility. It has been further opined by the Senior Advocate that the Hon'ble High Court has rightly set aside the conditions in the advertisement in Hukum Singh case in view of the Question No 5 (of sandeep judgment) and therefore, an Oustee can apply in response to any advertisement but his case has to be considered by treating his eligibility as per policy applicable when Section 4 of notification was issued.

While deciding the question No 1 in judgment dated 23.04.2012 passed in LPA No 2096 of 2011 has inter alia observed that in the first policy dated 10.09.1987, a land owner, who was owner of the land for a period of one year before issue of notification under Section 4 of the Act in the circular dated 09.05.1990. However, in the policy circulated on 18.03.1992, it was again stipulated that the land owner should be owner of the land on the date of notification under section 4 of the Act. But again, in the policy notified on 07.10.20007, the date of award has been made the basis to determine the eligibility. It has been further observed that the date of notification under Section 4 of the Act is just and reasonable in view of the fact that such date is relevant for the purpose of determination of the market value in respect of compensation payable to the land owners for the land acquired. The period of one year or five years prior to the date of publication of notification is without any reasonable basis and has no nexus with the objective to be achieved i.e. resettlement of the land owner, who are rendered homeless on account of acquisition of land. The policies referred to above and/or so framed are ostensibly in furtherance of the said objective. The fixation of different dates in different policies lead to conflicting rights and interests and, therefore, to have uniformity in respect of applicability of the policies for allotment of plots to the Oustees, the date of notification under Section 4 of the Act is a reasonable date. Any other date in the R&R policy is, therefore, quashed and set aside.

The Hon'ble Court has also given clear finding on the issue. Thus, as opined by the HUDA counsel, an Oustee can apply in response to any advertisement but his case has to be considered by treating his eligibility as per policy applicable when Section 4 of notification was issued.

It is therefore, intimated that SLP may not be filed and the claims of the landowners whose land has been acquired prior to 05.03.2005 by State of Haryana for development of sectors of HUDA may be invited separately.

Pls take necessary action.

Memo No. DA/2012/1420-42

Dated:20/3/2012

Subject :- Scope of Power of Attorney-SLP (C) No. 13917 of 2009 titled Suraj Lamp and Industries Pvt. Ltd. Vs State of Haryana and another and SLP (C) No. 31841 of 2011 titled as Ved Parkash Kathuria Vs Haryana Urban Development Authority and Another*

1. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Suraj Lamp and Industries Pvt. Ltd. vide order dated 11.10.2011 has reiterated the law that a transfer of immovable property by way of sale can only be made by a deed of conveyance (sale deed) and in the absence of such a deed (duly stamped and registered as required by law), no right, title or interest in an immovable property can be transferred. A power of attorney is not an instrument of transfer in regard to any right, title or interest in an immovable property. The power of attorney is creation of an agency whereby the grantor authorizes the grantee to do the acts specified therein, on behalf of the grantor, which when executed will be binding on the grantor as if done by him (See Section 1A and Section 2 of the Powers of Attorney Act, 1882). It is revocable or terminable at any time unless it is made irrevocable in a manner known to law. Even an irrevocable attorney does not have the effect of transferring title to the grantee.
2. Transactions of the nature of 'GPA sales' or 'SA/GPA/WILL transfers', which were evolved to avoid prohibitions/ conditions regarding certain transfers, to avoid payment of stamp duty, registration charges, income tax and wealth tax, do not convey title and do not amount to transfer, nor can they be recognized as valid mode of transfer of immovable property. The courts will not treat such transactions as completed or concluded transfers or as conveyances as they neither convey title nor create any interest in an immovable property. Such transactions cannot be relied upon or made the basis for mutations in Municipal or Revenue Records. What is stated above applies not only to deeds of conveyance in regard to freehold property but also to transfer of leasehold property. The Hon'ble Court observed in the ibid judgment that it is time to put an end to the pernicious practice of SA/GPA/WILL transactions known as GPA sales. However, if the documents relating to SA/GPA/WILL transactions have already been accepted/ acted upon by Development Authority etc., they need not be disturbed, merely on account of this decision. The Hon'ble Court has also clarified that the observations are not intended to in any way affect the validity of power of attorney executed in genuine transactions, e.g., a person may give a power of attorney to spouse, son, daughter, brother, sister or a relative to manage his affairs or to execute a deed of conveyance.
3. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Ved Parkash Kathuria's case decided on 14.11.2011 has observed that it is most upsetting that the appellate authority did not even bother to take note of the fact that in majority of cases, the appeals have been filed by the allottees through their General Power of Attorney. The Hon'ble Court took Judicial notice of the fact that in large number of such cases the property dealers pay certain amount to the allottees, get the power of attorney executed in their names and then involve HUDA and other similar authorities with the hope that they may succeed in persuading the higher administrative authorities to give relief to them. Such appellate orders cannot be made basis for recording a finding that the petitioner has been subjected to discrimination.
4. The matter has been considered in the light of the ibid legal position and it has been decided that the Zonal Administrators, while hearing appeals u/s 17 (5) of the HUDA Act, 1977 (exercising the powers of Chief Administrator, HUDA), shall first decide the issue of locus standi if an appeal has been filed by the allottee through General Power of Attorney. The concerned Zonal Administrator may direct the allottee as well as GPA holder to submit affidavits that the plot/property in question has not been sold/ purchased and consideration money has not passed from the GPA holder to the allottee, to ensure that the case is not of GPA sale. If the case is found to be of GPA sale, the concerned Zonal Administrator shall reject the appeal in limine.

5. Further, the Estate Officers, HUDA, in the State shall also follow the ibid procedure while granting the transfer permissions.
6. These instructions be brought into the notice of all concerned for strict compliance.

Subject: -Instructions relating to transfer of plots on the basis of court decree passed on the basis of an oral exchange.

Ref:-In partial modification of earlier instructions bearing memo no.A-5-99/8852 dated 12.03.1999.

Reference representation made by Sh. Aman Pal dated 20.07.2007 on the subject as cited above.

The matter has been legally examined and the advice of LR, Haryana has also been taken. It has been decided on the basis of law laid down by Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Bhoop Singh Vs. Ram Singh Major & others reported in AIR 1996 SC 196, Hon'ble High Court in Kishori Lal Vs. Babu Ram and others reported in 2003 (2) PLR 54 and Sh. Sona Ram and others Vs. Sh. Mulkh Raj and another reported in 1999 (1) PLI 165 that a decree of order of a Court (except decree or order expressed to be made on a compromise and compromising immovable property other than that which is the subject matter of the suit or proceeding) passed by dint of an oral exchange with delivery of possession of immovable property of any value does not required registration.

The permission to transfer of such plot/built up property on the basis of such decrees passed by the courts should be effected without execution of deed of conveyance. However, the collusive decree which is violative of HUDA policies should be challenged through a different suit and efforts be made to get the earlier order reversed.

It is, therefore, requested, that all such similar cases may be dealt with and disposed off accordingly.

Memo. No. CTP/DTP(PB)/SB/148261

Dated: 04.07.2023

Subject: Comprehensive instructions regarding permission for changing the number and sizes of dwelling units/transfer of membership and increase in FAR in case of allotment made to Co-operative Group Societies/Welfare Housing Organization under Group Housing Schemes of HSVP.

Reference:-In continuation of instructions circulated vide this office memo no. CTP/DTP(N)/JS/54-112 dated 02.01.2009.

The subjected matter has been examined in light of HSVP TOD policy dated 18.03.2019 and TDR policy of Town & Country Planning Department, Haryana. It has been observed that HSVP may allow requests for increasing the number and size of dwelling units within the FAR, density and other prescribed parameters, which are permissible as per HSVP TOD policy dated 18.03.2019 and TDR policy of T&CP Department, Haryana as amended from time to time. Further, it has been decided that the charges under policy instructions dated 02.01.2009 need revision on the lines of decision already taken in case of compounding charges of residential/commercial buildings. The revised charges for change in the number and size of dwelling units/transfer of membership shall be as under:-

The new rates shall be as under:-

• Change in size of dwelling units.

Size of dwelling units (in Sq.mtr.)	Amount to be charged (per member)
Upto 75	20,000/-
76-200	60,000/-
201 to 350	80,000/-

• Change in membership of the society/organization (Where there is no change in total number of members).

For the 1 st time	40,000/-
For the 2 nd time	80,000/-
For the 3 rd time	1,20,000/-

Note:- Change in Membership/increase in number of members of Society/ Organization is subject to density & FAR parameters/provisions of relevant Group Housing Scheme/HSVP policies:

• Increase in membership of the society/organization:-

For increase of each dwelling unit after increase in membership HSVP shall charge 25% of the collector rate per sq.ft. of that area from the Society/Organization (For additional FAR in TOD/TDR).

Note:- In case of increase in Membership of society 'L' form duly vetted from Zonal Administrator and Estate Officer shall be forwarded for approval of Chief Administrator, HSVP.

- Applicability

The change in membership can be considered only before the grant of Occupation Certificate to any Society/Welfare Housing Organization. Once the dwelling units are constructed and OC is granted, provisions of Haryana Apartment Ownership Act apply on the society/organization for further sale/ transfer of built up dwelling units.

- Redevelopment

The allottee Society/Organization can avail the benefit of TOD/TDR as per applicable norms only after demolition of existing structure, in this case also the additional the FAR shall be charged at 25% of present collector of defined landuse (either Commercial or Residential).

- Updation of record of change in membership

It has been observed that the societies take permission of concerned ARCS for change/increase in membership and do not timely present the revised Form-L in the office of concerned Estate Officer, where it merely becomes a case of ex-post facto approval.

The approval for the change in membership accorded by ARCS should be incorporated in a time bound provision (within 30 days) making it binding for the society to present revised Form-L to the concerned Estate Officer within that period, failing which the permission for transfer granted by ARCS would become invalid. This provision shall apply prospectively from the date of issue of these instructions and cases, if any, where the societies have not got the record updated by presenting the revised Form-L and paying the requisite fee to HSVP shall also be governed by this new fee structure/charges.

The other terms & conditions of earlier policy instruction dated 02.01.2009 shall remain same. This policy shall be applicable from the date of issue of this letter and all such matters referred to above shall henceforth be dealt with as per above policy.

Memo. No. CTP/DTP (N)/JS/54- 101,54-112

Dated; 02.01.09

Subject: Comprehensive instructions regarding permission for changing the number and sizes of dwelling units/transfer of membership and increase in FAR in case of allotment made to societies under Group Housing Schemes of HUDA.

Reference: In supersession of this office memo. no. 3676-97 dated 20.05.1998, 56-77 dated 07.01.2000, 567-82 dated 04.02.2000, 8143-68 dated 18.09.2001, 7449-93 dated 11.12.2002, 7217-59 dated 16.10.2003, 3868-90 dated 15.06.2004.

It is intimated that as per earlier decision of the Authority, increase in FAR from 150% to 175% is being allowed by HUDA to the societies without charging any infrastructure up-gradation charges. The matter has been re-examined and it has now been decided that the following policy may be adopted in cases where changes in the number and sizes of dwelling units/ transfer of memberships and increase in FAR of Cooperative Group Housing Societies are being allowed by HUDA:-

1. HUDA may allow requests for increasing the number and size of dwelling units within the FAR and other prescribed parameters which were permissible in the particular scheme under which the society was allotted land.
2. As regards replacement of members, the same may be allowed as per the provisions of the scheme under which land was allotted.

Grant of permission as mentioned at sr.no.1 & 2 above shall be with payment of fees and charges as approved by the Authority from time to time.

The new rates shall be as under:-

Change in size of dwelling units

- * For the 1st time : Rs. 20,000/-
- * For the 2nd time : Rs. 40,000/-
- * For the 3rd time : Rs. 60,000/-

Change in membership of the society

Size of dwelling units (i.e. DU) in sq. mts.	Amount to be charged for change in membership
Up to 75	Rs.10, 000/- per member
76-200	Rs.30, 000/- per member
201 to 350	Rs.40, 000/- per member

Any change in ownership after grant of occupation certificate to the society shall be only under provisions of Haryana Apartment Ownership Act, 1983 and no permission shall be granted by HUDA in this regard after grant of Occupation Certificate.

- 3 Old Group Housing Schemes: -The rates of old GHS floated during 1998 & 2001 were related to density.
① Where the number & size of the dwelling units are increased within the permissible FAR:- In case the density is increased due to increase in the number and size of dwelling unit within the permissible FAR and other parameters, in such cases the updated rate of difference of the rate of increased and permissible density will be charged.

This facility may be allowed to only EWS Societies as it was provided in the scheme that in respect of EWS Societies, maximum permissible density can be considered.

① Where FAR is increased from 150% to 175%.

- (a) In case density is increased due to increase in FAR, in such cases the updated rate of difference of the rate of increased and permissible density will be charged provided there is change in the slab of allotted density. It is clarified that the density permissible was under a slab system, i.e., up to 250 PPA or 400 PPA and hence no charge shall be leviable if there is density increase but within the allotted slab and there is no jumping of the slab.
- (b) Proportionate EDC for additional FAR shall also have to be paid. Rates of EDC shall be those prevailing for the year in which permission is granted.

4 New Schemes

The Group Housing schemes floated in the year 2003 & 2005 had FAR of 175%. Therefore, the existing provision may be continued, i.e., "if any society/Organization intends to construct mixed type of dwelling units which include dwelling units of higher category falling in higher price slab, then construction of 10% of higher category of flats shall be allowed at the nodal price applicable for the lower category. Beyond this limit, higher rate applicable for dwelling units of higher category shall be applicable". But this facility may not be allowed to EWS Societies as the same are being allotted at the subsidized rate.

- 5 The transfer of membership of Group Housing Society shall be dealt with at the Estate Office level after charging the prescribed fee. However, the cases relating to change in number and size of dwelling unit shall continue to be dealt at the level of Chief Administrator, HUDA.
- 6 The societies allotted land under the reserved categories of Haryana Govt. Employees, Central Govt. Employees and Welfare Organisation shall be allowed to substitute/incorporate new members from General Category. However, the societies must ensure that majority of their members are Govt. employees as per the policy decision already conveyed vide memo. no. 7449-73 dated 11.12.2002.

This policy shall be applicable from the date of issue of this letter and supercede all previous instructions on the issue. All such matters referred to above shall henceforth be dealt with as per above policy.

Subject: Regarding carving out of regular shaped Group Housing plots.

A number of requests keep coming from the allottees of irregular shaped Group Housing sites for regularization of their plots. In order to avoid unnecessary dispute or even litigation on this account, the Hon'ble CM Haryana has directed that in future, HUDA must ensure that plots of irregular shape are not carved out, and if they continue to be carved out, the officer concerned be made responsible for the lapse.

It is, therefore, requested that the above said instructions must be followed meticulously in future layout plans. Also, if any unallotted GH sites of irregular shape are available in the already approved layout plans, feasibility of regularization of their shape may be examined and proposals sent for approval accordingly.

Memo. No. CTP-HUDA/DTP-M/16146-16168

Dated: 05.12.2007

Subject: Policy regarding permission for changing the number and size of Dwelling units/transfer of members in case of allotments made under Group Housing Norms.

1. A policy for allowing change in the number and size of dwelling units/transfer of members in case of allotments made under Group Housing norms was approved by the Authority in its 73rd meeting held on 31.03.1998, which was circulated to all the concerned offices vide memo. no. 3676 dated 20.05.98.
2. Further, the Authority in its 91st meeting held on 01.06.2004 decided that as in the case of transfer of plots, the transfer of membership of the group housing societies may also be dealt with at the Estate office level after charging the prescribed fee as per policy of HUDA. These cases should not be referred to Administrators and Chief Administrator, HUDA in order to avoid un-necessary delay. However, the cases relating to change in number and size of dwelling unit should be dealt at the level of C.A HUDA as per existing policy. This decision of the Authority was circulated to all the concerned offices vide memo. No.3868-3890 dated 15.06.04.
3. Although the policy clearly uses the term transfer of membership, still, it is clarified that the above said policy is applicable only till the stage a society obtains the occupation certificate. Once the occupation certificate is obtained by a society, transfer of built-up property/flat would be only through a registered deed of apartment as provided in the Haryana Apartment Ownership Act, 1983, and the rules framed there under. No request for transfer of membership should be entertained after occupation certificate is granted to the society without it being accompanied by deed of apartment.
4. A list containing details of all transfer permissions granted without deed of apartment after occupation certificate has been issued to the society may be sent in enclosed format(annexure-I) by 31.12.2007.

Dated: 20-6-2003

Subject: Approval of allowing members of Group Housing societies of Haryana Government Central Govt. Welfare Organization and EWS society to acquire more than one flat.

Reference: In continuation of Memo No. (P) 2002/16825-63 A dt. 10.07.02

As per the terms and conditions of Group Housing Schemes floated earlier by HUDA no member of Societies of Haryana Government, Central Govt. Welfare Organization and EWS Societies as well as general category societies should own any plot/flat in that particular urban Estate where he/she intends to become member of group housing scheme. This condition was relaxed by the Authority, for general category societies, in its 85th meeting held on 26.04.2002. However, this relaxation was not extended to societies of Haryana Government/Central Govt., Welfare Organizations and EWS societies.

The Haryana Group Housing Promoters and Builders Federation (Regd) has requested HUDA for removing this anomaly. The request of the Federation has been examined and the matter was placed before the Authority vide Agenda item no. A-88 (1) Suppl. in its 88th meeting held on 22.5.2003. The Authority has decided that the following condition may be removed in case of societies of Haryana Government, Central Govt., Welfare Organization and EWS societies.

“A person can apply for membership of one society only including a welfare housing organization in the whole state of Haryana except in case of members of general category societies, members of all other categories of societies should not own any house, flat, plot in his/her own name or in the name of his/her spouse or depended children in any urban Estate or colony developed by HUDA, Improvement Trust, Municipal Committee, Haryana Housing Board or any other colony established by colonizer, any colony approved/regularized by the state Govt. in the Urban Area/Controlled area of that particular town for which he/she is applying for membership of the society.

Memo No. 269-313

Dated: 25.01.1999

Subject: Provision of basement in Group Housing and Institutional sites.

The matter regarding provision of basement in Group Housing and Institutional sites has been engaging the attention of HUDA for the quite some time. Many representations have been received for allowing basement up to envelope zone (zoned area) on the pattern of permissions given to colonizers by the Town and Country Planning Department, Haryana.

The matter has been examined and it has been decided that the zoned area in case of Group Housing and Institutional sites should be about 66% of the plot area in which basement shall be allowed. Out of this about 15% zoned area may be reserved for generator set for the captive power generation and electrical sub station. This basement area is to be segregated from the main block of the building through an earthen partition in between the facilities in the power system and the main block of the building itself so, as to have adequate safeguards against any fire hazards.

Rest about 50% of the area may be allowed for basement parking and if need be twin level basement, only for parking purposes, may be allowed in this portion. This decision may be kept in view while finalizing zoning plan of Group Housing and Institutional sites. Already approved zoning plans of such sites may be amended to this extent.

Memo No.CTP(N)/SB/143656

Dated 17.07.2018

Subject: Clarification regarding development norms/zoning parameters of clinic/nursing home/hospital sites provided in HSVP Urban Estates.

1. The matter cited as subject was referred to the Committee looking after finalization/amendment in Haryana Building Code-2017, under the Chairmanship of Director, Town & Country Planning, Haryana. The Committee deliberated on the issue in its meetings held on 24.04.2018 and 11.05.2018. After due deliberations, the Committee decided “there was no requirement for amendment/change in the Haryana Building Code, 2017 at this stage to create a separate category for Nursing Homes/Clinic Sites and to finalize its design parameters. This use is being considered by all Departments under the institutional category for which the prescribed provisions are sufficient. Moreover, the members of the committee were of the view of the HSVP shall allow FAR upto 1.5 from existing 1.2 to allottees of designated Nursing Homes/clinic sites. Regarding Nursing Homes/Clinic sites over residential plots the committee was of the view that HSVP may allow this conversion as per its policy but the design parameters prescribed in the Code should be followed”.
2. In view of the above decision and the fact that Haryana Building Code-2017 is uniformly applicable in Haryana, it has been decided that construction and zoning parameters of the clinic and nursing home sites provided in HSVP should be as per the following provisions of Code-3(iii) of Haryana Building Code-2017, treating it to be an institutional building:-

(iii) Institutional

Plot area slabs	Maximum permissible Ground Coverage	Permissible Basement	Maximum permissible Floor Area Ratio (FAR)	Maximum permissible Height
Upto 10000 Square meters	35%	Up to four levels	150%	Unrestricted
above 10000 Square meters	25% of such portion of site	Upto four levels	150%	Unrestricted

1. In the case of already auctioned/allotted clinic/nursing home/hospital sites with earlier norms of 1.2 FAR, the additional FAR upto 1.50 shall be purchasable as per the prescribed rates.
2. You are requested that the above provisions of the Haryana Building Code-2017 should be followed meticulously and the zoning plans of all the un-allotted clinic/nursing homes/hospital sites may be finalized as per above norms. Also in the case of conversion of residential plots into clinic/nursing home sites, the zoning parameters shall be as per above norms treating the use of that site as institutional.

Memo No. CTP/STP-M/4262-4293 Dated: 20.04.2012

Subject: Regarding approval of layout plan of HUDA sectors.

It has been observed that while sending the cases of layout plans of acquired land for the approval of Chief Administrator, the guidelines that were circulated in this regard vide memo no. 7885-7997 dated 22.06.2010 are not being adhered. Only a few copies of the proposed layout plan are sent without any supporting documents (i.e. without enclosing a copy of sajra showing the boundary of acquired land and also a copy of survey plans of the area). In the absence of which, a proper scrutiny of the cases is not possible.

It is, therefore, requested that cases of approval of layout plans of HUDA sectors should be sent along with an authenticated copy of sajra plans showing the acquisition boundary, (including pockets of released land, the areas under litigation if any) and a copy of survey plans of the area (if survey was done). A copy of Development Plan of the town depicting the location of area should also be attached.

This be treated urgent please.

It has been decided to amend the instructions on the subjects cited above, issued vide letter under reference as under:

In view of the fact that the National Building Code (Part-IV) has de-restricted the height of the buildings and the fact that the latest technologies are available for structural design and fire fighting, it has been decided to remove the limit of the maximum height of the building in case of Group Housing sites, Commercial Complexes and institutional sites. In the case of commercial complexes, this provision shall be applicable only on those sites which are governed by the zoning plans and not by the architectural controls. Similarly, in case of institutional sites, the policy shall be applicable on institutional plots having an area of one acre and above. Further, in case of above mentioned buildings having height 30 meters and above, clearance from the National Airport Authority of India will be required. For buildings more than 60 meters in height, regarding structural stability, the clearance from the recognized institutions like IITs, Punjab Engineering College (PEC), Regional Engineering College/National Institute of Technology etc. and for the fire safety clearance from National Fire Service College Engineers (Ministry of Home Affairs, Govt. of India) Nagpur will be required.

In view of increasing demand for parking and the latest technologies available for structural design, it has also been decided to allow four level basements for parking, to facilitate the general public, in the high rise buildings of Cyber City, Cyber Park/ IT Park/ IT units, Group Housing sites, Commercial Complexes and institutional plots. The provision of parking in various types of buildings shall have to be made as follows:-

1. Group Housing Sites: - 1.5 Equivalent Car Space (ECS) for each dwelling unit will have to be provided instead of present one equivalent car parking space (ECS) for each dwelling unit. Also minimum 75% of total car parking is to be provided in the form of covered parking.
2. Integrated/Multi-storey Commercial Buildings: - One ECS for every 50 square meters of the covered area will have to be provided instead of 75 square meters. Further, 15% of the total parking requirement has to be at the surface level and remaining 85% shall be in the form of covered parking.
3. Cyber Park/ IT Park, Cyber Cities, IT Units: - One ECS for every 50 square meters of the covered area will have to be provided.
4. Institutional Sites: - One ECS for every 75 square meters of the covered area will have to be provided. Atleast 20% of the parking shall be at the surface level and remaining 80% shall be in the form of covered parking.
5. The area for parking per car unit (Equivalent Car Space) shall be as under;
 - a) Basement = 35 square meters.
 - b) Stilts = 30 square meters.
 - c) Open = 25 square meters.

Parking for special areas like auditoriums/convention centre etc shall be in addition as per BIS code.

6. The covered parking in the basement or in the form of multi-level parking above ground level will not be counted towards Floor Area Ratio (FAR). However, the footprint of separate parking building blocks shall be counted towards ground coverage.
7. In case of provision of mechanical parking in the basement floor/upper storeys, the maximum floor to ceiling height of the basement/floor may be of 4.5 meters.
8. The misuse of the covered parking space will immediately attract levy of three times the penalty of the composition fee prescribed for the excess covered area in the respective category. The basement can be used for Air Conditioning Handling Unit (AHU), utilities and services connected with the building, parking spaces. No storage and commercial activity shall be permitted in the designated parking areas.
9. In case a part of the basement is used for generator room, electric substation, transformer room etc, the same shall be segregated from the rest of the basement through a masonry wall, at least 4 ½” thick.
10. The above provisions shall also be applicable on group housing sites, institutional sites and Cyber Park/ Cyber Cities/IT Park/IT units retrospectively. However, these relaxations shall not be allowed on commercial sites already disposed off by way of auction. Memo No. CTP/STP-M/ 10992-11014 Dated: 20.11.2009

Subject: Regarding structural drawings to be submitted with building plans.

A few architects have represented that the structural drawings are rendered useless if some changes are required to be made in the building plans in accordance with HUDA regulations/zoning plan at the stage of scrutiny/ approval of the building plans. In case of bigger institutional, industrial, commercial or Group Housing buildings, considerable expenditure is involved in reformulation/vetting of the structural drawings. Therefore, the structural drawings may be allowed to be submitted only after the building plans have been approved by the competent authority.

In this regard, it is apprised that regulation 3 of the Haryana Urban Development Authority (Erections of Buildings) Regulations, 1979 stipulates that any person intending to erect or re erect any building shall also submit the structural drawings (for record) alongwith the proposed building plans. A certificate of conformity to regulations and structural safety for the relevant building (depending on type and height) in form BR VI A or BR VI B is also required to be submitted with the building plans. The request has been examined and found to be genuine. Therefore, it has been decided that in case of all plots of half acre (2000 sq.mtrs) and above, may be residential (Group housing), Industrial, Institutional or commercial, the condition to submit structural drawings alongwith the building plans is relaxed. In such cases, a provisional clearance of building plans shall be communicated to the allottee by the Estate Officer as per the time schedules already prescribed for approval of building plans. This provisional approval shall be subject to the conditions that the structural drawings will be submitted by the allottee within 30 days of the date of provisional approval, and the formal sanction letter for approval of building plans shall be issued by the Estate officer only after the structural drawings are submitted by the allottee. The provisional clearance will be valid for 30 days only and will automatically lapse, in case structural drawings are not submitted by the allottee within 30 days of the provisional approval. The above said provisional approval shall only be granted for the purpose of finalization of structural drawings and shall not entitle the allottee to start construction of the building. These instructions shall come into force with immediate effect.

In view of increasing demand for parking, changing character of construction of industrial plots and the latest technologies available for structural design, it has been decided to amend the provisions of parking in basement and under stilts to make them inconsonance with conditions contained in the Notification dated 09.07.2008 issued by the Town & Country Planning Department. Memo No.CTP-2009/2847-69

Subject:- Instructions regarding finalization of Zoning Plans before offer of possession and auction of sites.

Reference: In continuation of Memo no. CTPHUDA/DTP(N) 12436-83 dated 13.11.2007.

It has been noted that the zoning plans of various categories of plots have not been prepared and got approved from the competent authority in time because of which various complications are arising. It is also leading to numerous court cases as well as huge financial loss to HUDA because in some cases it has been ordered that interest should be charged from the date of supply of zoning plan. Though we are contesting all such cases but there is a need to prepare and supply the zoning plans in time. Your kind attention is invited to Headquarter instructions issued vide letter No.Policy/77/540-52 dated 11.01.1978 (copy enclosed) according to which it was decided that whenever possession of a plot is offered, the zoning of the plot should be mentioned in the possession letter itself. Instructions in this regard were consolidated and issued vide Memo no. CTP HUDA/DTP (N)/ 12436-83 dated 13.11.2007 to all Administrators / Senior Town Planners/ District Town Planners and Estate Officers. However, it has been noticed that these instructions are not being complied with in letter and spirit. Following is, therefore,ordered for strict compliance:-

- (i) No possession of plot should be given without a copy of the zoning plan which should be incorporated in the possession letter itself. If architectural drawings are applicable then number of architectural drawings should be mentioned clearly.
- (ii) As has already been ordered separately vide letter No.12436- 83 dated 13.11.2007, no plot other than residential plot should be put to auction unless its zoning has been approved and properly displayed at the time of auction otherwise Estate Officer shall be personally held responsible for lapse.
- (iii) A copy of the zoning plan in respect of the plots which have not been constructed so far should be obtained from the concerned DTPs and placed on the individual plot files for which concerned Asstt. shall be responsible.

Action on above points should be ensured forthwith and a compliance report in following format should be sent by 31.05.2009 :-

Sr. No	No. of sector	Total No. of plots carved out	Possession offered	Already constructed plots	Balance plots	No. of plots for which zoning plans have been obtained and placed on plot files	Balance	Reasons for not preparation of zoning plans for Col. No.8
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9

A meeting to review the progress in this case shall be held at 11.00 AM on 3.6.2009. All the Administrators are requested to attend the meeting.

Memo no. CTP HUDA/DTP(N)/12436-83

Dated: 13.11.2007

Subject: Instructions regarding finalization of zoning plans.

Timely finalization of zoning plans is an important area of concern having financial implications also, since possession of allotted sites is linked with the zoning plan. However, it has been observed that clear cut procedure/time lines have not been defined for preparation/finalization of zoning plans, due to which adequate attention is not being given to the zoning plans resulting into un-necessary complications and litigations. In order to streamline the procedure of preparation/finalization of zoning plans and in supersession of all instructions on the subject, it has been decided that:

1. The process of preparation of zoning plans will commence in a time bound manner immediately after the approval of the Demarcation plan of a sector in which unique property numbers to each and every plot and site would be assigned.
2. The concerned District Town Planner will prepare and submit the zoning plan of all residential plots in a sector to the concerned Senior Town Planner within 30 days of the approval of demarcation plan.
3. The zoning plans of all other sites in a sector e.g. nursery schools, primary schools, Senior Secondary Schools, community centres, dispensaries, hospitals, nursing homes/clinics, religious building sites, institutional sites etc shall be prepared by the concerned District Town Planner and submitted to the concerned Senior Town Planner within 60 days of the approval of demarcation plan.
4. Similarly, the zoning plans of all commercial sites which are not governed by the architectural controls e.g. hotels, multiplexes, shopping malls, departmental stores etc shall be prepared by the concerned District Town Planner and submitted to the concerned Senior Town Planner within 30 days of the approval of layout plan of a commercial scheme/area.
5. The concerned Senior Town Planner will technically examine and forward the above said zoning plans received from the concerned DTPs to the concerned Zonal Administrator within 15 days for placing the same before the Zoning Plan Committee. Administrator HUDA will get the same approved from ZPC within 10 days and forward it to CTP HUDA within 7 days of the approval of Zoning Plan Committee. CTP HUDA will get the plan approved from CA HUDA within 10 days of receipt of the plan in his office.
6. Once the main zoning plan is approved from CA HUDA, minor amendments required, if any, due to site conditions/variations in dimensions, clubbing of plots etc as well as of some left out individual plots within the sector, if any, will be approved by the zonal Administrators at their own level and a copy of such approved zoning plan will be sent by the Administrators to CTP HUDA for record.

7. No plot other than residential shall be floated/advertised for sale without approval of zoning plan in advance, which should be displayed/published at the time of advertisement/auction etc. Otherwise the Estate Officer (not any lower rank officer) shall be personally held responsible for this lapse and shall be accountable for all consequential losses.
8. No possession of residential plot shall be given unless the zoning plan is depicted in the possession letter.

Above instructions will come into force with immediate effect and should be followed meticulously. Any delay in the prescribed time lines at any level shall be viewed seriously and appropriate disciplinary action shall be taken against the defaulting official/officer.

The matter regarding finalization of zoning plan of multiple cinema complexes has been examined and following policy decisions have been taken:-

1. The proposed FAR in multiplexes may be restricted to 1.50 in cases where the sites are part of City Centre. However in case of independent sites where individual plots have been earmarked for Cinema or the Multiplexes, FAR of 1.25 may be allowed.
2. Multiplexes may be allowed only in City Centers and District Shopping Centres. The allottees will have to construct minimum two separate Theatres within the same Cinema Complex. Minimum total number of seats for would be 450 all the Theatres.
3. The percentage of commercial component in a Cinema may be allowed to the tune of 50% of FAR. The commercial component of the Cinema hall can be used for Convention Center, Exhibition Hall, Cultural Centers, Departmental Store, Shopping Center, Restaurant and similar other uses for entertainment.
4. In case of existing cinema buildings and cinema sites which have already been auctioned but buildings have not yet been constructed, the FAR already approved be retained.

Memo No: CTP/DTP (N)/JS/11275-11313

Dated: 2.12.2008

Subject: Procedure to be followed for acquisition of land under Urgency Clause for HUDA.

It has been observed that proposals for the acquisition of land under Urgency Clauses are forwarded for approval of the Government without any background note/ justification of acquisition of land under Urgency Clause. Also work on the land pockets acquired under urgency clause is not started in time leading to legal complications. Due to delay in starting work at site, it becomes difficult for HUDA to justify acquisition of such land pockets under Urgency Clause. It has, therefore, been decided that:

- (i) All proposals for the acquisition of land under Urgency Clauses, forwarded for approval of the Government, must be accompanied by a detailed background note giving the justification of acquisition of land under Urgency Clause. Specific details of services to be laid/ infrastructure facilities to be provided on the land must be mentioned in the background note.
- (ii) The other technical details, including preparation of estimates, finalization of alignment, finalization of specification of the implemented on the land acquired under Urgency Clause must be finalized in advance to avoid delays in start of work at site.
- (iii) The actual work on the site must be started immediately on acquisition of land under Urgency Clause and in no case the date of start of work should be later than two months from the date of announcement of award.

These instructions will come into force with immediate effect and serious view will be taken for delays in start of work.

Chief Administrator, HUDA has directed to ensure that in future the imagery of the land with regulation of 0.6 mtrs. is placed on the file while issuing notification under section 4 of the Land Acquisition Act . The Chief Scientist Haryana State Remote Sensing Application Centre Hisar has informed that the high resolution Satellite data (0.6mts.) is procured through MRSA Hyderabad on requirement basis. Minimum time period required for such imagery is one month or more depending upon the position of the satellite. Minimum area of 8 x 8 KM (64 sq. KM) is supplied . The acquisition of high resolution satellite data for one site at the current rates would cost a minimum of Rs.85,000/- plus processing charges.

You are requested to place orders for required satellite imageries just before the land proposed to be acquired is notified under section 4 of the Land Acquisition Act. The above instructions must be complied with in case of all the land pockets to be acquired henceforth please.

Sub: Site Report on Applications for Release of Land from Acquisition

Director, Urban Estate has observed that the site report as given by District Town Planner on the cases relating to release of land from acquisition is not clearly depicted on the plans attached with report and no categorical description is given about the effect of land, if released from acquisition. Therefore, the following points may be specifically covered while giving the site report.

1. Every site should be indicated on the Development Plan of the town.
2. The site/land in question should be clearly depicted on the layout plan and the structures falling in the site should also be shown on the plan. Similarly, the site should also indicate the khasra Nos with boundaries falling in the site. However, if the above information is difficult to be shown distinctly on the layout plan then demarcation plan can be used for the same.
3. It is not enough to say that the land requested to be released effects plots, roads, green belt etc. Each and every affected proposal should be qualified to indicate the No. of plots/roads etc with areas.
4. When there is no layout plan prepared the site should be indicated on a Shajra plan showing the sector roads and other major roads proposed in the sector and it should be clearly stated if the site can be adjusted in the layout plan or not.
5. The constructions on the site should also be shown on a site plan clearly depicting the set backs from outer boundaries, covered area and category of construction.

Along with and keeping in view the above, clear cut recommendations should be given if the site in question is recommended to be released or not.

Subject:- Allotment of Incidental Open Spaces to the allottees of corner plots in various Urban Estates in Haryana.

Reference:- Urban Branch, HSVP memo no. 187377 dated 29.10.2021 and in supersession to this office memo no. 221744 dated 13.10.2023.

It has been observed that a number of applications are being received in this office regarding allotment of incidental open spaces adjoining to corner plots in residential sectors of HSVP. However, no clear definition w.r.t. area of incidental open space has been provided.

Accordingly, in order to attain the uniformity in all cases, where there are left over open spaces adjoining corner plots in residential sectors of HSVP with area less than the adjoining plots (after deducting the provisional 40 ft. from the boundary of preferential plots towards Incidental open spaces as per policy dated 25.11.2009/11.08.2016), you are requested to designate the same as Incidental Open Spaces for all facts and purposes.

Memo no. CTP/STP-M/1526-51

Dated: 06.02.2012

Subject: Guidelines for preparation of demarcation plans.

It has been observed by the authorities that deficiencies left in the demarcation plans of HUDA sectors result in disputes with allottees and the land owners; at times result in litigation also. Hence, it has been decided that henceforth following guidelines should be adhered meticulously in demarcation plans, part demarcation plans and revised demarcation plans:-

1. The exact number of available plots/sites gets established at the finalization of demarcation plans. Therefore, the numbering of plots/sites should invariably be incorporated in the demarcation plans, rather than preparing separate Numbering plans for sectors.
2. The Area Schedule (i.e. details of area under various uses/activities) is being depicted in the layout plan, but it is often found missing in the index of the demarcation plans, although the details of plots is being given. Since the area under various uses e.g. Roads, Schools, Shopping Centre, Public and Semi-Public Buildings etc. may be at variance from the approved layout plans, vis-à-vis site conditions, therefore, the demarcation plan must indicate the improved final Area Schedule, alongwith the details of plots.

Demarcation plan should clearly indicate the exact number of all the plots that have been omitted or added, at the stage of finalization of demarcation plan.

3. Each demarcation plan must indicate the Drawing Number & Date of the approved layout plan in the Notes given in the index and also the reference of the letter (i.e. memo no. & Date) vide which the verified dimensions have been supplied by the concerned XEN office.
4. The revised demarcation plan should clearly indicate the exact number of plots/sites, as well as details of individual plot-number/site-number of each omitted or added plot/site.

While sending cases for revision of demarcation plans, reasons of necessity of the proposed revision must be clearly highlighted and a comparative table should be sent clearly indicating therein the proposed revised dimension/size of each affected plot/site vis-à-vis earlier approved dimensions/size of these plots and difference in the area thereof.

5. The timelines already prescribed in guidelines issued vide memo no. 7885-88 dated 22.06.2010 must be adhered to.

Memo. No. CTP/STP(M)/11176-11226

Dated: 25.11.2009

Subject: Broad basing the definition of `P` or `SP` category of Plots in HUDA sectors-partial modification of the policy.

Reference: In continuation of instructions issued vide this office memo no. CTP-DTP (N)/ SB/1623-1681 dated 10.03.2009.

The policy instructions issued vide letter under reference for broad basing the definition of `P` or `SP` category of plots in HUDA sectors provide for charging of differential rates for preferential plots. While all the plots facing 24 mtrs road or a park having an area between 2000 sq.mtrs to 8000 sq.mtrs are to be charged 5% additional cost of the plot on account of preferential status, all the plots facing roads more than 24 mtrs wide, all corner plots abutting two or more roads, all plots abutting on one side by an open space atleast 40' in width and all plots facing a park having an area of more than 8000 sq.mtrs are also to be designated as Preferential plots and 10% of the cost of the plot is to be charged extra from their allottees.

Since plots falling under both the categories (5% extra and 10% extra) are to be designated as `P` plots, it has been felt that the numbering of such plots (with `P` suffix) will not make it clear as to whether the allottee is to be charged 5% extra or 10% extra unless the layout plan is referred to for confirming the location of the plot.

Thus in order to further simplify the policy and in order to avoid any confusion / ambiguity, it has been decided, in partial modification of the policy instructions dated 10.03.2009, that in those cases where 5% of the cost of plot is to be charged extra from the allottee on account of the location of the plot, such plots shall henceforth be designated as `General Preferential` plots and the suffix `GP` shall be attached with the numbering of such plots.

In nutshell the categorization of `GP`, `P` and `SP` plots shall be as under:-

Sr. No.	Description of location of plot	Status	Premium to be charged
1	i) All the plots facing 24 mtrs road, or ii) A park having an area between 2000 sq.mtr to 8000 sq.mtrs.	General Preferential `GP`	5% (of the cost of plot)
2.	i) All the plots facing more than 24 meters wide roads, ii) All corner plots abutting two or more roads, iii) All plots abutting on one side by an open space at least 40' in width, iv) All plots facing a park having an area of more than 8000 sq.mtrs.	Preferential `P`	10% (of the cost of plot)
3.	The corner plots facing 30 meters and above width of roads with side road/40' wide open space.	Special Preferential `SP`	20% (of the cost of plot)

These modified instructions shall be applicable with immediate effect. It is also requested that the numbering plans of various sectors which have already been approved on the basis of instructions dated 10.03.2009 may also be accordingly got amended in case allotment of plots in those sectors has not yet been made.

Reference: In continuation to this office memo no. CTP HUDA/DTP (N) 10013-10101 dated 6.11.07.

1. Your attention is again invited to the guidelines pertaining to Comprehensive Policy regarding handing over of possession of acquired land, preparation of plan, floatation of sectors issued vide letter under reference, a tentative layout plan of the land has to be prepared immediately after notification under section 6 of the Land Acquisition Act. Further, as para no.9 of the ibid guidelines, DTP has to finalize the layout plan within 15 days of the receipt of Survey Plan.
2. It has been observed in many cases that the Tentative and Final Layout Plans are not being prepared even after expiry of considerable period after announcement of the award because of which the land not only remains unutilized but also susceptible to encroachment. In addition, some of the land owners move the court of law and take a plea that since this land has not been planned by HUDA till date, this may be released as apparently it is not required by HUDA.
3. It has, therefore, been decided that before announcement of any award in future, the tentative layout plan of the land under acquisition should be got approved from the Chief Administrator HUDA by this office. Thereafter, a copy of the approved plan is to sent to the office of Director, Urban Estates and the Administrative approval for announcement of award should be obtained by DUE office only upon receiving a copy of tentative layout plan of the sector. This will ensure proper utilization of the land after announcement of the award.
4. You are requested to follow the above directions meticulously and send the tentative layout plans of all the land pockets which have already been notified u/s-6 of the Land Acquisition Act. It is also requested to get the layout plans of all the pockets, award of which has already been announced.

This issues with the approval of CA HUDA cum DTCP cum DUE Haryana.

Chief Town Planner,

For Chief Administrator, HUDA.

POLICY REGARDING RE-NUMBERING OF PLOTS IN CASE OF DELETED/OMITTED PLOTS.

From

The Chief Administrator,
HUDA, (Town Planning Wing)
Panchkula.

To

1. All the Administrators of HUDA
2. All the District Town Planners

Memo no. CTP/STP (N)/SB/6149-6173 Dated: 10.07.2009

Subject: Formulation of policy regarding re-numbering of plots in case of deleted/omitted plots.

1. The matter regarding formulation of policy for re-numbering of plots in case of deleted/omitted plots has been engaging the attention of the Authority for quite some time. As per past practice, the corner plots with 'P' or 'SP' status are kept intact in a row of plots while re-numbering the same. Thereafter, middle plots are demarcated in an ascending order of their numbering and the last plots (except corner plot) are deleted. This practice is being followed since long without formulizing it in the shape of a policy document. In the absence of any documented policy, the allottees of deleted plots are approaching various courts for locating their plots at their original location.
2. It has, therefore, been decided that henceforth the following policy guidelines shall be followed while re-numbering of deleted/omitted plots in case of shortage of land found on ground due to any reason:-
 - I. First of all any un-allotted plot available in the block shall be deleted.
 - II. If no un-allotted plot is there in the block, then the procedure to be followed shall be as explained in the example given below:

Example: Suppose there are 20 plots in a block (two back to back rows of 10 plots each) as shown below, and 4 plots are required to be deleted (two from each row) due to inadequate availability of required dimensions at site.

1-P	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10-P
20-P	19	18	17	16	15	14	13	12	11-P

- a. Plot numbers of corner plots, i.e., 1-P, 10-P, 11-P & 20-P shall be kept unchanged.
 - b. Middle plots may be provided/demarcated in an ascending order of their numbering (plot no.2-7) and the last two numbers of middle plots in the row (8 & 9) shall get deleted. Similarly, in the row of plot nos. 12-19, after demarcating plot nos. 12-17 in an ascending order, plot nos. 18 & 19 shall get deleted.

Memo. No. CTP/DTP (N)/JS/365-69 Dated:12.01.2009

Subject: Regarding construction of Police Station & Police Post building by HUDA- Revision of norms.

The following policy decision has been taken by Hon'ble C.M Haryana-cum-Chairman HUDA:

1. That provision of one police station for every 70,000 population shall be made by HUDA instead of 1 lakh population as being provided presently. This practically amounts that HUDA shall require to provide one police station site for every 4 no,s sectors instead of for every 6 no,s sectors as approved by Hon'ble TCPM & circulated vide letter dated 23.04.2004.
2. 18 no.s houses for police personnel in police stations and 4 houses in all police post are to be constructed by HUDA in future. As far as extra cost to be incurred on providing additional Police Station/Posts and houses therein are concerned, same shall be provided for wherever EDC rate of a particular Urban Estate have not been finalized or the new sectors are to be floated. Otherwise, same shall be met out of interest income of EDC or HUDA, as the case may be.

Accordingly, you are requested to identify suitable sites for making provision of Police Station & Police Posts in HUDA sectors as per above revised norms.

Memo no. CTP-DTP-N/JS/3263-3317 Dated: 15.04.2008

Subject:Instructions regarding finalization of layout and demarcation plans of shopping centres.

Reference: In supersession to this office memo. no. 814-866 dated 31.01.08.

It has been observed that proper monitoring is not being done for finalization of layout and demarcation plans of sites earmarked for shopping centres in HUDA sectors. Due to non-finalization of these plans, the areas earmarked for shopping centres are not developed in time and these sites gives shabby look in a developed sector. Also these sites are prone to encroachment by squatters. In order to streamline the procedure of preparation/finalization of layout and demarcation plans of shopping centres, it has been decided that:

1. The process of preparation of layout-cum- demarcation plans of shopping centres will commence in a time bound manner immediately after the approval of the Demarcation plan of a Sector in which the dimension of site earmarked for shopping centre will be available.
2. The concerned District Town Planner will prepare and submit at least six copies of the layout-cum-demarcation plan of all the sites earmarked for shopping centre in a Sector to the concerned Senior Town Planner within 60 days of the approval of demarcation plan.
3. The concerned Senior Town Planner will technically examine and forward five copies of the above said plans received from the concerned DTPs to the concerned Zonal Administrator within 30 days. Administrator HUDA will forward it to CTP HUDA within 15 days. CTP HUDA will send the same simultaneously to S.A HUDA for seeking comments within 10 days so that layout plan is complete in all respects for preparing new controls . After that CTP will get the plan approved from CA HUDA within 15 days of receipt of the plan in his office.
4. CTP HUDA office will circulate a copy each of the approved plan of shopping centre to concerned Administrator, Senior Architect and concerned District Town Planner. On receipt of approved plan, concerned District Town Planner will circulate copies of the approved plan to CE, CCF, STP, SE, S.A, EO, XEN and a copy to CTP HUDA.
5. The zoning plans of all commercial sites which are not governed by the architectural controls e.g. hotels, multiplexes, shopping malls, departmental stores etc shall be prepared by the concerned District Town Planner and submitted to the concerned Senior Town Planner within 30 days of the approval of layout-cum demarcation plan of a shopping centre. STP and Administrators will follow the time limits prescribed in point number 3 above for forwarding zoning plans.
6. On receipt of approved layout plan, Senior Architect HUDA will convey the job numbers of architectural controls already prepared and applicable to various commercial sites and supply their copies to the concerned Administrator, Estate Officer and District Town Planner for incorporating the same in the layout-cum-demarcation plan of the shopping centre.

In case of non-availability of architectural controls, Architecture wing shall give a time schedule for the preparation of new controls to Administrator and Estate Office to enable them to finalise their auction schedule accordingly.

7. Once a layout-cum-demarcation plan of shopping centre is approved by CA HUDA, minor amendments required, if any, due to sites conditions/variations in dimensions, if any, will be approved by the Zonal Administrators at their own level and a copy of such approved plan will be sent by the Administrators to CTP HUDA for record.
8. No commercial site shall be put to auction/advertised for sale without approval of the architectural control/zoning plan in advance, which should be displayed/published at the time of advertisement/auction etc. otherwise the concerned Zonal Administrator as well as Estate Officer (not any lower rank officer) shall be personally held responsible for this lapse and shall be accountable for all consequential losses.
9. No possession of commercial site shall be given unless the job number of applicable architectural control/drawing number of applicable zoning plan is depicted in the possession letter. Otherwise concerned Estate Officer and the Junior Engineer giving the possession shall be personally held responsible as it has huge financial implications.

Above instructions will come into force with immediate effect and should be followed meticulously. Any delay in the prescribed time lines at any level shall be viewed seriously and appropriate disciplinary action shall be taken against the defaulting official/officer. These instructions supercede all previous instructions on the subject and should be got noted by all concerned officials working under your jurisdiction.

These instructions are being issued with the approval of Chief Administrator HUDA.

Sub:Provision of sites for EWS Housing

In the review meeting held under the chairpersonship of FCTCP dated 6.3.07 at Chandigarh, it was clarified that henceforth there shall not be any 2 Marla and 4 Marla residential plots of EWS category in the layout plans and they are to be provided in Group Housing form. Memo no. CTP-HUDA/171-190

Dated: 7-2-2006

Sub: General Instructions regarding preparation of Residential Layout Plans.

This office is receiving many residential layout plans of sectors from field offices which are examined in this office. There is lack of uniformity and several improvements which can also be done. Therefore, you are requested to keep the following facts/observations of this office in mind while preparing the residential layout plans in future.

1. Every layout plan must contain an index map showing the location of the sector vis-à-vis the development plans proposals and the existing features for identification of sector.
2. As far as possible the shopping centre and other more residential land uses such as school, dispensary, nursing home clinics etc should be located towards the centre of the sector and residential areas located on the outer side of the sector.
3. Large open spaces/parks should also be located in such a way that they provide buffer and pedestrian approach to the land uses listed in para 2 above.
4. Pedestrian way/path of 5-10 mts width should be planned connecting the land use listed in para 2 above. If approach through parks/open spaces is not available then such pedestrian path should not be provided along the roads but independent of them.
5. Small convenient shopping areas be reserved in places suitably located away from residential plots.
6. The action for finalization of layout plan should start immediately after the Award under L.A. Act is announced.
7. All the layout plans should be neatly drawn keeping the above planning considerations and attempt should be made for a better plan without restricting to 55% saleable area norms only.

These instructions/observations may be meticulously followed.

- b. Construction of educational and health facility buildings (like schools, dispensary etc.) will be discontinued, especially in sectors where price fixation is not yet done and sector not yet floated. It was decided that instead of transferring free of cost, HUDA may allot such sites to the concerned department at the approved allotment rate.
 - c. HUDA will not construct any community building, and transfer the sites wherever available to the concerned Department.
 - d. It was also decided that in case of sectors where large chunks of land for EWS Group Housing (Ashiana schemes) have been earmarked, part of such chunks may be utilized as per norms of Deen Dayal Jan Awas Yojna.
 - e. In those cases, where inspite of above measures, the saleable area cannot be sufficiently increased so as to have a reasonable rate of allotment of residential plots, HUDA shall increase the saleable area by appropriately restricting the provision of Community facility sites, for example by curtailing the number of sites of any particular amenity to be provided.
5. This issues with the approval of Hon'ble Chief Minister Haryana-cum-Chairman HUDA. Approval of the Authority shall be taken in the next meeting.

Memo no. CTP/STP (M)/2044-66

Dated: 09.03.2011

Subject: Composition rates for compoundable violations in plotted residential development applicable to Town & Country Planning Department and HUDA.

The composition rates for compoundable violations in plotted residential development applicable to Town & Country Planning Department and HUDA, circulated vide memo no. CTP(H)/DTP(N)/17370-414 dated 28.09.2006, provide that the excess covered area beyond permissible limit within zoned area is compoundable up to 10% of total permissible FAR (up to 5% @ RS.3300/- per sq.mts. and beyond 5% @ Rs. 6500/- per sq.mts)- item 2(b). Presently, no floor wise limits are prescribed and this excess covered area (up to 10%) can be compounded at any floor subject further to the stipulations of item no. 2(a) and 2 (c).

With the introduction of registration of independent floors, it has now been decided that the provisions regarding excess covered area in clause 2 (b) of the uniform compounding policy dated 28.09.2006 may be made applicable floor wise, i.e., up to a maximum of 10% (Ten percent) of permissible coverage at each floor. The policy instruction dated 28.09.2006 shall stand modified to this extent.

The amended instructions shall, however, be applicable on those cases only where the building plan has been sanctioned after the date of issuance of this letter. Therefore, only in case of those allottees who have already got their building plans sanctioned, the excess covered area shall be compounded at any floor in accordance with the previous provisions and the floor wise ceiling shall not apply. However, in all other cases where the building plans will be approved after the date of issuance of this letters, violation of excess covered area shall be compounded floor wise.

It has also been decided to constitute a committee under the Chairmanship of Administrator HUDA (HQs) comprising CTP HUDA, Senior Architect HUDA and S.E. HUDA HQs which will review the various compoundable items and their rates after obtaining suggestions / feedbacks from all the Zonal Administrators. It is, therefore, requested that your suggestion/feedback in the matter may be sent to chief Town Planner, HUDA within one month's time

Subject: Regarding projections in residential plots of HUDA.

The matter cited as subject has been examined, keeping in view the requirements of natural light and ventilation of Habitable Rooms especially in the rear side of the plots, following uniform guidelines have been got approved from Hon'ble C.M Haryana-cum-Chairman HUDA.

1. To allow rear projections at roof level to the extent that a minimum 3.0 meters clear open space remains always available by considering clubbed set backs of back to back plots.
2. Similarly, the projection in front set back can be allowed upto 1.8 mtrs. width provided at least 1/3rd of front set back area remains open to sky.
3. The side projection shall not exceed 1.0 mtrs. width.

Memo No: CTP/HUDA/3726-3748

Dated: 13.05.2009

Subject: New guidelines for approval of building plans in respect of residential plots (excluding Group Housing Plots).

It has been observed that delay in the approval of Building Plans of Residential Plots continues to be a sore area inspite of numerous steps initiated in the past of streamline it. This is adversely affecting the credibility of the organization. It has, therefore, been decided to eliminate various un-necessary channels and overhaul the existing system by introducing the following measures with the view to ensure the speedy approval of the Building Plans submitted by the allottees:-

1. That the Building Plan Approval Committee shall henceforth consist only of the Estate Officer as its Chairman and concerned Executive Engineer of the area as its sole Technical Member.
2. That in those Urban Estates where no Executive Engineer is stationed for posted, the format (F-1) as mentioned in para-5 below will be completed by the Sub Divisional Engineer of the concerned Urban Estate.
3. That the Technical Scrutiny of the Building Plans of residential plots shall be carried out in-house instead of referring the plans to the District Town Planner's office. Consequently, the Building Plans shall not be referred to the District Town Planner any more for scrutiny.
4. That the Estate Officers will be obliged to obtain a copy of the Zoning Plan in respect of the plots which have not been constructed so far from the concerned District Town Planners and place the same on the individual plot file in compliance of the guidelines circulated vide memo no. CTP-2009/2847-69 dated 21.04.2009. Hence, the Estate Officer will forward one set of the Building Plan to the concerned Executive Engineer or Sub Divisional Engineer, as the case may be, alongwith a copy of the approved Zoning Plan of the site whenever any Building Plan is received in the Estate Office.
5. That a comprehensive Format (F-1) has been devised in the form of a check list which covers all the provisions of the HUDA (Erection of Buildings) Regulations, 1979 as well as the Zoning Plan approved for a particular area. This format is required to be adhered to and filled up in the office of the Technical Member i.e. the concerned Executive Engineer or Sub Divisional Engineer, as the case may be, and passed onto the concerned Estate Officer for further appropriate action.
6. That similarly one separate Format (F-2) has been devised for the office of the Estate Officer as well. All the columns of this format also will be filled up so that an appropriate decision for the approval or rejection of the building plan is taken objectively.
7. That the Site Report is to be submitted by the concerned Junior Engineer and attached with the Format (F-2) in the Estate Office.
8. That with a view to cut the delay in the sanctioning of the Building Plan, the number of signatories have been reduced in format (F-1) and Format (F-2). For instance, Assistant Draftsman or Draftsman will technically scrutinize the Building Plan with his signatures in Format F-1 and it will be duly counter-checked by any technical person superior to him, like Head Draftsman or a Sub Divisional Engineer to be nominated by the concerned Executive Engineer in this behalf if there is no superior person posted in the Division. Similarly, the Sub Divisional Clerk and Record Keeper will scrutinize the details of the property and affix their signatures in Format (F-2) after making all entries therein.

9. That all the copies of the building plan shall be duly signed by the concerned Estate Officer and Executive Engineer after all the three format F-1, F-2 & F-3 have been completed in all respect.
10. That the following Time Schedule has been fixed for taking an appropriate decision i.e. approval or rejection of Building Plan as under. The time schedule so fixed shall be meticulously adhered to by all the concerned Field Offices.
 - a) Hyper & High Potential Zones 21 Working Days (Urban Estates of Gurgaon-I & II, Faridabad, Sonapat, Panipat & Panchkula)
 - b) Medium Potential Zones 15 Working Days (Urban Estates of Bahadurgarh, Hisar, Rewari & Dharuhera)
 - c) Low Potential Zones 10 Working Days (All remaining Urban Estates in the State)
11. That the officials in the Estate Officer and Xen office who are to process and handle the building plans have been designated as mentioned in the following Table. These Designated Officials shall be required to process the Building Plans as per the following Time Schedule.

Designated officials Hyper & High Potential Zone Medium Potential Zone Low Potential Zone.

	Days	Days	Days

12. That an innovative system of Reward & Penalty is being worked out and its procedure details and mechanism would be communicated separately after these are finalized. Under the proposed Scheme, Reward will be given to the HUDA officials for deciding Building Plans within the prescribed time limit as mentioned herein and Penalty will be paid to the allottees wherever the time schedule so fixed is breached by HUDA.
13. That it is proposed to appoint an Ombudsman in each Urban Estate to oversee the proposed system of Reward & Penalty and to settle any dispute arising there-form. Hence, the Zonal Administrators are requested to suggest a panel of two persons from each Urban Estate who are persons of repute & high integrity and are settled there and are willing to voluntarily work for this cause without any monetary remuneration. Such persons can be retired judges, civil servants or Defence Officers etc.

14. That all the Administrators are directed to hold a training session at the Zonal Level for all the officers and officials involved in the process latest before 25th of May, 2009 so that the new Guidelines are implemented smoothly from 1st June, 2009.
15. Copies of Format F-1 and F-2 are being e-mailed separately. However, hard copies thereof are also enclosed for ready reference and necessary action.
16. All the Zonal Administrators, Estate Officers and Executive Engineers (including the Sub divisional Engineers where the Executive Engineers are not stationed) are directed to

Memo. No. CTP/DTP-M/ 10156-10178

Dated: 22.10.2008

Subject: Delegations of powers to compound the violations made by the allottees during the construction of building on the allotted plots.

The authority exercisable by the Chief Administrator, HUDA under the second proviso to section 55 of the Haryana Urban Development Authority Act, 1977 were delegated to the Zonal Administrators of HUDA, for the urban estates under their respective jurisdiction, vide notifications no. 1293-18(50)-3 TCP-79 published in the Haryana Government Gazette Extraordinary and no.16/243/86-3 TCP dated the 12th February 1987 published in the Haryana Government Gazette Extraordinary dated the 27th February 1987. However, with the passage of time and the increase in the number of sectors/urban estates and a consequent increase in the number of allottees, it has been felt that these powers may be delegated to the concerned Estate officers at those stations where the office of Administrator, HUDA is not located so that the allottees are not inconvenienced, and the to and fro movement of the compounding files between the Estate Office and Administrator, office can be avoided.

Therefore, it has been decided that the powers exercisable by the Chief Administrator under the second proviso to section 55 of the said Act shall, henceforth be exercisable by the Estate Officers of Haryana Urban Development Authority in respect of those urban estates under their respective jurisdiction at those stations where the office of Administrator, Haryana Urban Development Authority is not located. However, in those urban estates where the office of Administrator, Haryana Urban Development Authority is located at the same station, this power shall continue to be exercised by the concerned Administrator of Haryana Urban Development Authority.

A copy of the Notification published in the Haryana Government Gazette Extraordinary vide no. Auth.-2008/34707, dated the 7th October, 2008 is enclosed herewith for information and necessary action.

Memo. no. CTP/DTP (N)/JS/ 6638-86

Dated: 17.7.2008

Subject: Regarding amendments in compounding policy of residential areas.

Reference: In continuation to this office memo no. 17370-414 dated 28.9.06.

The matter regarding amendments in compounding policy of HUDA has been examined. The following amendments have been made in the uniform compounding policy to overcome the day to day problems being faced by the plot holders.

A amendments in uniform Compounding policy.

1. Building without Plan: - Presently the allottee has two options available with them regarding sanction of building plan. The allottee can either get the building plan sanctioned prior to starting construction or they can follow the self certification procedure. Therefore, the allottee should start construction only after sanction of plans as per the procedure prescribed in one of the above options. This will facilitate HUDA to know the exact date of starting construction. Therefore, it has been decided to amend clause 1 (a) of compounding policy mentioned under reference and the earlier provisions of the policy to compound the constructions raised with out sanction of building plan has been discontinued.
2. Projections: - Before formulation of uniform compounding policy in the year 2000, projections in frame control houses were allowed/compounded up to full width of the plot. In the uniform compounding policy of the year 2000, 1.0 mts projection was allowed in rear & front up to 2/3rd width of the plot @ Rs. 50/- per sq. ft. in frame control houses of 6 Marla and 10 Marla. The policy further stipulated that beyond 2/3rd width, it should not be compounded. In the revised policy effective from 28.09.06, there is no mentioned of projection within frame control houses. Allottees have constructed projections in 2/3rd portion as well as in the balance 1/3rd portion on the basis of projection constructed in the houses adjoining their plots and now such cases are stuck up for completion. Allowing some projection in the 1/3rd portion is a necessity for the purpose of protection of door/windows from sun/rain. Therefore, it has been decided to allow the projection up to the frame line by compounding them @ Rs. 500/- per sq. mts. Further, increase in the projection beyond 1.0 mts due to cladding etc be compounded @ Rs. 11,000 per sq. mts up to a maximum of 2% of the plot width treating it as zoning violation.

The above instructions shall come into force with immediate effect. This issues with the approval of Chairman HUDA please.

Subject:Clarification regarding Architectural Control Sheets/Standard Designs/Frame Controls.

It has been observed that the Architectural Control Sheets/ Standard Designs and Frame Controls of Shopping, Public and Semi Public Bay Sites were prepared long ago. Since then, the requirement of public has undergone change and the internal layout Plan of the building can not be followed rigidly as provided in the above drawings.

Therefore, it has been decided that there is no restriction in changing internal layout of the building while maintaining the front, rear and side façade of the building in conformity with the Architectural Control Sheets/ Standard Designs and Frame Controls. However, the internal changes should strictly meet the provisions of HUDA (Erection of Buildings) Regulation, 1979.

Subject: Earmarking of small commercial sites for essential trades in different Urban Estate of HUDA.

On the subject cited above it may be appreciated that convenient Shopping and other commercial areas are provided by HUDA in each sector to cater to the commercial needs of the residents of these sectors. Although small size booths and Kiosks are provided while planning these shopping areas, however it has been observed that these commercial sites have become financially non viable for those small time traders involved in day to day essential commercial activities like pressing of cloth, cutting of hairs, repairing of cycles and shoes and selling of vegetables etc. In the absence of any policy to earmark commercial sites specifically for these essential day to day commercial activities, these small time commercial activities are being run in informal sector in almost all residential sectors and commercial areas of HUDA.

The Government has now taken a policy decision to this effect to provide such shops in each sector at the subsidized rates to the genuine persons involved in such small time commercial activities. It is therefore requested that a cluster of kiosks having a size of 2.75 mt x 2.75 mt may be planned in all the residential sectors of HUDA as per local needs and the layout plans may be forwarded to this office for obtaining formal approval of CA,HUDA within fortnight positively.

Memo No. CTP(N)/STP(S)/AM/52768

Dated:18.03.2019

Subject:- Implementation of Transit Oriented Development Policy (TOD) in HSVP areas-Revised Policy.

Reference: In supersession of the earlier policy on the subject circulated vide memo no. CTP/STP(S)/AM/23827 dated 14.12.2017.

In order to provide the benefit of increased FAR permissible in the notified TOD Zones to HSVP allottees, a policy for implementation of Transit Oriented Development in HSVP areas was approved by the Hon'ble Chief Minister-cum-Chairman, HSVP. Policy instructions were circulated vide memo no. CTP/STP(S)/23827 dated 14.12.2017. Ex-Post-Facto approval of the Pradhikaran was obtained in its 113th meeting held on 16.02.2018. This TOD policy of HSVP was largely modeled on the lines of TOD policy dated 09.02.2016 of the T&CP department, however, the benefit of mixed land use on various type of plots falling in the TOD zone was not extended to HSVP allottees, keeping in view the HSVP Rules & Regulations.

In order to minimize the disparity, a modified policy was placed before the Pradhikaran in its 117th meeting held on 18.02.2019 vide Agenda item no. P-117th Suppl.(2). The Pradhikaran has accorded its approval to the amended policy. Accordingly, the revised policy is as under:-

Policy for 'Transit Oriented Development' in HSVP areas

1. Background

The Town & Country Planning department, Haryana had notified a policy dated 05.09.2014 for Transit Oriented Development along the MRTS Corridors, as a means of densification of the MRTS Corridors and also as a source of generating revenue for financing these MRTS projects in the State. The larger objective of the policy was to create an enabling environment for maximum uses of such Mass Transit Systems and to wean away the public from uses of private vehicles. In view of the suggestions received from various organizations, real estates developers and other professional groups/individuals, the TOD policy was modified and an amended policy was notified by the Town & Country Planning department, Haryana vide notification dated 09.02.2016. The main policy of 09.02.2016 has been partially modified from time to time vide notifications dated 16.11.2016, 11.04.2017, 13.06.2017, 03.08.2017, 08.02.2018, 26.02.2018, 06.03.2018, 17.12.2018 and 26.12.2018. The TOD zones notified by the State Government in its policy include areas acquired and developed/being developed by the Haryana Shehri Vikas Pradhikaran also.

2. Need for the policy

Since the TOD zones notified by the State Government in its policy include areas acquired and developed/ being developed by the Haryana Shehri Vikas Pradhikaran also, therefore, there is a need to suitably adopt the TOD policy of the State Government for HSVP areas also, so that the objective of densification of MRTS corridors can be fully achieved.

3. Definition of TOD

Transit Oriented Development is essentially any development, macro or micro, focused around/along a transit mode/corridor and facilitates complete ease of access to the transit facility, thereby, inducing 'walk to work' culture and use of public transportation over personal means of transport. The primary goals of TOD are to:-

- (i) Reduce / discourage private vehicle dependency and induce Public Transport use – through design policy, measures and enforcement
- (ii) Provide easy transport access to maximum number of people within walking distance to densification and enhanced connectivity.

4. TOD zones

The TOD zones shall be as approved by the State Government. The TOD policy notified by the State government vide notification dated 09.02.2016 provides that in the first phase, TOD will be allowed on the following designated Metro corridors:-

- a) Delhi Metro extension along Gurgaon-Mehrauli road upto sector-29 (City Centre), Gurgaon.
- b) Metro Link from Badarpur (Delhi) to Ballabgarh, District Faridabad.
- c) Metro Link from Mundka (Delhi) to City Park, Bahadurgarh.

- d) Metro Link along Northern Periphery Road (NPR) as proposed in the Final Development Plan 2031 AD of Gurgaon-Manesar Urban Complex.
- e) Metro Link along Southern Periphery (SPR) as proposed in the Final Development Plan 2031 AD of Gurgaon-Manesar Urban Complex including the portion of SPR forming Southern Periphery of sector-56, Gurugram.
- f) Rapid Metro developed/being developed in PPP mode and upto SPR.
- g) MRTS Project from HUDA City Centre, Gurugram to Bawal via Global City and Manesar to the extent it falls within the limits of Final Development Plan 2031 AD of Gurugram Manesar Urban Complex (notified vide notification dated 26.02.2018)

Further, identification of new corridors for MRTS shall be done by the Haryana Mass Rapid Transit Corporation (HMRTC). The State Government will approve new corridors on the recommendations of HMRTC and such corridors shall be considered as included in this policy.

5. Demarcation of TOD zones

The TOD Zone shall be designated upto 800 metres depth on both sides from the boundaries of the Right of Way (ROW) of the road, on which MRTS corridor is proposed to be provided, including a semi-circle with a radius of 800 meters at the terminating points of such MRTS corridors. This 800 meters proposed TOD Zone has been bifurcated as under, for the purpose of the development proposed to be carried out:-

- (a) Intense TOD Zone: The first 500 mtrs depth on both sides from the boundaries of ROW of the road, on which MRTS corridor is proposed to be provided.
- (b) Transition TOD Zone: Between 500 to 800 mtrs depth on both sides from the boundaries of ROW of the road, on which MRTS corridor is proposed to be provided.

It is clarified that MRTS can be constructed either on the central verge of the ROW of the road or on any point/stretch of this road but for the purposes of TOD Zone, 800 meters will be calculated from the boundaries of the ROW of the acquired road irrespective of construction of MRTS on any point in the ROW.

6. Permissible uses

The permissible uses within the TOD zone are detailed in the table in para-7 below and these uses shall be permitted irrespective of any restrictions in the present planning norms of HSVP / T&CP department. Mixed land use (Residential and Commercial only) and FAR 3.5 / 2.5 shall be permitted upto 30% residential component on commercial sites and upto 30% commercial component in residential / Industrial / Institutional zones of the Development Plans. Similarly, IT / ITES projects approved in residential / Industrial Zones shall also be eligible under this TOD policy and such re-densification shall be permitted with maximum FAR of 3.5 / 3.0 with mixed land use upto 30% for commercial / residential purposes. Charges would be levied as per the category of use and proposed usage of FAR.

The height restrictions shall be subject to the regulations of the Haryana Building Code 2017.

7. Planning parameters (Ground coverage/FAR) within TOD zone

Land Use	TOD Zone	Maximum Ground coverage	FAR	Maximum Density (Persons Per Acre)
Multi-storeyed group housing (minimum half acre plot)	Intense	40%	3.5	600

	Transition	40%	2.5	-

8. Parking norms

Parking norms as prescribed in the TOD policy of the State Government shall be followed. (a)	Upto 100 sq.mtr.	0.5 Equivalent Car Space (ECS)
(b)	Between 100 sq.mtr to 150 sq.mtr.	1.0 Equivalent Car Space (ECS)
(c)	More than 150 sq.mtr.	1.5 Equivalent Car Space (ECS)

Further for Commercial areas, the norm of one ECS for each 50 sq mtrs carpet area shall be followed.

The term “carpet area” shall mean the net usable covered floor area, bound within the walls of the apartment but excluding the area covered by the walls and any balcony which is approved free-of-FAR, but including the area forming part of kitchen, toilet, bathroom, store and built-in cupboard/almirah/shelf, which being usable covered area shall form part of the carpet area. Further, connected parking shall be permitted not only below the towers but also below the podium/open spaces covered with greens or otherwise.

Size of ECS (Equivalent Car Space):-

1 ECS	= 23 sq. mts. for open parking
1 ECS	= 28 sq. mts. for stilt parking
1 ECS	= 32 sq. mts. for basement parking

- The allottee shall seek a revised zoning plan of the allotted site for the purpose of availing the TOD benefits under this policy. It is, however, made clear that the issuance of revised zoning plan under this policy shall not entitle the allottee to any undue benefit on account of possession interest, period of construction, waiver of extension fee etc. in respect of the original allotment and the allotment of the plot shall continue to be governed by its original terms and conditions.

10. Applicability

- i. TOD benefit shall not be applicable on the plots which are under any kind of default in payment or dispute/litigation. The already allotted sites shall be allowed additional FAR under this policy as per norms of ground coverage, green area etc. proposed in this policy. However, in such cases, the permissible density under this policy shall only be allowed proportionate to the additional FAR being permitted and not on the originally permissible FAR. Such benefit on existing or under construction developments shall be allowed only after structural stability of the existing and proposed constructions is certified by reputed institutes like NIT, IIT, PEC, etc.
- ii. Where any site is coming within any TOD zone partially, the provisions of this policy will be allowed to be availed only for that portion of the plot as per limitation defined for intense and transitional TOD zones but such FAR can be utilized anywhere within the permissible buildable zone of such a plot, i.e. even in the portion of buildable zone of the plot falling outside TOD zone. The Zonal Administrator shall examine the proposal and forward his/her recommendations to Chief Administrator, HSVP for approval. After approval of the proposal, the allottee shall be required to deposit the necessary charges with the concerned Estate Officer. Upon receipt of the prescribed charges, the revised zoning plan (duly approved by the Zoning Plan Committee headed by the concerned Zonal Administrator) shall be provided by the concerned Estate Officer to the applicant.

- iv. In case of residential plotted development, the allottees of adjoining residential plots in a compact block having a minimum area of 2,000 sq.mts and abutting 18 mts or wider roads may also be permitted to convert their plots into Group Housing sites for re-densification purposes. However, in all such cases, approvals shall be granted on case to case basis, keeping in view the light, ventilation, privacy etc. of the surroundings areas and provision of adequate parking within the composite plot. For this purpose, the Zoning Plan Committee constituted under the chairmanship of concerned Zonal Administrator shall examine the proposal and send recommendations to Chief Administrator HSVP, who shall be the competent authority to grant such permission. - v. In case of mixed land use on Group Housing plots, the commercial component shall be allotted only as a share to the members of that particular society alongwith their respective residential share. It shall not be sold as an independent area/unit by the society or the members. In case of Group Housing Societies which have already obtained Occupation Certificate, the consent / resolution of General Body of the Society (duly attested by the concerned ARCS, Haryana) shall be required to be submitted alongwith the application for increase in FAR / mixed land use.
- vi. In case of mixed land use on commercial plots, the residential component shall be allowed only in the form of flatted development/apartments and plotted development shall not be allowed. Such apartments shall be governed by the provisions of Haryana Apartment Ownership Act & Rules framed thereunder.
- vii. In case of institutional plots, the commercial component shall be allowed only in case of 1.0 acre (4047 sq.mts) and above plots. Such commercial component shall not be allowed to be sold as independent shops and ownership of the commercial component shall always remain vested in the allottee of the concerned institutional plot. Such commercial area can only be rented out on lease basis.
- viii. In case of mixed land use in IT/ITes, the residential component shall be permitted only for the use of workers / staff of the allottee organization (i.e. for staff housing on rental basis where the ownership of the residential component shall remain vested with the allottee organization and shall not be transferred to the workers/employees). The residential area shall not be allowed to be transferred as independent floors or units/apartments. The commercial component shall also not be allowed to be sold as independent shops and ownership of the commercial component shall always remain vested in the allottee of the concerned plot. Such commercial area can only be rented out on lease basis.
- ix. Subsequent to these amendments, building plans shall be sanctioned with higher FAR / density as per provisions of this policy.
- x. All unallotted plots of land uses covered under this TOD policy shall be allotted as per parameters prescribed in the table in clause 7, after price fixation as per the maximum permissible FAR for Intense/Transition zone.

If plot is not available in the same sector, then plot will be given in the adjoining sector of the same Revenue Estate. If plot is not available in same sector or adjoining sector then only monetary benefits as given in (a) above shall be paid to the land owner.
- iii) In those cases where existing revenue rasta has been acquired by HSVP and no approach is available to the owner of released / unacquired land, in such cases HSVP shall provide rasta with width upto maximum of 2-karam (11 ft) free of cost to such land owners.

 - a) Applicant shall be required to pay for the differential land (required for rasta in excess of 2-karam width) at 1.5 times the nodal residential plotted rate of the concerned sector, in which the said rasta falls, or of the adjoining sector, in case nodal rate of the concerned sector is not yet fixed. However, ownership of the land under rasta shall remain with HSVP and the rasta shall be a public rasta.

- iii) Land of both parties involved in exchange shall be got demarcated at site to ascertain/verify its area and clear availability, before execution of agreement.
- iv) An undertaking shall be given by developer/land owner that the title of the land to be given to HSVP in exchange is in favour of the applicant and is clear & free from all encumbrances.

Dated:17.07.2018

Subject: - Policy regarding purchase of land by HSVP for infrastructure projects or otherwise and exchange of HSVP land with the land of developers/ land owners.

Reference: In supersession of this office memo no. 11210 dated: 18.01.2017 and 25186 dated 08.02.2017.

1. A policy regarding exchange of HSVP land with the land of developers/land owners was circulated vide memo no. 11210 dated: 18.01.2017. Minor amendment in the policy was also circulated vide memo no. 25186 dated 08.02.2017. This policy was circulated with approval of the same by the Pradhikaran in its 112th meeting held on 10.01.2017 vide Agenda item no. 22. This policy does not envisage purchase of un-acquired land of developers/land owners required for various infrastructures projects or otherwise. The cases are being referred by the Zonal Administrators for purchase of un-acquired patches/pockets of land required for completion of roads, lying of infrastructure etc. It was felt that such requests cannot be considered and examined under the ibid policy of exchange. Hence, a proposal was submitted to the Government that the scope of policy may be widened to include purchase of land by HSVP for infrastructure projects or otherwise. The proposal has been approved by the Hon'ble CM Haryana-cum Chairman, HSVP. Accordingly, the revised policy is as under:-

F. Conditions under which purchase of land by HSVP and exchange of HSVP land shall be considered:

- i) Where HSVP land is irregular in shape and exchange of land with the developer land owner will help in regularization of boundaries of HSVP land. In such cases, exchange of land shall be executed on the principles of 'give equal and take equal' except in situation as mentioned in Clause (ii) hereinbelow. However, in case of exchange of land with unlicensed land or land owners where the land of the owner gets re-located as a compact chunk or plot, residential plots of HSVP having area equivalent to 25% of the land taken in exchange shall be given to the applicant because in lieu of undeveloped land, developed land of HSVP is given.
- ii) Where no approach is available to the land of developer and an approach is to be provided through HSVP land, in such cases 1.5 times of the developer land out of the same land for which approach is being given shall be taken by HSVP in lieu of its land required for providing approach.
- iii) Where HSVP has utilized un-acquired land of land owner without paying compensation/land in exchange, in such cases, land owner can opt for one of the following benefits:-
 - a. HSVP shall pay the updated cost of land based on the award announced for the land abutting/ adjoining to the land of land owner with no future encumbrance/liability on price of the land.

Or

- b. The land owner will have an option to have residential plot of area equivalent to 40% of his utilized un-acquired land by HSVP. This plot will be given to the land owner in the same sector in which his land has been utilized. If plot is not available in the same sector then plot will be given in the adjoining sector of the same Revenue Estate. If plot is not available in same sector or adjoining sector then only monetary benefits as given in (a) above shall be paid to the land owner.
- iv) Where HSVP intends to purchase un-acquired/released land of developers/ land owners for infrastructure projects or otherwise, in such cases HSVP shall pay the updated cost of land based on the award announced for the land abutting/adjoining to the land of developers/land owners. However, this will be the 'offer' and the 'acceptance' of the same by such land owners shall be a sale of this land with no future encumbrance / liability on price of the land.

G. Terms and Conditions of exchange of HSVP land:-

- viii) Exchange of land would be governed by HSVP Act, 1977 and the rules/regulations framed there under. However, the said exchange of land shall not provide immunity to the developer/land owner from the provisions of any other Acts/Rules in force.
- ix) The proposal of exchange of land shall be considered only in the same sector. The land of developers/ land owners to be given to HSVP in exchange must abut already acquired HSVP land.
- x) Land of both parties involved in exchange shall be got demarcated at site to ascertain/verify its area and clear availability, before execution of agreement.
- xi) An undertaking shall be given by developer/land owner that the title of the land to be given to HSVP in exchange is in favour of the applicant and is clear & free from all encumbrances.
- xii) In case exchange is done on the request of the applicant, HSVP will not be liable to pay any compensation for the existing structures, if any, to the land owners in the land to be exchanged.
- xiii) The cost of exchange deed/stamp paper shall be paid by the developer/land owner in case the exchange of land is being executed on the request of developer/land owner. However, in case where the exchange is to be executed on the initiative of HSVP necessitated for laying of services, provision of infrastructure facilities etc., the cost of exchange deed / stamp paper shall be paid by HSVP.
- xiv) The developer/land owner shall execute an agreement for exchange of land with the concerned Estate Officer, HSVP before the exchanged site is handed over.

Memo. no. CTP/STP(S)/AM/238227,238230

Dated:14.12.2017

Subject:- Implementation of Transit Oriented Development Policy (TOD) in HUDA areas.

In order to provide the benefit of increased FAR permissible in the notified TOD Zones to HUDA allottees, the following policy for implementation of Transit Oriented Development in HUDA areas has been approved by the Hon'ble Chief Minister-cum-Chairman, HUDA:-

Policy for 'Transit Oriented Development' in HUDA areas

1. Background

The Town & Country Planning department, Haryana had notified a policy dated 05.09.2014 for Transit Oriented Development along the MRTS Corridors, as a means of densification of the MRTS Corridors and also as a source of generating revenue for financing these MRTS projects in the State. The larger objective of the policy was to create an enabling environment for maximum uses of such Mass Transit Systems and to wean away the public from uses of private vehicles. In view of the suggestions received from various organizations, real estates developers and other professional groups/individuals, the TOD policy was modified and an amended policy was notified by the Town & Country Planning department, Haryana vide notification dated 09.02.2016. The main policy of 09.02.2016 has been partially modified from time to time vide notifications dated 16.11.2016, 11.04.2017, 13.06.2017 & 03.08.2017. The TOD zones notified by the State Government in its policy include areas acquired and developed/being developed by the Haryana Urban Development Authority also.

2. Need for the policy

Since the TOD zones notified by the State Government in its policy include areas acquired and developed/ being developed by the Haryana Urban Development Authority also, therefore, there is a need to suitably adopt the TOD policy of the State Government for HUDA areas also, with appropriate modifications wherever required as per HUDA rules and regulations, so that the objective of densification of MRTS corridors can be fully achieved.

3. Definition of TOD

Transit Oriented Development is essentially any development, macro or micro, focused around/along a transit mode/corridor and facilitates complete ease of access to the transit facility, thereby, inducing 'walk to work' culture and use of public transportation over personal means of transport. The primary goals of TOD are to:-

(i) Reduce / discourage private vehicle dependency and induce Public Transport use – through design policy, measures and enforcement

(ii) Provide easy transport access to maximum number of people within walking distance to densification and enhanced connectivity.

4. TOD zones

The TOD zones shall be as approved by the State Government. The TOD policy notified by the State government vide notification dated 09.02.2016 provides that in the first phase, TOD will be allowed on the following designated Metro corridors:-

- a) Delhi Metro extension along Gurgaon-Mehrauli road upto sector-29 (City Centre), Gurgaon.
- b) Metro Link from Badarpur (Delhi) to Ballabgarh, District Faridabad.
- c) Metro Link from Mundka (Delhi) to City Park, Bahadurgarh.
- d) Metro Link along Northern Periphery Road (NPR) as proposed in the Final Development Plan 2031 AD of Gurgaon-Manesar Urban Complex.
- e) Metro Link along Southern Periphery (SPR) as proposed in the Final Development Plan 2031 AD of Gurgaon-Manesar Urban Complex including the portion of SPR forming Southern Periphery of sector-56, Gurugram.
- f) Rapid Metro developed/being developed in PPP mode and upto SPR.

Further, identification of new corridors for MRTS shall be done by the Haryana Mass Rapid Transit Corporation

(HMRTC). The State Government will approve new corridors on the recommendations of HMRTC and such corridors shall be considered as included in this policy.

5. Demarcation of TOD zones

The TOD Zone shall be designated upto 800 metres depth on both sides from the boundaries of the Right of Way (ROW) of the road, on which MRTS corridor is proposed to be provided. This 800 meters proposed TOD Zone has been bifurcated as under, for the purpose of the development proposed to be carried out:-

- (a) Intense TOD Zone: The first 500 mtrs depth on both sides from the boundaries of ROW of the road, on which MRTS corridor is proposed to be provided.
- (b) Transition TOD Zone: Between 500 to 800 mtrs depth on both sides from the boundaries of ROW of the road, on which MRTS corridor is proposed to be provided.

It is clarified that MRTS can be constructed either on the central verge of the ROW of the road or on any point/stretch of this road but for the purposes of TOD Zone, 800 meters will be calculated from the boundaries of the ROW of the acquired road irrespective of construction of MRTS on any point in the ROW.

6. Permissible uses

The permissible uses within the TOD zone are detailed in the table in clause 7 below.

Plotted residential development shall not be covered under the TOD policy and in case of residential use, the TOD policy shall be applicable only on sites allotted under Group Housing norms, having a minimum area of half acre.

In case of commercial sites, provisions of TOD policy can be availed only by the allottees of commercial sites covered under the applicability clause of the Haryana Apartment Ownership Act, 1983 i.e. integrated commercial complexes.

The TOD policy is not applicable to the earmarked institutional sites like Schools, Colleges and Hospital etc. provided in the residential/commercial zones/ sectors of the Development Plan. Only the institutional plots provided in Institutional zones/sectors of the Development Plan would be covered under the policy.

In the industrial zone, the TOD policy is applicable only to IT/ITes and not to other category of industrial plots.

IT/ITes projects approved in institutional/industrial zones of the Development Plan shall be eligible under this TOD policy and such re-densification shall be permitted with maximum FAR of 3.5/3.0.

The allottees of sites of various land uses covered under this policy, as detailed above, can avail the increased FAR/ground coverage/density as per parameters prescribed in the table in clause 7 below for the augmentation of the purpose/use for which the plot has been allotted. The increased FAR shall not be allowed to be utilized for any mixed land use or for any other purpose/activity different from the permissible purpose/activity of the allotted plot.

Charges would be levied as per the category of land use.

The height restrictions shall be subject to the regulations of the Airport Authority of India and structural stability / fire safety compliances as per applicable laws.

7. Planning parameters (Ground coverage/FAR) within TOD zone

8. Parking norms

Parking norms as prescribed in the TOD policy of the State Government shall be followed. Further for Commercial areas, the norm of one ECS for each 50 sq mtrs carpet area shall be followed.

The term “carpet area” shall mean the net usable covered floor area, bound within the walls of the apartment but excluding the area covered by the walls and any balcony which is approved free-of-FAR, but including the area forming part of kitchen, toilet, bathroom, store and built-in cupboard/almirah/shelf, which being usable covered area shall form part of the carpet area. 9. Miscellaneous

- Additional FAR can be purchased in the slabs of 0.25 subject to the ceiling of maximum permissible FAR allowed for various land uses in the Intense and Transition Zones as per Table in clause 7 of this policy.
- The allottee shall seek a revised zoning plan of the allotted site for the purpose of availing the TOD benefits under this policy. It is, however, made clear that the issuance of revised zoning plan under this policy shall not entitle the allottee to any undue benefit on account of possession interest, period of construction, waiver of extension fee etc. in respect of the original allotment and the allotment of the plot shall continue to be governed by its original terms and conditions.

10. Applicability

1. TOD benefit shall not be applicable on the plots which are under any kind of default in payment or dispute/litigation. The already allotted sites shall be allowed additional FAR under this policy as per norms of ground coverage, green area etc. proposed in this policy. However, in such cases, the permissible density under this policy shall only be allowed proportionate to the additional FAR being permitted and not on the originally permissible FAR. Such benefit on existing or under construction developments shall be allowed only after structural stability of the existing and proposed constructions is certified by reputed institutes like NIT, IIT, PEC, etc.
2. Plotted residential development is not covered under the TOD policy and proposals for clubbing of residential plots for availing the TOD benefits shall also not be entertained.
3. Furthermore, permission under this policy may be granted only to such projects which have entry and exist within the TOD Zone.

It is pointed out that the clause no. 7 of policy / procedure for allotment of Hospital site, circulated vide memo no. 32463-87 dated 06.11.1998 reads as under:-

“Shops shall not be allowed to be constructed, except those specifically provided in the zoning plan”.

Change in the use of land by the allottee for purposes other than hospital and ancillary building shall not be permitted in any case”.

This clause may be inserted in all the zoning plans of un-allotted hospital sites. The allottees of already allotted hospital sites can also avail the benefit of this clause provided scope is there within the maximum permissible FAR.

Memo No: CTP/NS/492-574

Dated:10.01.2014

Subject: Regarding increase in FAR of Cinema/Multiplex sites – Revision in Policy.

Reference:- In continuation to this office memo. no. 3400 dated 11.05.1998 and in supersession of this office memo. no. 8733-64 dated 18.10.2001.

The matter regarding increase in FAR of cinema/multiplex sites has been examined and it has been decided that FAR in case of cinema/multiplex sites shall be 175% of the site area. The allottees of already auctioned cinema/ multiplex sites and the allottees who have already converted cinema sites into multiplex or commercial complex shall also be allowed to avail the benefit of revised FAR subject to the following conditions:-

1. The FAR of cinema/multiplex if increased from 100%/125%/150% to 175%, the charges may be worked out as under :-

- (i) The auction price achieved in respect of cinema/multiplex site may be updated @ 10% per annum.
- (ii) For the increased FAR, 75% of the auction price as worked out as per (i) above may be charged.
- (iii) The following formula may be applied to work out the charges for the increased FAR
$$\frac{(\text{Increased FAR} \times \text{updated auction price})}{\text{Base FAR at which auction was held}} \times 75\%$$

For example, if the cinema/ multiplex site is auctioned for Rs. 100 lacs on 1.4.2009 and size of the cinema/ multiplex site is 1,000 sq. mtr. The updated auction price on 31.3.2014 shall work out as under:-

Auction price as on 1.4.2009	Rs.100.00 lacs.
Add interest @10% p.a. from 1.4.2009 to 31.3.2014 i.e. the date of approval of increase of FAR.	Rs. 50.00 lacs
Updated Auction Price.	Rs.150.00 lacs.

(a) In case, the FAR of Cinema/multiplex site at the time of auction is 100% and the allottee wants to increase the FAR from 100% to 150%, in that case the charges will work out to Rs.56.25 lacs as per details given below :-

1.	Updated auction price	=	Rs.150 lacs
2.	Base FAR as which auction was held	=	100%
3.	Increased FAR	=	50%
	Additional price payable $\frac{(50 \times 150)}{100} \times 75\%$	=	Rs. 56.25 lacs

(b) In case the FAR of cinema/multiplex site is 125% at the time of auction and the allottee wants to increase the FAR from 125% to 175%, charges will work out to Rs.45.00 lacs under:-

1.	Updated auction price	=	Rs.150 lacs
2.	Base FAR as which auction was held	=	125%
3.	Increased FAR	=	50%
	Additional price payable $\frac{(50 \times 150)}{125} \times 75\%$	=	Rs. 45.00 lacs

(c) In case, the FAR of Cinema/multiplex site is 150% at the time of auction and the allottee wants to increase the FAR from 150% to 175%, in that case the charges will work out to Rs.18.75 lacs as per details given below :-

1.	Updated auction price	=	Rs. 150 lacs
2.	Base FAR as which auction was held	=	150%
3.	Increased FAR	=	25%
	Additional price payable $\frac{(25 \times 150)}{150} \times 75\%$	=	Rs. 18.75 lacs

- The price worked out on the basis of formula given above may be compared with the collector rate and out of the two, the rate whichever is higher, may be charged.
- The allottees will have to construct minimum two separate Theatres within the same Cinema/Multiplex Complex. Minimum total number of seats of all the Theatres should not be less than 450. The percentage of commercial component of the Cinema hall may be allowed to the tune of 50% of FAR. The commercial component of the Cinema hall can be used for Convention Centre, Exhibition Hall, Cultural Centres, Departmental Store, Shopping Centre, Restaurant and similar other uses for entertainment.
- There will be no maximum height prescribed for cinema/multiplex buildings. However, this provision shall be applicable only on those sites which are governed by the zoning plans and not by the architectural controls.
- In case of buildings having height 30 meters and above, clearance from the National Airport Authority of India will be required.
- For buildings more than 60 meter in height, structural stability certificate from the recognized institutions like IITs, Punjab Engineering College (PEC), Regional Engineering College/ National Institute of Technology etc. and for the fire safety clearance from National Fire Service College Engineers (Ministry of Home affairs, Govt. of India) Nagpur will be required.

7. Four level basements shall be allowed only for parking purposes.
8. One ECS for every 50 square meters of the covered area will have to be provided. Further, 15% of the total parking requirement can be at the surface level and remaining 85% shall have to be in the form of covered parking.
9. The area for parking per car unit (Equivalent Car Space) shall be as under:
 - a) Basement = 32 square meters.
 - b) Stilts = 28 square meters.
 - c) Open = 23 square meters.
10. The covered parking in the basement or in the form of multi-level parking above ground level will not be counted towards Floor Area Ratio (FAR). However, the footprint of separate parking building blocks shall be counted towards ground coverage.
11. In case of provision of mechanical parking in the basement floor/upper story's, the maximum floor to ceiling height of the basement/floor may be of 4.5 meters.
12. The misuse of the covered parking space will immediately attract levy of three times the penalty of the composition fee prescribed for the excess covered area in the respective category.
13. Provisions of the Haryana Apartment Ownership Act 1983, as amended upto date, shall also be applicable on the shopping mall sites.
14. The construction of cinema/multiplex buildings shall be further governed by BIS/National Building Code as well as The Punjab Cinema Regulations Act 1952 and the Rules made there under.
15. In the case of unsold cinema/multiplexes, the price shall be calculated at FAR of 1.75 and condition no. 3 to 14 will be part of zoning plans.

The above instructions are issued with prior approval of the above proposal from Hon'ble C.M., Haryana-cum-Chairman, HUDA.

Memo no. CP HUDA/DTP(N) 16262-292 Dated: 11/12/2007

Subject: Computerization Programme of HUDA-up gradation of demarcation plans and assigning unique property numbers.

A review meeting was held under the chairmanship of Sh. T.C. Gupta IAS, Chief Administrator, HUDA on 16-11-2007 at Karnal. It was decided that in view of the Computerization Programme of HUDA, all the Demarcation plans are to be checked and updated by the DTP concerned so that the approvals of Part Plans obtained from time to time are incorporated in the main demarcation plan. Also a unique property number may be assigned to each and every site provided in the demarcation plan (including) parks, un-determined use pockets, reserved for HUDA land or to be planned later on pockets, community facilities like schools, community centre, dispensary etc. nursing homes, clinics, religious buildings, social and charitable sites, tube wells etc. A list of category code/sub-category code for different categories of properties has been supplied by IT Cell of HUDA and copy of the same is enclosed herewith. You are requested to assign unique property numbers to various kinds of properties as per the category code and sub-category code mentioned in the list.

CA HUDA observed that possession of a number of plots in various urban estates is held up due to passing of HT lines over those plots. Therefore, in order to ensure that no plots get carved out under the influence zone of HT lines, in future a copy of the plane table survey clearly showing the HT lines/pylons should accompany the layout/ part layout plan sent to CTP HUDA for approval. Also whenever any proposal for approval of layout/ demarcation/ zoning/ carving out of site etc is sent by zonal Administrators to CTP, HUDA, four prints of the same must be sent invariably.

It was also decided that in future layout plans/demarcation plans/zoning plans of all the sectors shall be prepared separately instead of clubbing two or three sectors in one layout plan/demarcation plans/zoning plans.

You are requested to follow the above instructions meticulously.

The change in number of plots in a sector subsequently should be taken into account for determining the reservation of oustees quota plots.

C. For clause 11 of the guidelines, following clause may be substituted:

11. An oustee whose land and/ or constructed house/ factory etc. was notified under section 4 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 and was released subsequently (in its entirety or a part thereof) will not be eligible for availing benefit of oustees quota plot irrespective of the fact that 75 % of his total land has been acquired as per clause no. 7 of the guidelines dated 11.08.2016. It is clarified that release for this purpose shall mean the case where the notification under Section 4 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 has been issued in respect of the said land.

D. In clause 15 of the guidelines, following clause may be added:

15. (a). Where an application is made by an oustee in an advertisement issued afresh, the price of plot that may be charged from him if he is successful in draw of lots out of plots reserved for oustees shall be the rate as advertised in new advertisement.

In cases where the allotment of plot could not be effected despite determination of his eligibility, the prevalent price at the time of application by the oustee in pursuance to an advertisement may be charged alongwith simple interest @ 11 % per annum till date.

E. Clause no. 19 may be added as under:

“The plot allotted shall not be allowed to be sold/ transferred for a period of 5 years from the date of issue of allotment letter.”

As a welfare Sate, Haryana Urban Development Authority recognizes that Acquisition of Land under the statute and the alienation of the land owners from their source of livelihood could be a painful process, notwithstanding the payment of compensation for the same as per law There are large numbers of litigations filed by the land owners claiming the residential plots under the oustees Category and the same are pending in the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Hon'ble High Court, Civil Courts, and Tribunals/Consumer Forums. The instructions dated 11.08.2016 and 04.12.2015 has been issued with a view to implement the judgment dated 25.04.2012 passed in LPA No.2096 of 2011 titled as HUDA Vs. Sandeep and others which has been upheld by the Hon'ble Supreme Sout in SLP no.27256 of 2012 filed by HUDA which was dismissed vide order dated 06.03.2014 and further the order dated 26.04.2012 Passed by the Hon'ble High Court in CWP No.10941 of 2010 titled as Bhagwan Singh & Others Vs.State of Haryana and others which has been upheld by the Hon'ble Supreme Court when SLP No.13375-388 of 2013 filed by HUDA was dismissed vide order date 24.11.2015 by the Hob'ble Supreme Court. A large number of Petitions have been filed in the Hob'ble High Court praying for allotment of plot as oustees. These petitions with main writ pettion No 22018 of 2015 titled as shrikant Singh Vs.State of Haryana & Ors. were heard on 25.05.2017 by the Hon'ble High Court and an interim order was passed to exarnine all the cases to enable the competent authority to revisit the whole issue by constituting a committee. Therefore, in order to minimize the litigation and to minimize the pain of the effected person, the Haryana Urban Development Authority nas now framed a "Onetime settlement Scheme" to decide all claims pending in different courts and Forum.

In pursuance to the ibid judgments and orders and with a view to dispose off large number of litigations by the oustees it has been decided to settle the claims of oustees as one time measure on terms and conditions stipulated hereinafter below:-

- a) That 50% of the total plots available as on date of advertisement will be offered for allotment to the oustees. As a one time scheme, the reservation quota fixed by HUDA as per instructions dated 04.12.2015 i.e 8% and 10% the same has now been increased to 50% for one time settlemt to claims of all the oustees.
- b) That these 50% plot will include all un allotted plots available in the sectors floated/developed in last 5 years from the date of advertisement to be issued for oustees alone.
- c) Such allotment shall be made through draw of lots.
- d) Each oustee shall have to apply afresh under this one time scheme as per the advertisement .
- e) The application under the new advertisement shall not be sector specific and allotement would be made in any of the sectors advertised by draw of lots within the same urban estate.
- f) The allotment of plots to oustees shall be made at current reserve price of the concerned sector where the oustees is declared successful in draw of lots. In order to clarify, the current reserve price means the price fixed at the time of advertisement by the HUDA
- g) The oustees including the litigants whose instigation is pending before any court of law/forum including any appeal pending before the authorities of HUDA under Act, 1977 shall be eligible for consideration for allotments under oustees category if he has not availed the benefit of allotment of plot of any Urban Estate from HUDA and his land has been acquired for the same Urban Estate irrespective of the sector, provided he satisfies the other eligibility conditions of the policy guidelines and apply along with application fee in pursuance to advertisement to be issued for oustees.
- h) The oustees who fail to apply under this one time scheme, shall forfeit their right under oustees claim for allotment of plot in future.

i) The plots allotted shall not be allowed to be sold/transferred for a period of 5 years from the date of issue of allotment letter.

Other terms and conditions stipulated in the terms and conditions for settlement of oustees claims issued on 11.08.2016 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the present scheme also in so far as same are not inconsistent to terms and conditions of this scheme.

However, where any such application is made in more than one sector then only his one application in any such sector at the discretion of the HUDA Authority shall be considered and earnest money in respect of other applications shall automatically stand forfeited and no claim for such forfeiture shall lie in future.
3. The application of an oustee shall be considered against the plots determined under oustees quota as per the instruction issued vide memo no. UB-A-6-2016/2213 dated 04.12.2015. The number of plots shall be determined on basis of total available plots advertised.

Any application made by such purchaser shall entail automatic rejection of application and forfeiture of earnest money. However, the forfeiture of earnest money will be done only after giving opportunity of hearing to the defaulting applicant.
7. An oustee shall be eligible to make such application only if 75 % or more of his total land in the concerned revenue estate is acquired. For this purpose, the total land to be considered for such determination will mean the land comprised in the same revenue estate(s) where the concerned sector is situated.

However, where litigation is pending then the court of law or authority or forum where it is pending may be informed of the aforesaid decision and efforts may be made to get the litigation disposed off in terms specified herein.
16. The applications of the oustees as received shall be put in draw of lots and eligibility of only those oustees who are successful in draw of lots shall be determined. Mere submission of such application or success in draw of lots shall not create any vested right for such allotment as eligibility will be determined only after oustee is declared successful in draw of lots.
17. The list of applicants shall be compiled within a period of 15 days of closing of the scheme and draw shall be held within a period of 30 days of closing of scheme for advertised plots. The eligibility of the oustees who are successful in draw of lots shall be determined within a further period of one month. The plot which will become available on account of such cancellation of draw may again be put to draw of lots out of remaining oustees who were earlier unsuccessful in the same draw. The earnest money of unsuccessful applicants may be refunded thereafter. No interest shall be payable on said amount if it is refunded within a period of 6 months from closing of

Dated:08.05.2015

Subject: CWP No. 16012/13 titled as Sham Lal Vs. State of Haryana.

Reference on the subject cited above.

The Double Bench of the Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court vide its order dated 15.12.2014 in case of CWP No. 16012 of 2013 titled as Sham Lal Vs. Haryana State through Commissioner and Secretary and others has allowed the petition.

The dispute involved in the petition is, whether a person who is the sole land owner in one Khewat and a co-sharer in another Khewat is to be allotted plot in sole name ignoring his being co-sharer in another Khewat.

The case has been got examined from the Legal Cell and they have opined that if an oustees is in independent ownership of land in one Khewat and is also a shareholder in another Khewat, he should be considered eligible for allotment of plot individually against his holding in the independent Khewat. His share in the other Khewat may also be added to his total land holding for calculating his eligibility and the same may be deducted from the joint Khewat while calculating the eligibility of the other co-sharer in the joint Khewat.

Accordingly, you are requested to decide the oustees claim in view of above decision. The above clarification may be brought to the notice of all concerned to implement it in letter and spirit.

This issues with the approval of Hon'ble CM-cum-Chairman, HUDA.

Memo No.UB-A-4-2015/6612

Dated:08.04.2015

Subject: Regarding claims of Oustees under Old HUDA Oustees Policy – clarification and withdrawal of letter dated 02.12.2013.

The Hon'ble High Court vide order dated 20.08.2014 passed in CWP No. 2212 of 2014 titled as Hukam Singh & Ors Vs. State of Haryana has held that the failure to apply in response to one or more advertisements does not deprive the Oustees of their rights of rehabilitation or their status as that of an Oustees at a subsequent stage as and when advertisement is again issued inviting applications for allotment of plots. The advertisement inviting applications for allotment of plots are to be issued after determining the plots available in these sector for reserve category including that of Oustees. HUDA is expected to invite applications in respect of such plots in its Sectors. The Hon'ble High Court has directed HUDA to issue a fresh advertisement inviting applications from all land owners, whose land was acquired in the area in question.

Further the Hon'ble High Court in its judgement dated 25.04.2012 passed in LPA No. 2096 of 2011 has observed that the failure to apply in response to an advertisement will not dis-entitle an Oustees for submitting application at a subsequent stage as and when advertisement has again issued inviting applications for allotment of plots. The said judgement has been up held by the Hon'ble Apex Court vide its order dated 06.03.2014. The Senior Counsel of HUDA has also opined that the Hon'ble High Court has rightly set aside the conditions in the advertisement in Hukum Singh case in view of Q. No. 5 (of Sandeep Singh judgement) and therefore, an Oustees can apply in response to any advertisement but his case has to be considered by treating his eligibility referred in policy applicable when Section-4 notification was issued.

Therefore it has been decided in view of the above judgements/opinion that an Oustees can apply in response to any advertisement but his case has to be considered by treating his eligibility as per policy applicable when Section 4 notification was issued. It has further been decided that the letter regarding 'withdrawal of Oustees Policy framed by HUDA prior to 07.12.2007.' issued vide headquarters memo no. DA/HUDA/44131-132 dated 02.12.2013 is here by withdrawn and the claims of land owners whose land has been acquired prior to 05.03.2005 by the State of Haryana for development of Sectors of HUDA may be invited for allotment of plots, as per availability of plots, but their claims have to be considered by treating their eligibility as per policy applicable when Section-4 notification was issued.

This has approval of Chief Administrator, HUDA.

Memo No. DA/HUDA/44131

Dated: 02.12.2013

Subject: Withdrawal of Oustee Policies framed by HUDA prior to 07.12.2007.

Reference on the subject cited above.

HUDA has been alive to the need of the land owners for their rehabilitation whose land is acquired by the State for the planned development to be made by HUDA. Therefore, oustee policies are implemented by inviting claims from the eligible oustees and allotting them plots by draw of lots according to their eligibility. The then Chief Administrator, HUDA made a statement in the Hon'ble High Court in CWP No. 15433 of 2006 titled as Amar Singh vs. HUDA and others decided on 29.11.2006 that all the pending claims of the Oustee Adalat were constituted at the level of Zonal Administrators to consider such claims and a right of appeal was also given in those land owners, whose claims were rejected by the Oustee Adalat before the Apex Appellate Body headed by Administrator (HQ), HUDA with CTP, HUDA as its Member. All pending claims were decided by the Competent Authority and the eligible land owners were allotted plots after following due process. Regarding other land owners found eligible and entitled by these screening committees constituted in 2007 consequent upon the orders of Hon'ble High Court dated 29.11.2006 are only to be considered for allotment.

As per the procedure prescribed for the implementation of the oustee policies, those land owners who did not prefer their claims within the stipulated period along with requisite information, had no right for consideration of their claims. The Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High court in various judgment has observed that oustees must stake their claims within a reasonable time and they have no vested right for the allotment of plots out of the oustees category as they are adequately compensated for their land. The non submission of applications by the oustees within a reasonable period amounts to giving up their right and Authority is not expected to wait for an oustee indefinitely for making allotment to general category.

Comprehensive rehabilitation and resettlement policies had been framed by the State in the Department of Revenue and Disaster Management on 07.12.2007, which covers the land acquired vide awards announced on or after 05.03.2005 and upto 06.09.2010. R & R Policy dated 09.11.2010 is applicable w.e.f. 07.09.2010. HUDA has already invited claims under these policies and the claims are likely to be considered and decided within 6 months.

Hence, all the oustee policies framed prior to 07.12.2007 are hereby withdrawn in exercise of the powers conferred by Section 30 (1) of the Haryana Urban Development Authority Act, 1977, (13 of 1977) and all other powers enabling him in this behalf, with the previous approval of the State Government. However, anything done or any action taken or any legal proceedings instituted under the said policies shall deemed to be governed by those policies.

Memo No. UBA4-2012/3383-3406

Dated 24.01.2012

Subject : Allotment of residential plots to the oustees – withdrawal of instructions dated 10.07.2002.

The policy guidelines issued vide HUDA HQ's Memo No.A1(P)-2002/16931-952 dated 10.07.2002, provides as under:-

- i) In case of left out plots, the oustees claims are invited first by the concerned Estate Officers and after reserving the equal number of plots for the oustees, the remaining plots are advertised for general category etc.
- ii) In case less number of applications are received against the reserved category as compared to the number of available plots, then remaining plots in respective category may once again be advertised for the same categories and if still some plots are left then the same should be converted into general category.

A combined reading of the decision of the Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court in LPA No.251 of 2007 decided on 18.08.2008 titled as HUDA and Anr. Vs Baljeet Singh, in CWP No.6129 of 2007 titled as Ramo Bai & Ors. Vs. State and in CWP No.1038 of 1999 titled as Smt.Bhagwanti Vs. HUDA decided on 09.05.2001 has revealed that the owners must stake their claims within a reasonable time and they have no vested right for the allotment of oustees quota plot as they are adequately compensated for their land. The non submission of application by the oustees within a reasonable time amounts to giving up of their right and Authority is not expected to wait for an oustees for unreasonable time before proceeding to make allotment to general category.

Keeping in view the legal position as stated above, the instructions regarding allotment of residential plots to the oustees mentioned at serial number (1) above issued by the HQ's memo No.A1(P)-2002/16931-16952 dated 10.07.2002 are hereby withdrawn.

These instructions may be brought into the notice of all concerned for strict compliance.

For the payment of annuity to the land owners whose land has been acquired, the tenders from various firms on a year to year basis will be called by the Chief Administrator. However, in case a uniform rate is decided by the Government (in Revenue Department), the work may be allotted at that rate instead of calling tenders. The annuity will be purchased by HUDA once a year. The firm will pay the amount to the land owners for the period as mentioned in the Rehabilitation and Resettlement Policy.

These instructions may be brought to the notice of all concerned for strict compliance.

An acknowledgment of these guidelines may be furnished to the HQ within 15 days of the receipt thereof.

Enclosure: Annexure-'A'

Revision of minimum floor rates and the Policy for Rehabilitation and Resettlement of Land Owners Land Acquisition Oustees

A. Preamble:

As a welfare state, the Government of Haryana recognises that acquisition of land under the statute and the alienation of landowners from their source of livelihood could be a painful process, notwithstanding the payment of compensation for the same as per law. Therefore it intends to minimise this pain of the affected persons through a set of policy initiatives that include (a) payment of market value as compensation of land to the landowners with the revision and fine-tuning of minimum floor rates in respect of land situated in different parts of the state; (b) introduction of a special incentive for reducing litigation qua the compensation amount; (c) revision of the rates of Annuity payable for a period of 33 years as a social security benefit for the landowners; and (d) review and introduction of certain additional benefits over and above the one-time compensation paid in accordance with the law so as to provide for alternate means of sustenance for the landowners and other landless persons/artisans who are dependent on the agricultural land being acquired for non-agricultural purposes.

B Strategy and Approach:

The objectives set out in the preamble of this Policy are sought to be achieved through the following approach:

1. Undertake revision of the minimum floor rates of land as contained in the Notification dated 6th April 2007 for different parts of the state, and further fine-tune the same with introduction of a larger number of categories;
2. Introduction of a 'No Litigation Incentive' for such of the landowners who opt to accept the compensation award with a view to containing litigation on this account;
3. Revision of the basic rates of 'Annuity' and the annual increase to make it more meaningful as a means of social security for the landowners;
4. Recognising tow broad categories of infrastructure projects for acquisition of land and treatment of benefits to the landowners based on the feasibility thereof;
5. Making arrangements for professional advice to the landowners for prudent investment of the compensation amount with various options;
6. Addressing the concerns of such landless persons and artisans in a village community whose source of livelihood is dependent upon the agricultural operations in respect of the acquired land.

C. The Policy:

1. Revision of Floor Rates of Land for determining the Compensation:

- i) The Government had introduced the concept of determining the minimum floor rates of land for acquisition purposes for the first time vide its Memo No. 2025-R-5-2005/4299, dated 28.04.2005, which were further revised vide Memo No. 1298-R-5-2007/4174, dated 06.04.2007. It has been observed that market rates of land have registered an upward movement with the passage of time and recovery of markets from the general economic meltdown of 2008-09. Accordingly, after considering all the related aspects for determining the compensation amount payable to the landowners, the Government has decided to revise the minimum floor rates as under:

Sr. No	Particulars	Floor Rates per acre of land (pre-revision)	Floor Rates per acre as revised w.e.f. 07.09.2010
1.	Land situated within the notified limits of Gurgaon Municipal Corporation	Rs. 20.00 Lakh	Rs. 40.00 lakh
2.	Land situated within (i) the notified limits of Faridabad Municipal Corporation, (ii) the notified limits of Panchkula Municipal Corporation as on 07.09.2010, (iii) Development Plans of (a) Gurgaon-Manesar Urban Complex (excluding the areas falling within the limits of Municipal Corporation Gurgaon (b) Sohna, and (c) Sonapat-Kundli Urban Complex	Rs. 16.00 lakh	Rs. 30.00 lakh
3.	Areas situated within the Development Plans of Bahadurgarh, Rohtak, Rewari, Dharuhera, Bawal and Panipat towns.	Rs. 16.00 Lakh	Rs. 25.00 Lakh
4	Rest of the National Capital Region, areas situated outside the limits of Panchkula Municipal Corporation (as on 07.09.2010) in Panchkula District and the land situated within the Development Plans of all other district headquarters outside the NCR	Rs. 16.00 Lakh Rs. 8.00 Lakh	Rs. 20.00 Lakh
5	Remaining Parts of the State	Rs. 8.00 Lakh	Rs. 12.00 Lakh
Note	1. The floor rates mentioned above represent the basic rate of land and do not include the amount payable under Section 23 (1A) and 30 % Solatium [U/s 23(2)], payable in addition. 2. Please see Appendix-1 for an indicative total amount payable to a landowner based on these floor rates.

- ii) The Committee headed by the Divisional Commissioner will continue to perform its duties while fixing the basic rates of compensation for various categories of land under acquisition. The Committee shall take into account (i) the sale-deeds executed in the area during the one year period immediately before issue of Section 4 of the Act (while doing so, it will ignore any isolated transaction/sale deed that may be in the nature of a distortion/ aberration and not representative of the average market value of land in the area) (ii) the Collector Rates prescribed for the area for charging the stamp duty on sale deeds, and (iii) the Minimum floor rates revised under this policy. While the highest of the above three rates would form the basis for working out the basic rate, the Committee would not be precluded from taking into account the current prevailing market rates, which could still be higher in certain cases, but based on some dependable/ reliable guiding parameters. The said committee is expected to give a well reasoned justification behind its recommendations. It will continue to take into account all these parameters for working out the land acquisition compensation rates being followed at present while communicating the rates to the Acquiring Departments/ Agencies in the State. To the rates so determined, would be added the additional amounts as per Section 23(1A) and the 30 % amount under Section 23(2) payable in accordance with the Land Acquisition Act, 1894.

2. Introduction of Incentive for ‘No Litigation’:

- i) A landowner or an interested person, whose land is acquired, has a statutory right to seek a reference under Section 18 of the Land Acquisition Act for determination of the Court qua (a) the measurement of land, (b) the amount of compensation, (c) the persons to whom it is payable, or (d) the apportionment of the compensation among the persons interested. However, a reference under Section 18 with reference to the amount of compensation is not competent where the Award is announced by the Land Acquisition Collector under Section 11(2).
- ii) It has been observed that notwithstanding the liberal rates of compensation being awarded by the Land Acquisition Collectors as per the State Policy, the incidence of litigation has not abated, be it by way of Civil Writ Petitions challenging the acquisition of land per se in some cases or by way of references seeking higher amount of compensation. Acknowledging the need for reducing litigation on this account, at least in matters pertaining to the amount of compensation, the Government has decided to introduce an incentive for ‘No Litigation’ so as to move towards the domain of ‘consent acquisition’ qua the ‘compensation amount’.
- iii) Accordingly it has been decided to pay an additional amount equal to 20 % of the basic rate of land determined by the Land Acquisition Collector (excluding the interest and the solatium components) as an incentive for ‘No Litigation’ to such of the landowners who opt (a) not to challenge the acquisition of their land, and (b) to accept the compensation amount as awarded and undertake not to seek a reference under Section 18 of the Act qua the amount of compensation. This incentive would still be available in cases where a reference is sought with respect to other issue i.e. (a) the measurement of land, (b) the persons to whom it is payable or (c) the appointment of the compensation among the persons interested.
- iv) The landowner opting to avail of this incentive would have to submit an undertaking as per Application Form-1 to the effect that he accepts the compensation amount as Awarded and, that once he opts to avail of the incentive, he would not be entitled to seek a reference under Section 18 of the Act. The Award would be deemed to have been made under Section 11(2) of the Act to that extent qua those who opt for this incentive.

3. Effective Date:

The revised floor rates, the policy of payment of ‘No Litigation’ incentive’ and the revision in various parameters of the R & R policy will be applicable to all such acquisition cases where awards have been announced on or after 07 September, 2010 irrespective of the date of notification under Section 4 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894.

D. Rehabilitation and Resettlement Policy:

4. Annuity Scheme-revised rates and features:

The payment of Annuity to the persons, who are the landowners at the time of issue of Section 4 Notification (including their nominees over the prescribed period), whose land is acquired by the Government under a statute, is in the nature of a Social Security and Benefit Scheme as part of the overall R & R Policy of the Government. It has been introduced primarily with a view to providing additional basic sustenance to the erstwhile landowners for a period of 33 years. Broad features of the Annuity scheme are as under:

- i) The eligible landowners will be paid Annuity @ Rs. 21,000/- per acre per annum for a period of 33 years over and above the usual land compensation;
- ii) The Annuity amount of Rs. 21,000/- will be increased by a fixed sum of Rs. 750/- every year;
- iii) In respect of land acquired in terms of land acquisition policy for setting up of Special Economic Zone/

Technology Cities/ Technology Parks, in addition to the rehabilitation and resettlement package notified by Industries and Commerce Department vide No. 49/48/2006-41B1, dated 4th May, 2006, a sum of Rs. 42,000/- per acre per annum will be paid for a period of 33 years by private developers and the Annuity amount will be increased at the rate of Rs. 1,500/- every year;

- iv) The scheme of Annuity payment will be applicable to all cases of land acquisition by the Government irrespective of the same being acquired for the State Government and its agencies or the Government of India/ its agencies, including the NHAI, the Railways, and the Defence purposes;
- v) The Government Departments acquiring land under a statute shall recover the amount required for discharging the Annuity obligations along with the compensation amount from the concerned agencies(for whom land is acquired) and shall ensure that the ‘Instrument of Annuity’ creating a right in favour of the erstwhile landowner is issued at the earliest;
- vi) The landowner would be entitled to appoint his nominee and change the same at any time before his demise for receipt of benefits under this Scheme who would step in his shoes after his death and so on so forth till the completion of 33 years period. In cases where a landowner dies intestate without leaving a nominee behind, the Annuity amount for the remainder of the period would be payable to the legal heirs of the deceased erstwhile landowner;
- vii) In cases where the land acquired in respect of a landowner/ co-sharer works out to less than one acre, such landowner will have the option to avail the commuted value of the Annuity amount upfront in one go which is fixed @ 30% of the gross amount of Annuity payable during the 33 years. He would be required to submit his application as per Application Form-3.
- viii) The Annuity in respect of land acquired during the preceding calendar year would become due for payment during the month of January of the following year. The landowner would be required to submit his Annuity claim in the prescribed form, (Application Form-2) along with the supporting documents, within a period of six months of the announcement of the Award. The acquiring departments shall be responsible for processing and compilation of the database of all such valid claimants within a period of further six months. The Annuity amount would be paid through Bank transfers.

5. Allotment of residential plots in cases where a self-Occupied residential house is acquired for unavoidable reasons:

- i) Recognising the sensitivity involved in acquisition of built-up residential houses/ structures for unavoidable reasons, the Government has decided to accord the highest priority to the resettlement of this category of persons. In the first instance, all efforts will be made by the acquiring departments to leave out the residential structures existing in the form of clusters from acquisition except where it becomes absolutely unavoidable either due to its stand-alone character or its location being within the Right of Way of infrastructure projects such as roads, canals, railway line etc.;
- ii) Accordingly, it has been decided that wherever any self-occupied residential structure/ house has to be acquired for unavoidable reasons in the process of acquisition of land by the Government for any purpose, such owners of built-up residential structures would be offered assured allotment of residential plots as per the following scale:

Scale of residential plots in cases where an existing self-occupied house/ residential structure is acquired

Scale of residential plots in cases where an existing self-occupied house/ residential structure is acquired

Scheme applicable up to 06.09.2010		Scheme revised w.e.f. 07.09.2010
Size of the residential house acquired	Size of Residential Plot to be allotted	Size of the residential house acquired	Size of Residential plot to be allotted
Up to 100 sq. yards	50 sq. yards	Up to 150 sq.yards	90sqm.
Above 100 but up to 200 sq. yards	100 sq.yards	Above 150 but up to 200 sq yards	150 sqm
Above 200 and up to 300 sq. yards	150 sq.yards	Above 200 and up to 250 sq. yards	200 sqm
Above 300 up to 400 sq. yards	200 sq.yards	Above 300 up to 400 sq. yards	300 sqm

- iii) As the affected persons would be entitled to compensation on account of acquisition of land and the structures constructed thereon, the price/ cost of the plots to be allotted in favour of the affected persons as per above scale would be payable by the allottee;
- iv) The benefit of allotment of a residential plot in this category would be admissible only if the acquired residential house/structure was self-occupied and was in existence on the date of issue of Section 4 Notification, and further subject to the condition that such residential house had not been constructed by way of any encroachment on the public/ community/government land. The self-occupation of such house by the landowner's family as their regular residence would be an essential condition for this purpose. Residential structures used for rental purposes or those in the form of kothras in the fields would not be reckoned as 'residential houses' for this purpose;
- v) While assessing the entitlement for size of the plot to be allotted, the land under the existing residential house only would be taken into account and not the appurtenant facilities for other farm operations. Further, while computing the area areas towards admissible open space shall be taken into account. Appendix-4 under such Residential house, the plinth area of the constructed house and equal area may be referred for the basis of calculation of areas;
- vi) Development and allotment of the residential plots under this part would be the responsibility of the acquiring Department/agency. Such plots to the extent, possible, would be carved out in the area adjoining/ in close vicinity of the village abdi deh so that the displaced/ rehabilitated persons continue to remain a part of their social milieu. While HUDA, HSIIDC, and the HSAMB would plan their residential blocks for this part as well as for the 'Oustee' category as one cluster, the other acquiring departments would have to acquire additional land specifically for this purpose also;

vii) The rates of plots allotted under this category by HUDA and the HSIIDC shall be 20 % lesser than the nodal price of the plot determined for the general public. In all other cases, the rates of plots would be determined by the allotting agency based on the actual costs taking into account (a) the cost of acquisition of land, (b) costs incurred on provision of minimum amenities/ services, and (c) loading of areas under roads/ streets/ services and utilities on to the plotted area.

viii) The affected landowner would be required to submit his claim in the prescribed Application Form- 4.

6. Categories of Land Acquisition Cases:

It has been observed that the Government acquires land for various infrastructure projects, which could be broadly clubbed under the following two categories:

- i) Projects where the urban/ Industrial/ agriculture marketing infrastructure is developed in the form of large clusters by the state agencies i.e. the HUDA, the HSIIDE, and the HSAMB, for which comparatively large mass of land is acquired for development of planned infrastructure;
- ii) Projects where the land is either acquired in smaller pockets (e.g. water works and STPs of the Public Health Engineering Departments or the Power Sub-stations set-up by the power utilities) or where the land is acquired in a linear/ strip form for construction of roads and canals etc.

Whereas it has been found feasible to grant certain benefits in respect of the cluster development projects, the same has not been found feasible in the second category cases.

7. Benefits for the affected persons whose land is acquired for HUDA, HSIDC and the HSAMB:

Recognising that the Government is expected to address the concerns of all sections of landowners to the extent possible, it has been decided to follow a two- pronged strategy in this behalf. Accordingly, it has been decided to grant the following benefits to the landowners whose land is acquired for HUDA, HSIIDC, and the HSAMB:

- i) Reservation and allotment of residential plots for the land oustees, and
- ii) Provision for allotment of commercial booth-sites/ Industrial plots to the landowner in whose case 75% or more of his land in a revenue estate, subject to a minimum of one acre, is acquired.

8. Allotment of ‘oustees-category’ residential plots in cases of land acquisition for development of infrastructure HUDA, HSIIDC, and the HSAMB.

Where the land is acquired for development of planned urban infrastructure by HUDA, or development of planned industrial infrastructure by the HSIIDC, or marketing infrastructure by the HSAMB, developed residential plots will be reserved for assured allotment to the land oustees as per the following scale:

Allotment of in cases where only land is acquired (oustees Quota plots)
Scheme applicable up to 06.09.2010		Scheme Revised w.e.f. 07.09.2010
Land/Area acquired	Size of residential plot to be allotted	Land/Area acquired	Size of residential plot to be allotted
100 to 500 sq.yards	3 marla	100 to 500 sq.yards	90 sq. mtrs.
501 to 1000 sq. yards	4 marla	501 to 1000sq.yards	150 sqms.
1001 sq yards to ½ acre	6 marla	1001 sq. yards to ½ acre	200 sqms.
Above ½ acre to ¾ acre	8 marla	Above ½ acre to ¾ acre	300 sqms.
One acre and above	14 marla	above one acre	450 sqms.

- ii) The rates of residential plots reserved for allotment to the land oustee in both the above categories, as per the scale prescribed, would be 20% lesser than the nodal price applicable for the general public at the time of first floatation in the case of HUDA and HSIDC, in all other cases the rates of plots would be determined by the acquiring departments/ organisations based on the actual costs taking into account (a) the cost of acquisition of land, (b) costs incurred on provision of minimum amenities/ services, and (c) loading of the areas under roads/streets/ services and utilities on to the plotted area;
- iii) Each of co-sharers, depending upon his share in the land acquired as per the entries in the revenue records at the time of issue of Section 4 Notification, would be entitled to the allotment of a plot under the ‘oustee category’. The co-sharers would be limited to the persons mentioned in the revenue records on the date of Section 4 Notification. Wherever any such landowner/co-sharer dies during the intervening period of Section 4 Notification and the Award, the natural successors will be treated as one single unit;
- iv) As regards the co-sharers, it may be clarified that the entitlement for size of the plot would be determined based on the share of each of the co-sharers as on the date of Section 4 Notification. Further, under no circumstances, the total land under the plots allotted to the co-sharers put together would exceed 50% of the total acquired land of such co-sharers. An illustrative list of the entitlements is enclosed with this policy as Appendix-2.
- v) In case where the land of a landowner is acquired in phases, and he becomes entitled to a bigger size of the plot due to subsequent acquisition, he would be entitled to additional area as per his revised entitlement. In such cases either (a) the plot allotted as per the original entitlement may be upgraded as per his entitlement, or (b) in case he has already utilised/ transferred the earlier allotted plot, he may be allotted an additional plot as per his entitlement on account of the net additional area
- vi) In case a landowner or co-sharer avails of a plot under Para(5), he will not be entitled to a second plot in the ‘oustee category’ under para 8. Such a person, however, will have the option to either apply for allotment of a plot under para 5 or para 8 of this Policy. The landowner interested in availing this benefit would be required to submit his application in the prescribed Application Form-5.
- vii) No litigation should be pending in respect of the acquired land, except a reference under Section 18 of the Act, in order to be eligible for allotment of an ‘oustee category’ plot under the Scheme.
- viii) The acquiring department/ development agency will earmark a separate chunk of land, preferably close to the village in close vicinity of the Toshi Abadi, for carving out ‘oustee category plots’ for the landowners as stated under para 5(vi) above. The allotment of ‘oustee category’ plots will precede the allotment of General Category’ plots.

9. Allotment of Commercial/Industrial Sites:

- i) Where 75% of the land-holding of a landowner/co-sharer in a revenue estate, measuring one acre or above, is acquired by the Government for HUDA, HSIDC, and the HSAMB, thereby substantially impacting his means of sustenance, developed commercial/Industrial sites would be reserved and allotted to such land oustee as per the following criterion;

1.	Commercial sites measuring 3 mtrx4 mtr. (12 sq.mtr.)	To be allotted by HUDA/HSIIDC/HSAMB at the Reserve Price, which will be no more than 3 times of the price of residential plot in that area/sector.
2.	Industrial plot measuring 450 sq mtrs. in the case of HSIIDC	A landowner oustee eligible under this category will have the option in the case of HSIDC to opt for the Commercial site or an industrial plot. The rate for the Industrial Plot will be 20 % lesser than the rate determined for the general public at the time of first floatation.

- ii) The allotment of commercial sites/ industrial plots would be made to each co-sharer provided his share in the acquired land is one acre or more, otherwise all the co-sharers will be allotted a sit(s) as per entitlement. In case the total acquired land of all the co-sharers put together is less than one acre, they would not be entitled to this facility. Illustrations given in Appendix-2 may be referred for any clarity;
- iii) The commercial/ Industrial sites would be reserved and allotted in addition to the residential plots for the land-oustee in these categories. The affected landowner would be required to submit his application in the prescribed Application Form-6.

10. Special dispensation by the Town & Country Planning Department:

The Town & Country Planning Department will make appropriate provisions in their rules / regulations so as to allow additional component of residential and commercial use in the Estate/Sector to the extent of the area earmarked for the plots/sites carved out for the purpose of R & R Policy.

11. Benefits for the affected persons whose land is acquired for infrastructure projects other than those of HUDA, HSIIDC, and the HSAMB:

- i) While provision has been made for allotment of ‘oustee category plots’ in case of land acquired for development by HUDA, HSIIDC, and the HSAMB and for allotment of commercial sites/ industrial plots in case of those landowners whose 75 % land gets acquired (subject to a minimum of one acre) for these organisations, extension of these additional benefits in case of the landowners whose land is acquired for public purposes other than these organisations, has not been found feasible. To that extent, it is also fortuitous.
- ii) In order to balance this situation and partially compensate the landowners in this category , it has been decided that wherever 75 % or more land of a landowner in a revenue estate, subject to a minimum of two acres, is acquired for other infrastructure projects, and thereby impacting his sustenance to a considerable extent, one dependent of the land-owing family would be provided a job in the Government or its Boards/Corporations/ State PSUs in Group ‘D’ and Group ‘C’ categories, subject to the incumbent fulfilling the qualifications prescribed for such posts;
- iii) Recognising that certain persons may indulge in large scale division of their holdings to acquire title to government jobs in this process, the entitlement of dependants would be based on the revenue records of four years prior to the date of issue of Notification under Section 4 of the Land Acquisition Act or a corresponding provision in other statutes;

The affected landowner would be required to file his claim-application in the prescribed Application Forms-7 and 8.

- iv) While processing applications for this purpose, the applicant would first be considered for grant of a job in the Project for which the acquired land ‘is used. In case of non-availability of adequate number of suitable jobs in the Project, the claim would be considered against vacancies available in the said department or its PSUs, failing which, the claim would be considered for employment in other department/organisation of the Government;
- v) In cases necessitating consideration of the applications for employment in the other Government Departments, the application receiving Department would forward such applications to the Financial Commissioner, Revenue & Disaster Management Department, along with a certificate that there are no vacancies in the Project/ Department/ its PSUs so as to accommodate the applicants elsewhere. The office of FCR would compile all such applications and pass these on to the office of Chief Secretary for appropriate action. Thereafter, the office of Chief Secretary would complete the process of employment;
- vi) While the landowner are expected to submit their claim-applications for jobs within a period of six months of the announcement of the Award, there may be some isolated cases where the dependent may be a minor or decide to take-up employment only after completion of his/her studies. The erstwhile landowners would be allowed to defer their actual employment in such cases up to a period of 5 years from the date of Award. In such cases, the claim of the erstwhile landowner applicant would be processed and a letter of entitlement would be issued by the concerned Department.

12. Electricity Connection under agriculture category

Wherever the landowner has installed one or more tube-wells with an electricity connection sanctioned on agricultural tariff, and portion of the land whereupon such tube-well is installed is acquired, he would be entitled to alternate tube-well connection(s) in this category either in this un-acquired land or over the agricultural land that he may purchase elsewhere in the state within a period of two years of the Award. The alternate connection would be provided within a period of three months of his application to this effect.

13. Exemption from Stamp Duty & Registration Charges of purchase of alternate agricultural land

In case a landowner, whose land is acquired, purchases alternate agricultural land within the State of Haryana within a period of two years of the Award, such purchase of land, limited to the amount of compensation, would be exempt from payment of Stamp Duty and Registration charges. The Revenue & Disaster Management Department would separately issue necessary orders/ notification to this effect.

14. Scheme for the landless persons and artisans dependent upon agricultural operations over the acquired land:

- i) There is another category of landless people in the rural set-up who have traditionally been associated with the land-owning families. These comprise of the landless workers engaged in the agricultural operations for generations (under the jajmani custom) and the rural artisans e.g. the blacksmiths, the carpenters, the potters, the masons, the barbers etc. which together constitute the village society. It is a well recognised fact that there is an association between landowners and the families of landless persons (in above categories) for generations and such association is well known in the village set-up. The Government is fully conscious of the adverse impact caused by acquisition of land for non-agriculture purposes on these dependant categories of people. It has, therefore, been decided to lay a special focus on the creation and up-gradation of skill-sets of these people/ their dependents so as to improve their employability in the organised sector.
- ii) The Government has decided to take the following measures for the rehabilitation/ resettlement of these affected persons;
 - a) The Government would impart free technical education to the dependents of these categories of people in the Government run industrial Training Institutes and Polytechnics;
 - b) HSIIDC, HUDA and the HSAMB would set apart a fund equal to 1 % of the compensation amount for creating adequate skill-sets among the dependents of land oustees and the affected landless persons;
 - c) HSIIDC would stipulate a condition for the allottees of industrial plots to give preference to these people in employment in their industrial projects;
 - d) Wherever land is acquired for the Private Developers, they would be required to make arrangements for creation and up-gradation of the skill-sets of the affected persons and preference in employment of the affected persons/ their dependants in the projects set-up over such land.

15. Admissibility of benefits under the R & R Policy – exclusion of entrants after issue of Section 4 Notification:

It takes anywhere between 3 to 6 months before a Notification under Section 4 is issued for acquisition of land as the acquiring departments/ agencies start the process of ground survey in advance. As such, it becomes known in the area that the Government is in the process of acquiring land in a specific locality. The Government is also conscious that certain unscrupulous persons may, with the intention of availing un-earned and undeserved benefits of this Policy, which are meant for the landowning farmers, purchase the land (i) after it is known in the area that the land is proposed to be acquired by the Government, or (ii) even after issue of Section 4 Notification under the Act. In order to take care of any such misadventures, it has been decided that the benefits under this policy, including the Scheme of Annuity, would be admissible only for such of the landowners who own the title of land at least three months prior to the date of issue of Section 4 Notification or acquire the title by way of natural inheritance. Any person becoming an interested party or acquiring interest in the land through sale/purchase of the subject land within three months prior to the date of issue of Notification under Section 4 of the Act, save by way of natural inheritance, shall not be entitled to any of these benefits, including the payment of Annuity.

16. Information to the Landowners and implementation of the Scheme

While a copy of this policy would be available on the web-sites of the Departments of (i) Revenue & Disaster Management, (ii) Town & Country Planning Department, (iii) Industries & Commerce, (iv) HUDA, and (v) HSIIDC for the information of general public, the Land Acquisition Collector may, in addition, also inform the landowners about their entitlements under the R & R policy along with the notices under Section 9 of the Act as per Appendix-3. However, non-communication of the same by the LAC would not in any manner vitiate any such proceedings by him. Further action in respect of each of the benefits would be taken as follows:

- i) The landowners, opting to accept the amount of compensation and avail of the 'No Litigation Incentive' would normally be required to make an application to the LAC within a period of 30 days of the announcement of Award and furnish an undertaking to that effect in the prescribed format (Application Form-1). A claim for the 'No Litigation Incentive' could also be entertained if filed after 30 days provided the landowner has not filed a reference under Section 18 qua the compensation amount, or if filed, undertakes to withdraw the same before receipt of the Incentive amount. However, no such claim would be entertained after a period of six months of the announcement of the Award. It may be noted that once the landowners agree to avail of the said incentive, they would not be entitled to seek a reference under Section 18 of the Act for enhanced compensation and to that extent the Award would be deemed to have announced under Section 11 (2) of the Act. No references under Section 18 of the Act qua the amount of compensation would be competent in these cases;
- ii) As for the allotment of residential plots/ commercial sites/ industrial plots, the landowners would be required to submit their claim- applications in the prescribed formats (Application Forms- 4/5/6) to the acquiring departments/ agencies within a period of six months of the date of announcement of Award along with the requisite details and supporting documents. No claims on this account would be entertained after the expiry of six month period;
- iii) Wherever a landowner is entitled to employment/government job under para 11 of this Policy, he would submit his claim-application in the prescribed format (Application Form-7) to the acquiring department within a period of six months of the announcement of Award, along with the supporting documents, and the concerned Government Department/organisation would process his claim within a further period of six months. On finding the claim valid, a letter of entitlement would be issued in favour of the applicant and the Government would provide a job to such valid claimant within the shortest possible time.
- iv) As regarding the payment of Annuity/ payment of commuted value of the Annuity, the landowner would submit his claim application in the prescribed format (Application Form-2/3) to the designated officer of the Acquiring Department along with all the supporting documents/ verification, whereupon, the Acquiring Department would process the same within a period of next six months and ensure commencement of payment of the Annuity at the earliest;

- v) The acquiring departments/ agencies shall process such claims and issue a certificate of entitlement (Appendix-5) in favour of the eligible beneficiary within a period of further six months of the last date of receipt of claim-application. In matters of allotment of residential/ commercial/ industrial plots, the allotments under the R & R policy would precede the general allotments.

17. Investment Advisory Services

It has been observed that the landowners are invariably unable to make proper investment of the amount received as one-time compensation due to lack of their education and exposure, and familiarity with various investment opinions. As a result, they end-up exhausting these resources in meeting their consumption needs which has an adverse bearing on their long-term sustenance. In order to fill this knowledge gap, the Government would arrange for engagement of professional agencies to advise the landowners on various investment options of the compensation amount so as to enable them to utilise the resources in a prudent and productive manner. These services would be purely advisory in nature and it is ultimately for the landowners to decide their own investment options. The professional agencies engaged by the Government for this purpose would hold 2-3 days camps at sites at the time announcement of Award by the land Acquisition Collector.

18. Social & Community infrastructure facilities:

- i) Wherever land is acquired by the Government for development by HUDA, HSIIDC, and HSAMB, an amount equal to 2% of the Compensation Amount will be set apart by the respective organisations for creation of community development/ infrastructure works in the respective villages.

Further, area in the close vicinity of the village will be set apart not only for rehabilitation, but also for necessary village level social infrastructure. The land required for social infrastructure could either be exchanged with the land of village Panchayat or the land acquired in continuity of the village can be transferred to village Panchayat together with the infrastructure developed thereon for its day to day management.

- ii) Similarly 1% of the Compensation amount will be set apart and expended on skill development initiatives for the dependents of oustees and other landless persons dependent on agriculture operations over the acquired land.

19. Acquisition of Land for Railways/ NHAI/ other Central Government Ministries/ Central PSUs:

- i) This policy shall also be applicable for any land acquisition for the Central Government (including the Ministry of Defence)/ its PSUs,/ the NHAI/ Railways in the state of Haryana and an undertaking to this effect would be obtained in advance from such indenting agencies before initiation any land acquisition proceedings. The amount of Annuity Policy will be charged upfront from such agencies in addition to the compensation paid to the landowners;
- ii) In addition to the above, wherever land is acquired for any of the Central Government Ministries/their PSUs/ NHAI/Railways by the State Government machinery, administrative charges @ Rs.1.00 lakh/acre, as revised from time to time, would be charged from the concerned towards the administrative expenses involved in the entire exercise, inclusive of the expenses incurred on publication of the Notifications in the media/newspapers.

20. Capital Gains Tax on Land Acquisition- a reference to the Gol

Capital Gains Tax is payable on the compensation amount paid in respect of land acquired within 8 kms of the Municipal Limits with 1981 as the base year for arriving at the Capital gains. The interest component in any case attracts the CG Tax. Since taxation is a Central Government subject, the State Government has decided to make a reference to the Ministry of Finance, Government of India, for exemption of the Compensation amount for the land acquired under the Statute from the purview of Capital Gains Tax where the land is Dadalahi (i.e. acquired by the grandparents) or owned by a person in his own name or in his father's/ mother's name for a period of 10 years or more.

21 Nodal Department

The Revenue & Disaster Management Department would be the nodal department of the State for the implementation, interpretation, review and monitoring of this R & R Policy of the State.

22. Grievances/ Dispute Resolution Mechanism

Though every effort has been made to introduce clarity in respect of all the features and the process of implementation of this Policy, the possibility of some grievances/ disputes arising in the course of implementation of the policy cannot be ruled out. The Government has decided to establish an institutional mechanism to address all such grievances/dispute with a view to settlement of such grievances and minimising any litigation on this account. A separate Notification would be issued shortly in this behalf.

(Land Acquisition Collector,____)

METHOD OF CALCULATION OF THE AREA UNDER A SELF-OCCUPIED RESIDENTIAL HOUSE

(REFERENCE PARA 5 (V) OF THE POLICY)

1. As per the practice followed by the Urban Estates Departments and the Industries, efforts are made to exclude the self-occupied residential houses, especially the clusters, from acquisition, subject to the feasibility thereof. Some of these exclusions take place pursuant to the settlement of objections filed under Section 5-A of the Act. Normally, the area under the house is released as such. Wherever the adjoining open space is much larger than the built-up area, open area equal to the plinth area is taken into consideration while releasing the land in respect of built-up houses. For instance, there could be following scenarios:

Sr. No	Plinth Area of the house	Abutting Open Area	Total Area	Area considered for release
1.	200 sq. yards	150 sq. yards	350 sq. yards	350 sq. yards
2.	200 sq. yards	300 sq. yards	500 sq. yards	400 sq. yards (200+200)
3.	200 sq. yards	500 sq. yards	700 sq. yards	400 sq. yards

2. Following the above principle, it has been decided that while considering the area under a built-up house for the purposes of allotment of a plot under Para 5 (v) of the policy, the actual area under the built-up portion (i.e. the Plinth Area) + equal open area will be taken into account.
3. Accordingly, the entitlements would be worked out as per the following illustrations:

Sr. No	Plinth Area of the House	Abutting open Area	Total area	Area to be reckoned for determining the entitlement	Plot Area to be allotted
1.	50 sq. yards	30 sq. yards	80 sq. yards	First block (i.e. up to 150 sq. yards)	90 sq. mtrs
2.	90 sq. yards	70 sq. yards	160 sq. yards	160 sq. yards (i.e. above 150 but up to 200 sq. yards)	150 sq. mtrs.
3.	90 sq. yards	200 sq. yards	290 sq. yards	90+90 = 180 sq. yards (i.e. Above 150 but up to 200 sq. yards)	150 sq mtrs.
4.	150 sq. yards	120 sq. yards	270 sq. yards	270 sq. yards (i.e. 250 to 300 sq. yards)	250 sq. mtrs.
5.	200 sq. yards	300 sq. yards	500 sq. yards	200+200= 400 sq. yards (i.e. above 300 up to 400 sq. yards)	300 sq mtrs.
6.	250 sq. yards	225 sq. yards	475 sq. yards	475 sq. yards (i.e. above 400 up to 500 sq. yards)	350 sq. mtrs.
7.	300 sq. yards	225 sq. yards	525 sq. yards	525 sq. yards (i.e. above 500 sq. yards)	450 sq. mtrs.
8.	300 sq. yards	300 sq. yards	600 sq. yards	600 sq. yards (i.e. above 500 sq. yards)	450 sq. mtrs.

MEMORANDUM

Minister – in Charge
Administrative Secretary

Chief Minister, Haryana.
Financial Commissioner & Principal Secretary to Govt.,
Haryana Urban Estates Departement

Subject: -Regarding Oustees Policy for land owners whose land has been acquired for Rajiv Gandhi Education City, Sonapat.

- 1 Land measuring 2007 .60 acres has been acquired for setting up of Rajiv Gandhi Education City, Sonipat by the Department of Urban Estates on 02.03.2006 from the area belonging to villages Badhkhalsa, Sewli, Patla, Jakhoully, Ferozpurkhadar, Assawarpur, Khewra , Bahalgarh, Badhmalik in District Sonipat. The land of these villages is very fertile and falls in the Basin of Yamuna River. The water level is comfortable and quality of the same is suitable for growing crops particularly variety of cash crops. The newly introduced commercial vegetable crops like sweet corn, baby corn, broccoli and other short period crops and other supporting professions like growing of mushrooms/fisheries/dairy farming etc are also important in this area. The acquisition of the land for Rajiv Gandhi Education City, Sonipat has deprived the land owners of the above benefits. The land owners of the above mentioned villages represented for a special scheme for allotment of plot under Oustees Quota.

Sr.No	Area of the Land Acquired under Education City	Size of the Plot to be Allotted to the Oustees
1	Above 1,000 square yards and less than one acre	100 square yards
2	Above one acre to 5 acre	500 square yards
3	Above 5 acres	Two Plots of 500 square yards.

2. A decision was taken in the meeting held under the chairmanship of Hon'ble Chief Minister, Haryana on 18th November , 2006 Annexure –I) that a separate policy be formulated for allotting plots to all the Oustees whose land has been acquired for Rajiv Gandhi Education City, Sonipat. It was mooted in the meeting that following sizes of the plots may be considered for allotment to the Oustees under the policy to be formulated as mentioned above.
3. While the matter was being considered and examined by the Haryana Urban Development Authority as mentioned above a new policy, namely, "Rehabilitation and Resettlement of Land Owners-Land Acquisition Oustees Policy on the subject was notified by the Revenue & Disaster Management Department, Govt. of Haryana on 7th December , 2007, Eventually, the ibid policy was adopted in HUDA also. The above policy envisages for the allotment of plots of different sizes to each of the co sharers depending upon his share in the land holding as well as one commercial booth to all the co –sharers plus annuity @ Rs .15,000/- per acre per annum for a period of 33 years over and above the usual land compensation. The annual annuity will be increased by a fixed sum of Rs .500/ per acre every year. A copy of the said policy of 2007 is annexed as annexure –II.
4. In view of the changed senario as mentioned in para3 above, it was pointed out that if a different criteria was adopted in case of Oustees of Rajiv Gandhi Education City as decided in the meeting held on 18th November, 2006 referred to above, it would give rise to multiple litigations since other Oustees from the rest of the State might complain of discrimination .Hence, the matter was re – examined. It has now been decided that the land owners affected by the Rajiv Gandhi Education City Project may be given the freedom to opt either for the general rehabilitation policy, namely, 'Rehabilitation and Resettlement of Land Owners –Land Acquisition Oustees Policy 'mentioned above or opt for relief specifically decided for Oustees of Rajeev Gandhi Education City as mentioned in para 2 above Hence, in pursuance of the above decision, the Administrator, HUDA, Rohtak was asked vide memo no. 29485 dated 18th August, 2008 to serve individual notices to all the Oustees of Rajiv Gandhi Education City for giving their option in writing.

5. The Estate Officer, HUDA Sonipat vide his report dated 16th October, 2008 has intimated that about 778 applicants have submitted their applications for allotment of plots under oustees quota. Out of these, 679 applicants have opted for allotment of plot under special scheme framed for oustees of Rajiv Gandhi Education City, Sonipat and only 99 applicants have opted for allotment of land under “ Rehabilitation and Resettlement of Land Owners –Land Acquisition Ousteas Policy”.
6. The “ Rehabilitation and Resettlement of Land Owner – Land Acquisition Ousteas Policy ‘was notified by the Revenue and Disaster Management Department , Government of Haryana with the prior approval of the council of Ministers . Hence , the matter requires approval of the Council of Ministers since a deviation from the policy notified by the Government on 7th December, 2007, is being made in the case of Ousteas of Rajiv Gandhi Education City.
7. The matter is , therefore, placed before the Council of Ministers as required under item no 15 of Schedule appended to the Rules of Business of Government of Haryana , 1977 for consideration and approval of the decision , as mentioned in para 4 above.

Approval of Chief Minister has been obtained for placing the matter before the Council of Ministers Chandigarh.

Dated 25.08.2006

Subject : Allotment of residential plots/sites to the oustees in the various Urban Estates set up by HUDA Clarification thereof.

This is in continuation of this office Memo. No.A-2-92/2076 dated 18.03.1992 & A-11P-93/7996-8013 dated 12.03.1993 on the subject cited as above.

Clause (i) of the policy for allotment of plots to oustees issued vide Memo. No.A-2/92/2076 dated 18.03.1992 reads as follows.

“Plots to the oustees would be offered if the land proposed to be acquired is under the ownership of the oustees prior to the publication of the notification under sector 4 of the Land Acquisition Act and if 75% or more of the total land owned by the land-owners in that sector is acquired.”

A clarification was sought regarding kind of land owned by an oustee to be counted for calculation of percentage of land acquired.

In this regard it is clarified that since the shares of land with in Lal Dora are not established through revenue record, therefore, we may interpret 75% land within the sector except land falling within Lal Dora for the purposes of determining claim under oustees policy.

The above clarification may be brought to the notice of all concerned.

- Memo. No.A-1(P)-2002/16931-16952 Dated 10.07.2002

Subject: Allotment of residential plots – Clarification of left out plots.

As per existing procedure oustees claims for allotment of residential plots are invited at the time of floatation of the Sector/balance left out plots. Sometimes against the left out plots. In such cases, first preference in the allotment is given to the oustees and no plot of general category remains available. Therefore, it has been decided that in case of left out plots, the oustees claims should be invited first by the concerned Estate Officers and after reserving the equal number of plots for the oustees, the remaining plots should be advertised for General category etc. In case of floatation of full sectors, it has been decided that while advertising for new plots, oustees should specifically be requested to apply and take benefit of oustees claim and it should also be mentioned in the advertisement that after adjusting the oustees claim, the balance plots would be available for allotment as per reservation policy. Some time less number of applications are received against the reserved category as compared to the number of available plots, therefore, it has been decided that the remaining plots in respective category may once again be advertised for the same categories and if still some plots are left then the same should be converted into general category. The matter was placed before the Authority in its 85th meeting held on 26.06.2002 for consideration and decision vide agenda item No.A-85(11) and the same has been approved by the Authority. This amendments/provisions shall be made applicable prospectively.

Memo No.A-11P-98/24402-22

Dated: 28.08.1998.

Subject: Allotment of plots to the oustees in the various Urban Estates set up by HUDA-amendment thereof – to enlarge scope.

This is in continuation of memo No.A-2-02/2078 dated 18.3.92 and No.A-11P-93/7996-8013 dated 12.3.93.

The present policy on the subject, in force envisages that the allotment of residential/commercial plots under oustee policy shall be restricted to the allotments within the Sector for which the land has been acquired. This stipulation of the policy has been creating a practical problem at the implementation stage, Sometimes, the acquired land belonging to the land owners/oustees is developed by HUDA for the purposes other than for residential/commercial like recreational Sector, institutional zones, group housing societies and industrial purposes etc. etc. Then the land owners/oustees of the particular Sector are totally out of the purview of the policy and the land owners are not entitled for allotment of residential plot in lieu of their acquired land.

After careful consideration, the Authority in its 74th meeting held on 20.8.98, vide agenda item No.A-74(7) in partial modification of the policy on the subject in force have decided that “if the plot under the oustees policy cannot be offered to the oustees in the same Sector then they should be offered residential/commercial plots in the next residential Sector of that Urban Estate, which may be floated and developed by HUDA”. This amendment/provisions will be made applicable prospectively. All other terms and condition, shall however remain the same.

These instructions may be brought to the notice of all concerned.

Dated 9.5.1990

Subject : Allotment of residential plots/ commercial sites to the oustees in the various Urban Estates set up by HUDA – revised policy.

Sir,

I am directed to address you on the above subject and to say that on scrutiny of the instructions issued vide this office Memo. No.A-11-87/29034-44 dated 10.9.87, these appears to be an ambiguity in the instructions of the Authority to give a plot in lieu of oustees land acquired on certain conditions. In order to remove these ambiguities, the Authority has amended the decision taken on 14.8.1987 as under :-

1. Plots to the oustees may be offered if the land proposed to be acquired is under the ownership of oustees for a continuous period of 5 years before the publication of notification under section 4 of the land Acquisition Act and if 75% of the total land owned by the Land Owners in that Urban Estates is acquired.
2. Ousteers whose land acquired is :
 - a. Less than 500 sq.yds. should be offered 40 sq.yds.plots.
 - b. Between 500 sq.yd. and one acre should be offered a plot of 250 sq.yds.
 - c. More than one acre should be offered a plot of 350 sq.yd.
3. In case there are a number of co-sharers for the land acquired such co-sharers be accommodated by offering one plot each of 250 sq.yd. subject to the condition that the land acquired is at least one acre. In case acquired land of the co-sharer is more than one acre then only one plot of 250 sq.yd. may be allotted in the joint name of co-sharers.
4. Such plots should be offered to the oustees only if he does not own any house/shops/plot in any of the Urban Estates of that town.
5. The persons whose house or part of land has been released from acquisition shall not be considered under this category for allotment of such plots.
6. Allotment of plots to the oustees will be made at the normal sector rate of HUDA.

As regards allotment of commercial sites to the oustees the matter is under re-examination and the decision as and when arrived at would be communicated. Claims of the oustees shall be invited before the sector is floated for sale.

These instructions may be brought to the notice of all concerned.

Memo No.:A-11-87/29034-44

Dated: 10.9.1987

Subject : Allotment of residential plots/ commercial sites to the oustees in the various Urban Estates set up by HUDA – Introduction of Ousteas policy.

Sir,

I am directed to address you on the subject cited above and to inform you that formulation of policy for allotment of plots to the oustees has been engaging attention of HUDA since long. Thus after due consideration the Haryana Urban Development Authority have decided that the plots to the oustees will only be offered if they were owners of land proposed to be acquired for one year before the issue of notification U/S 4 of the Land Acquisition Act of 1984 and the plots will be made available only if 75% of the total land owned by the land owners is acquired. The plots will be allotted to such persons as under :-

1. Among others, those who own lands upto 500 sq.yds. should be offered a plot of 100 sq.yds. those who own land more than 500 sq.yds. to one acre should be offered plot of 250 sq.yds. & owners of larger lands should be offered plots of 350 sq.yds.
2. If there are a number of owners for particular land efforts should be made to accommodate them subject to the limit of one plot of 250 sq.yds. for every acre of land acquired. Such plot should be offered to the person when he files an affidavit to the effect that he does not hold any house/shop or plot in that town. This condition will be in conformity with the decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Pista Devi's case.

The land owners will be given compensation for their land which is acquired while they will have to pay for these plots at the normal allotment rate of Haryana Urban Development Authority. Those, whose constructed Houses are released will pay Development cost for their portion of land.

The persons whose part of the land or some houses have been released from the acquisition and the remaining land acquired, should not be considered in the category of oustees for allotment of plots under this category.

The Hon'ble Supreme Court has also decided in a number of cases that land should be allotted for a house/shop to all those persons whose land has been acquired. Legally, it becomes the responsibility of Haryana Urban Development Authority to allot/reserve some commercial sites for oustees. The commercial sites/buildings are sold by auction and under these circumstances such sites/buildings could be considered for allotment of oustees on reserve price as and when the auction for the same is held. As and when these sites/buildings are put to auction the oustees who want to purchase the sites/buildings could represent fore-hand for allotment so that requisite number could be reserved for them.

These instructions may be brought to the notice of all concerned.

Introduction

1. The Enterprises Promotion Policy-2015 (EPP-2015) announced by the State Government vide notification No. 49/43/2015-41B1 dated 14.08.2015, provides that the Haryana Urban Development Authority (HUDA) would announce its liberalized Estate Management Procedure in line with the economic environment and aspirations of the industry and notify its Estate Management Procedure to be known as HUDA EMP-2016 which would address the parameters for allotment, reservation and priority in allotment of industrial plots and other related matters concerned with management of industrial estates.
2. In line with the policy decision of the State Government in this behalf, HUDA has reviewed the existing Estate Management Procedures and the revised guidelines shall come into operation from the date of issue and are hereafter referred to as “HUDA Estate Management Procedures (HUDA EMP)-2016”.

Applicability

3. The provisions of HUDA EMP-2016 shall be applicable to all the existing as well as future allottees of industrial plots/sheds in various Industrial Estates / Sectors developed by HUDA, Haryana, transferred to HUDA and shall be uniformly applicable from the date of issue.

All service requests to be received after implementation of HUDA EMP-2016, shall be dealt as per the provisions of HUDA EMP-2016, including charging of fee/processing fee, wherever applicable. As regards the pending applications, received before coming into force of HUDA EMP-2016, the same shall be considered to have been filed on issue of HUDA EMP-2016 i.e. the date of implementation of HUDA EMP-2016 and shall be dealt under the relevant provisions of HUDA EMP-2016. However, in all cases, the minimum investment criteria for prestigious projects shall be as applicable at the time of allotment. Notwithstanding anything contained in these procedures, all cases decided in the past as per earlier Estate Management Procedures (EMPs)/Policies, shall, however, not be re-opened.

Chapter 1

Development of Industrial Infrastructure and the Estates/Parks

- 1.1 The process of development of Industrial Infrastructure necessarily involves acquisition of land, planning, execution of basic amenities e.g. metalled roads, wholesome water, sewerage and electrification. This is followed by provision of facilities such as the STP/CETP, development of plantation/green belts, commercial and institutional sites, common parking facilities, etc.
- 1.2 The scope and scale of amenities so provided may vary across the industrial estates depending upon the size of the estate and may not be uniform in all the Industrial Estates. The effort always remains to develop the basic infrastructure facilities in an industrial estate before initiating the process of allotment of industrial plots. However, there could be exceptions in strict adherence to this approach. These exceptional circumstances could arise from a number of factors such as:
 - i) HUDA may not be in undisputed possession of certain parcels of land on account of litigation which impede the completion of works at certain places;
 - ii) There is overwhelming demand for plots pressing for early allotment and the State may lose out on the potential projects/ investment, if allotments are not made on immediate basis;
 - iii) Certain applicants are in urgent/ immediate need of land and are in a position to start work on their projects without waiting for completion of these facilities.
- 1.3 Further, there could also be a plan for phased development of the infrastructure facilities. For instance, it has been observed that the WBM roads provide unhindered access to the plots for carriage of construction material whereas the tar-felt roads get damaged during the spurt of construction activities. In addition to the problems associated with settlement of roads in the initial stages (at least one rainy season), frequent road cuts necessitated for cross-connections for water supply and sewage call for restoration of these cuts.

It is keeping these conditions in view that the HUDA has planned for provision of the bituminous macadam after a gap of one to two years of the initial allotment. Similarly, the Estate infrastructure relating to drainage and sewerage works though an essential part of development does not impede the start of construction activity. On the other hand, it is recognized that availability of access to the plots, water-supply and electrical infrastructure constitute the basic facilities for any entrepreneur to start working on his project.

- 1.4 For the purpose of implementation of the HUDA EMP-2016, various industrial estates developed by the HUDA throughout the State are categorized as under:-

Sr. No.	Category	Industrial Estates Developed By HUDA
1	'A'	Gurgaon, Faridabad, Bahadurgarh, Murthal, Sonapat, Panipat and Panchkula.
2	'B'	-----
3	'C'	All Estates other than those mentioned above

- 1.5 The above categorization of estates may be reviewed by the Haryana Urban Development Authority (HUDA) Department.

Chapter-2

Pricing of Plots

- 2.1 The pricing of plots in any industrial estate is a function of the cost of acquisition of raw land, administrative costs, survey and demarcation, payment of Government fees, planning, development and provision of various amenities like roads, water supply systems including the water-works, sewage, drainage, STP/CETP, final disposal of effluents, etc. as necessary infrastructure related amenities. The overall costs so incurred are then loaded on to the net saleable area.
- 2.2 Normally, at the time of initial floatation of an industrial Sector/Plot, the HUDA allots industrial plots on cost basis to the eligible applicants, however, in case the number of such applicants are more than the number of offered plots, the allotment shall be made through e-auction process. Thus, the HUDA generates revenue by way of allotment of plots as well as by way of disposal of commercial/institutional sites/residential plots. The revenue so generated by the HUDA is ploughed back in meeting investment and administrative requirements of the Authority as defined under Section 21 (2) of HUDA Act, 1977.
- The broad policy in pricing of plots is governed by the following considerations:
- i. As per Regulation 3 (c) of the Haryana Urban Development (Disposal of Land & Buildings) Regulations, 1978, the plots are given either by allotment or by auction.

Procedure in case of sale by allotment is governed by Regulation 5 of the Haryana Urban Development (Disposal of Land & Buildings) Regulations, 1978. The allotment is made on the tentative price worked out on costing method on basis of acquisition cost of land, prescribed under Regulation 4 Haryana Urban Development (Disposal of Land & Buildings) Regulations, 1977.

Procedure in case of sale by auction is governed by Regulation 6 of the Haryana Urban Development (Disposal of Land & Buildings) Regulations, 1978. The reserve price for auction is determined based on either costing method or any higher amount determined as a result of bidding in open auction.

- ii. Industrial plots may be allotted for mega projects involving fixed capital investment of `100 crore or above, or projects involving employment generation of more than 500 persons, at special promotional rates, with the approval of the Haryana Enterprise Promotion Board (HEPB), so as to attract large size anchor industrial units at these locations with potential for creation of ancillaries. The pricing under this provision is decided by the HEPB on case to case basis. Further, preferably, not more than 15% to 20% of the plotted area is to be allotted under this special dispensation, any exceptions thereto resting with the HEPB.

2.3 Treatment of enhancement in the compensation paid to the landowners:

i. Allotment of industrial plots/sheds made before coming into force of HUDA EMP-2016:-

The landowners whose land is acquired under the Land Acquisition Act, have a statutory right to file references under Section 18 of the Act seeking higher compensation as compared to what has been determined by the Land Acquisition Collector and paid to them at the Award stage. Notwithstanding the Government Policy of minimum floor rates, scheme of Annuity payments and the R & R Policy, the amount of compensation is often enhanced by the Courts of competent jurisdiction. A finality in this behalf is a long drawn process. As such, the pricing of industrial plots at the initial stage did not take into account any component of enhancement allowed by the courts subsequently. It is for this reason that the enhanced cost of the land announced subsequently by the competent courts was being recovered proportionately from the allottees separately as per the terms of allotment & applicable policy guidelines. The component of enhanced compensation shall continue to be passed on to the allottees of the industrial plots/sheds where the allotment has been made by HUDA in case of sale by allotment. The allottee shall be required to pay the Additional Price on account of enhanced compensation as per Regulation of the Haryana Urban Development (Disposal of Land & Buildings) Regulations, 1978.

Wherever any litigation pertaining to enhancement in land compensation U/s 18 of the Land Acquisition Act is pending or is initiated in the Industrial Association of the respective Estate/Allottees shall be made aware of the same, so that they can also defend the cases.

The allottee, if so desirous, shall have the option to deposit the tentative enhanced cost during the pendency of the court case/raising of actual demand by the Corporation, so as to save the interest cost liability of the allottees.”

ii. Allotment/Sale of industrial plots/sheds by HUDA:-

In case of sale by auction, allotment is made to the highest bidder by auction under Regulation 6 of Haryana Urban Development (Disposal of Land & Buildings) Regulations, 1978. As per the existing provisions, in the case of sale by auction, the allottee is not required to pay any amount on account of enhanced compensation.

2.4 The prices of plots/sheds shall be revised on first of April each year by the Authority. In case there is no demand in any industrial estate against two consecutive advertisements, with a view to maintain marketability of the plots, the Chief Administrator, HUDA may consider downward revision of prices maximum up to 20% at a time in line with the market price. But the price shall not be lowered down, than the original price (first reserved price).”

Chapter 3

Allotment of Industrial Plots

- 3.1 For the purpose of allotment, such industrial sector shall be declared as saturated where 90% of the area of carved out industrial plots has been allotted.
- 3.2 Reservation of industrial plots:–
- i. The reservation of industrial plots shall be available only in unsaturated estates as under:
 - a) Up to 10% of the plots/sheds will be reserved in each Estate for allotment to NRIs/ PIOs and for units with 33% or more FDI in total investment. In case of NRI Plots, the entire amount towards the price of the plot has to be remitted through NRI Account of the applicant or in remittances from abroad/ foreign exchange. In the case of FDI, at least 33% of the Project Cost has to come from the FDI route. However, the 10% limit would not preclude allotment of plots in the FDI category as a part of the general scheme of allotment;

- ii) On a quarterly basis in the following cases:
 - a) Prestigious projects involving fixed capital investment as mentioned hereunder:

Reference on the subject noted above.

It is intimated that this office has received a number of representations of the persons in whose cases the offer of allotment had been issued but they did not deposit required 25% cost of the plot within stipulated period of 30 days and now they are requesting to allow them to deposit said 25% amount and restoration of plot.

The matter has been examined at length and it has been decided that keeping in view the condition of offer of allotment and also in view of instructions issued vide this office letter No.4036-57 dated 25.02.2002 the applicants who have not deposited required 25% cost of the plot within stipulated period are not entitled to the allotment of plot. However, keeping in view the principle of natural justice, before withdrawing offer of allotment, the persons affected may be given an opportunity of being heard.

You are, therefore, directed to take action on such representations/requests accordingly.

Dated : 30.04.2002

Subject Implementation of Hon'ble Supreme Court's order dated 28.09.2001 passed in SLP's filed by the allottees of the DQ quota plots against the order passed by Hon'ble High Court in CWP no. 5851 of 1996- Anil Sabharwal Vs. State of Haryana and others clarification regarding transfer of discretionary quota plots

Reference this office memo No.Auth-2002/4036-57 dated 25.02.2002 on the subject noted above.

Some of the Estate Officers of Haryana Development Authority are requested to advise whether the plots of discretionary quota may be transferred to third party or not.

It is intimated that as per orders dated 28.09.2001 of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, the decision of the High Court in Anil Sabharwal's case has been made effective from a prospective date i.e. 23.04.1996 meaning thereby the judgment dated 21.03.1997 of Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court given in Anil Sabharwal's case has no effect on the allotments made under discretionary quota upto 22.04.1996. Therefore, the ban imposed on transfer of discretionary quota plots for a period of 5 years in the judgment dated 21.03.1997 of Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court will not be applicable on the allotments made upto 22.04.1996 and such plots can be transferred after the expiry of a period of three years as mentioned in the allotment letters. However, it is also made clear that the Govt. has already taken a decision to treat the litigation period as "Zero Period" for all intents and purposes. Therefore, the period during which the discretionary quota plots remained under litigation is to be treated as "Zero Period" for transfer purposes also.

You are, therefore, advised to take action accordingly.

Reference this office letter No.4036-57 dated 25.2.2002 on the subject noted above.

It has been observed that the allottees of discretionary quota plots are not given full benefit of "Zero Period" and put to undue harassment whereas it was clearly mentioned in the letter under reference that the litigation period is to be treated as Zero Period. Penal interest on delayed payment of instalments, enhanced compensation and extension fee from the date of cancellation of plot to the date of restoration of plots is not to be charged and in cases, where schedule of payment had already expired on or before the date of cancellation, action is to be taken as per HUDA policy after giving full benefit of "Zero Period".

You are, therefore, directed to implement the direction dated 25.2.2002 carefully and it may also be ensured that no harassment is caused to the allottees.

Memo No. Auth-2002/4036-57

Dated : 25.02.2002

Subject Implementation of Hon'ble Supreme Court's order dated 28.09.2001 passed in SLP's filed by the allottees of the DQ quota plots against the order passed by Hon'ble High Court in CWP no. 5851 of 1996- Anil Sabharwal Vs. State of Haryana and others- Restoration
Reference on the subject cited above.

As you are aware that some allottees of discretionary quota plots whose plots have been cancelled in the light of Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court's judgment dated 21.03.1997 had filed SLPs in Supreme Court of India. The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India has announced its judgment on 28.09.2001 in Harsh Dhingra and others vs. State of Haryana and others. The order made by the Hon'ble Supreme Court will have a general application and the decision of the Hon'ble High Court in Anil Sabharwal's case shall be made effective from a prospective date, the date on which interim order had been passed i.e. on 23.04.1996. Thus the allotments made upto 22.04.1996 have been validated. However, to implement the above judgment, the decision on the following points have been approved by the Govt. as under:-

1. Regarding cut of date of order of allotment of plot made under discretionary quota.

As per procedure, order for allotment of plot was made by the Government. Thereafter a letter was issued by Secretary, HUDA asking the applicant to submit the requisite affidavit. After submission of affidavit and finding the applicant eligible for allotment of a plot, Secretary, HUDA issued letter to applicant asking him to deposit 25% cost of the total tentative price of the plot. Thereafter, Estate Officer of concerned Urban Estate issued the allotment letter on deposit of the aforesaid tentative price. The date of letter issued by Secretary, HUDA intimating the applicant regarding allotment of plot and requiring him to deposit 25% of the tentative price of plot may be treated as the date of order of allotment provided the applicant had deposited the amount within stipulated period i.e. 30 days,

2. Cases where the amount deposited by the allottees have been refunded to them (on their request) under the orders of Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court in CWP No.5851 of 1996.

It has been decided that the allottees who had taken refund of their deposits from HUDA in the light of decision dated 21.03.1997 of Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court are entitled to restoration of their plots. It is also made clear that benefit of not charging the interest on withdrawn amount deposited earlier be given to all the allottees after withdrawal date. This benefit should be given for the period from the withdrawal date till the date on which it is intimated to the individual allottees by the Estate Officers regarding restoration of such plots. Further in case of non depositing of due amount within 30 days of the demand notice, the interest for the delayed period may be charged from the allottees (only in DQ regularization cases) as per existing HUDA policy.

3. Regarding litigation period and payment of dues.

It has been decided that the litigation period may be treated as Zero Period. Penal interest on delayed payment of instalments, enhanced compensation and extension fee from the date of cancellation of plot to the date of restoration of plots may not be charged. In case, schedule of payment had already expired on or before the date of cancellation, action may be taken as per HUDA policy after giving full benefit of zero period.

4. Regarding alternative plots.

In those cases, where the allottees have taken refund of their deposits from HUDA in the light of Hon'ble High court order dated 21.3.1997 and their plots have been allotted as alternative plot in lieu of other disputed plots under the decision of various courts, it has been decided that: the decision dated 28.9.2001 of Hon'ble Supreme Court would prevail over decisions of various other courts and such plots have to be restored to the original allottees, if they are otherwise eligible.

5. Regarding allotment of plots made on or after 23.4.1996.

It has been decided that in view of decision dated 28.9.2001 of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, such allotments have to be in-conformity with the judgment in dated 21.03.1997 given by the Hon'ble High Court in CWP No.5851 of 1995 Anil Sabharwal vs. State of Haryana and others.

6. Regarding discretionary quota plots carved out in green belt/non conforming area.

It has been decided that no plot should be allotted in green belt/non conforming area. Therefore, it is made clear that you should check up the status of the plot in each case before restoring the, same to the allottee and in case it falls in the green belt/non conforming area, the case should be referred to this office with complete details.

You are requested to take action as per details given above. Further, correspondence with the allottees be made on their latest and correct address available in the office record so that no delay/harassment is caused to the allottees.

Memo No. Auth-2001/4003-19

Dated : 12.02.2001

Subject Waiving of penal interest on the late payment of the enhancement compensation in the allotment of DQ quota.

Please refer to the subject cited above.

As you are aware that all allotments made through discretionary quota from 31.10.1989 onwards were cancelled vide orders dated 21.03.1997 of the Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court passed in CWP No.5851 of 1996 – Anil Sabharwal Vs. Stae of Haryana & Others. Certain exemption categories were carved out in the above said orders and allotments made to allottees of these categories were to be regularized after these were scrutinized by a Review Committee headed by a retired High Court Judge. The Review Committee had to scrutinized those cases as per instructions/guidelines contained in the said judgement.

Earlier a clarification was sought by the Field Officers on the representation of the allottees regarding not charging the interest on late payment of installments as well as extension fee for the period these plots remained under litigation or were cancelled by the orders of the High Court. As per the advice of Ld. L.R. Haryana, the case was got approved from the Government as well as Authority in its meeting held on 30.09.1999 and instructions for not charging the interest on delayed payment of installments and not charging of extension fee w.e.f. 22.03.1997 till the date on which it was intimated to individual allottee/concerned E.O. the factum of unconditional regularization of such plots based on the recommendation of the Review Committee vide letter No.22411-27 dated 29.06.1999.

Now, some of the allottees as well as our subordinate offices represented/sought clarification on waiving of interest on late payment of enhancement compensation on the ground that allotment of these plots had been cancelled because of which no installment/extension fee/enhancement compensation was accepted by the Estate Officers, therefore, the same benefit should also be given in the case of Enhancement Compensation.

It is felt that non payment of the Enhancement Compensation in such cases is not the fault of the allottees in any way and hence they should not be penalized for non payment of enhancement compensation by charging the penal interest on delayed payment of Enhancement Compensation, therefore, no interest may be charged on late payment of enhancement compensation as per the decision taken earlier for not charging the interest on delayed payment of installments and extension fee during the period such plots remained under litigation or were cancelled by the orders of the Hon'ble High Court. Therefore, the matter has been examined in detail and it has been decided that:-

- i) If the Enhancement Compensation demand notice already conveyed to the allottees prior to cancellation of plot, the benefit of not charging the penal interest on the late payment of enhancement compensation be given to all the DQ allottees after 22.03.1997. This benefit should be given for the period from 22.03.1997 till the date on which it was intimated to the individual allottee/concerned Estate Officer the factum of unconditional regularization of such plots based on the recommendation of the Review Committee.
- ii) In case the Enhancement Compensation demand notices has not been issued prior to cancellation then updated rates as per the policy of HUDA may be charged from the allottee for the period for which plot remained allotted to him.

- iii) This decision will be applicable on all sizes of DQ plots which were cancelled and later on regularization of such plots based on the recommendation of the Review Committee as per the direction of the Hon'ble High Court. you are, therefore, requested to take necessary action in accordance with above instructions in respect of all the Discretionary Quota allottees whose allotments has been regularized by the Review Committee.

Subject Waiving of penal interest on the refunded amount of such allottee who had withdrawn the amount deposited earlier in view of the decision of the Hon'ble High Court in CWP no. 5861/96- Anil Sabharwal Vs. State of Haryana and others.

Please refer to the subject cited above.

As you are aware that all allotments made through discretionary quota from 31.10.1989 onwards were cancelled vide orders dated 21.03.1997 of the Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court passed in CWP No.5851/96 Anil Sabharwal Vs State of Haryana & Others. The Review Committee had to scrutinized those cases as per instructions/guidelines contained in the said judgment.

It is felt that the allottees of discretionary quota plots who had got refund of their amount deposited earlier, in view of the decision of the Hon'ble High Court and lateron allotment of their plots had been regularized based on the recommendation of the Review Committee. It would be just and in the interest of natural justice that the following facility is also granted to DQ allottees who were allotted plots after 31.10.1989 and whose plots had been regularized lateron they were deemed to be cancelled by the orders of the High Court. Therefore, the matter has been examined in detail and it has been decided that:-

- i) The benefit of not charging the interest on withdrawn amount deposited earlier be given to all the allottees after withdrawal date. This benefit should be given for the period from the withdrawal date till the date on which it was interested to individual allottee/Estae Officers the factum of un-conditional regularization of such plots in case of below six marla categories and also in the above six marla categories which have been regularized based on the recommendation of the Review Committee.
- ii) Further in case of non-depositing of due amount within 30 days of the demand, the delay interest may be charged from the allottees (only in DQ regularization cases) as per existing HUDA policy.

You are, therefore, requested to take necessary action in the accordance with above instructions in respect of all the discretionary quota allottees whose allotment has been regularized by the Review Committee.

Memo No.Auth—99/3962-81

Dated : 04.02.1999

Subject : Review of allotment of DQ Quota – exemption category.

After the decision dated 21.03.1997 was declared by the Hon'ble High Court in CWP No.5851/96 titled Anil Sabharwal VS State of Haryana and others, a large number of plots allotted through discretionary quota from 31.10.89 onwards were cancelled by the respective Estate Officers. As per the provisions contained in the judgment of the Hon'ble High Court and also as per the exemption category carved out in the, said judgement, the cases of the allottees falling in the exemption categories were referred to the Review Committee and the decision in most of these cases have been conveyed to the respective Estate Officers.

A reference from the Estate Officer, HUDA, Karnal has been received for taking decision on the following issues:—

- i) Whether the interest on late payment is to be charged from the allottees for the litigation/cancellation period.
- ii) Whether extension fees is to be charged from allottees for the litigation period.
- iii) Whether possession of such plots is to be given to such allottees and building plans/completion certificate can be issued in cases.
- iv) Whether transfer of these plots are to be allowed or not.

Regarding the issue of transfer, your attention is invited to memo No. 37396—417 dated 17.12.98 vide which it was intimated that no transfer of plots so regularised is to be allowed for a period of 5 years from 21.03.97 onwards. You are directed to comply with these instructions which were also contained in the judgement of the High Court which was sent to you in March, 1997.

Regarding handing over possession and allowing them to raise construction on their plots, after getting the building plans approved, it is clarified that allotments in all such cases have been regularised. Such allottees are regular allottees of HUDA. Consequently possession of their plots can be handed over to them and they may be allowed to raise construction on their plots if they so desire, after completion requisite formalities of getting the building plans approved.

To decide on the other issues, you are all requested to intimate by return post as to from which date the instalments were refused by you from discretionary quota allottees of your Urban Estate as well as the date from which the building plans were not accepted by your office in respect of these allottees.

Memo No.ADA(R)-90/3111

Dated 16.02.1990

Subject : Clarification of certain points raised in connection with revocation of cancellation order in respect of DQ plots

Sir,

Consequent upon the issuance of letter No.ADA(R)—89/30460 dated 31.10.1989 by which the status quo ante as on 29.06.89 was restored in respect of Discretionary Quota plots, certain queries were raised by the Administrators/Estate Officers. These points were discussed in the meeting of officers held on 14.12.1989 and decisions taken in that meeting have been confirmed by the Govt. The position in regard to various queries is as follows:-

1. Cases in which 25% earnest money received in response to the offer was returned to the allottees.
It has been decided that the offer to such allottees be revived by writing letters to them in which they should be asked to deposit the earnest money alongwith the installments which have so far become due, within a period of 90 days failing which interest @ 18% will be charged from them. A specimen of the letter is enclosed.
2. Cases in which offer was given but the cancellation orders were issued before the expiry of stipulated period of 30 days.
It has been decided to revive the offer to such allottees also on the conditions mentioned in para-I above, and write letter to them also on the lines suggested in specimen.
3. How to recover the installments which have become due?
It has been decided that the allottees may be asked to deposit the amount of all the installments which have so far become due from them within a period of 90 days failing which interest @ 18% P.A. on the amount due will be charged after the expiry of the period.
4. Whether the period during which the plots remained cancelled is to be counted in the stipulated period allowed for construction of building/house or not?
It has been decided to give allowance of this period to the allottees for the purpose of calculating the period of construction of a house on the plot.

Action on the pending cases may be taken accordingly.

4. EXCHANGE OF PLOT

To

All the Zonal Administrators, HSVP.
All the Estate Officers, HSVP.

Memo No. A-7-UB-2022/ 197279

Dated:24.11.2022

Subject: Policy relating to exchange of plots-modifications.

This is in modification of the HSVP policies dated 18.02.2013 and 15.11.2021 on the subject cited above.

HSVP issued policies regarding exchange of plots in lieu of originally allotted plots from time to time. Policy dated 18.02.2013 on the same subject provided for allotment of alternate plots in certain circumstances which was later on modified vide policy dated 15.11.2021. In the policy dated 15.11.2021 for exchange of plots, it was decided that the request for allotment of alternative plots can only be considered on online portal from original allottees. After receiving online applications, it has been observed that HSVP policy regarding exchange of plots needs to be amended so as to obviate the allotment of alternative plots and to only provide for refund of amount deposited in all such cases except the cases where HSVP has already allotted alternative plots which are under dispute and original plots allotted to such allottees have become clear from litigation.

1. It has been decided to modify the policies dated 18.02.2013 and 15.11.2021 and the exchange of plots shall be strictly considered in following eventualities:-
 - (i) The case of allotment of alternate plot shall be considered only where the original plot was under litigation and alternate plot was allotted in lieu thereof. However, HSVP counsel not offer possession of alternate plot also, the said case shall be considered for allotment of original plot only if the original plot is clear from litigation / free from all encumbrances. In case where originally allotted plot stood omitted and thereafter, alternative plot was allotted, in such scenario, the alternative plot allotted shall become original plot as originally allotted plot does not exist and can be considered for restoration subject to other terms and conditions of policy.
 - (ii) The case where the allotted plot has fallen under litigation subsequent to the date of allotment, then alternate plot will not considered and HSVP shall immediately file an application for getting the said litigation decided as in maximum cases such litigation is pertaining to the Section 24(2) of the LARR Act, 2013. Therefore, no request for alternative plot shall be entertained. Even in cases where plot was under litigation prior to the date of allotment, efforts be made to get the same cleared from litigation by filing Civil Miscellaneous Applications in the Hon'ble High Court or the Hon'ble Supreme Court, as the case may be.

In cases, where the land has been released or land has come under High tension Wire or forest area, HSVP shall refund of entire deposited amount with 9% P.A simple interest and no alternate plot be allotted in such cases as in such cases HSVP is deprived of the land for utilization.

This is issued with the approval of Hon'ble C.M. cum Chairman HSVP, Panchkula and Ex post facto approval of Pradhikaran shall be obtained in the next Pradhikaran meeting.

Memo No. A-7-2021/UB/194927

Dated:15.11.2021

Subject: Policy relating to exchange of plots-modifications.

Reference: In modification of instructions issued vide memo no. U.B.- A-6-2013/7934-51 dated 18.02.2013 on the subject cited above.

It is observed that policy dated 18.02.2013 has come under abuse and its intended purpose being defeated which was meant to help the genuine original allottees. This is also affecting the finances of HSVP, as plots are disposed of through public auction and any such allotment of alternative plot takes away the benefit of disposal through auction which fetches better price, as allotment of alternative plot is made on old rates.

Hence, it has been decided to issue following modification in the policy dated 18.02.2013:

- (i) Where the allotment letter includes the condition that no alternative plot will be allotted, such an allottee would be debarred from claiming allotment of alternative plot.
- (ii) An original allottee will only be considered for allotment of alternative plot in lieu of original plot. Original allottee for this purpose shall mean an allottee who has participated in the draw of lots conducted by HSVP and after being successful in draw of lots for a plot, accepted the allotment by depositing the 15 % amount and said allotted plot is still in his name. Any such plot allotted in draw of lots will be considered as 'original plot'.

Provided that where the original allottee has transferred the original plot in name of his family members, then said family member will be eligible to apply for allotment of alternative plot in lieu of original plot. 'Family' for this purpose shall mean the family as defined in the HSVP policy for transfer of plots

Provided further that where a plot has been inherited and transferred on account of death of the original allottee, then a person inheriting or transferring the plot in his name on account of said transfer will also be eligible to apply for allotment of alternative plot.

- (iii) A General Power of Attorney or Special Power of Attorney holder/subsequent purchaser/re-allottee will not be eligible to apply for allotment of alternative plot. He will however, be entitled to the following:
 - (a) He can wait for decision of the litigation or removal of the dispute.
 - (b) He can apply for refund of the entire deposited amount, in which case, such amount will be refunded with interest @ 5.5 % per annum. In the eventuality of acceptance by him of entire deposited amount with interest, plot shall become the property of HSVP liable to be disposed of as per policy.
- (iv) In cases where the original allottee or as the case may be, his family member in case the original plot has been transferred in name of such family member, has been allotted an alternative plot but the said allotted alternative plot is found to be under litigation or dispute due to which reason possession could not be offered to him, then such an original allottee or as the case may be, his family member in case the original plot has been transferred in name of such family member, will be entitled to the following:
 - (a) To seek restoration of the original plot.
 - (b) The restoration of the original plot will be allowed only where the allotted alternative plot is still under litigation or dispute and possession of allotted alternative plot cannot be offered.
 - (c) The restoration of the original plot will be further subject to the condition that original plot has become clear, is un-allotted and developed.
 - (d) The restoration of the original plot will be further subject to the condition that original plot and alternative plot are situated within the jurisdiction of the concerned Estate Officer.
 - (e) If option at point (a) of this clause is not accepted, then the original allottee or as the case may be, his family member in case the original plot has been transferred in name of such family member, will be eligible to be considered for alternative plot through draw of lots.

- (f) Once the original plot is restored to the original allottee or as the case may be, his family member in case the original plot has been transferred in name of such family member, then such an original allottee shall have no right remaining in respect of the earlier allotted alternative plot.
- (v) The Hon'ble High Court in CWP No. 21830 of 2020 titled as Ajit Singh Vs. HSVP and others, has held that HSVP policy dated 18.02.2013 is applicable only an original allottee and therefore a subsequent purchaser/re-allottee will not be entitled to apply for restoration of original plot under any circumstance.
- (vi) No person will be eligible to apply for allotment of alternative plot where the plot i.e. original or alternative plot allotted to him is free from any litigation or dispute of any nature whatsoever.
- (vii) No manual application or request for said allotment will be accepted. A request for allotment of alternative plot shall have to be submitted online on the portal.
- (viii) The draw of lots for allotment of alternative plot will be conducted online through randomization software at HQ. Level.

This is issued with the approval of Hon'ble Chief Minister Cum-Chairman, HSVP.
You are requested to take further action accordingly.

Memo No. 1407-1440

Dated 21.05.2015

Subject:- Regarding floatation of encumbrance free and clear plots for allotment- CWP No. 23270 of 2014 titled as Arjun Kumar Tuteja Vs. State of Haryana and others.

1. In Continuation of instructions bearing Memo no. HUDA-Acctts-Acctt-I-2007/2912-47 dated 25.01.2007 regarding payment of interest. In the ibid instructions it was provided that in order to avoid problem of alternative plots, in future the plots will be advertised only after having been demarcated on the site. A committee under the Chairmanship of concerned filed Administrator comprising of SE, DTP and EO was constituted to verify the clear number of plots available on the site which could be advertised for sale. Block of plots was to be marked, road was also to be marked on the ground before this verification in order to ensure that only clear plots i.e. free from litigation and free from encroachment are advertised. The clear plots were to be advertised and allotted to the oustees and thereafter, balance plots were to be advertised and allotted to the oustees and thereafter, balance plots were to be advertised for sale amongst the general public. But despite ibid instructions disputed and encumbered plots are being included in the floatations by the field offices. Further, in some cases where alternative plots were allotted, disputed and encumbered plots were included in the mini draw of lots and possession of even alternative plots could not be given.
2. In some cases, the Hon'ble High Court has observed that floatation/allotment of encumbered plots by HUDA to the allottees in a fraud with the public as possession cannot be delivered but the money is taken from the allottee. The Hon'ble High Court has further observed in such cases that the concerned officers who were instrumental in floating encumbered plots are liable to be prosecuted by the HUDA Authorities and such allottees are entitled for the damages from HUDA in addition to the allotment of clear and unencumbered alternative plot. For instance, in COCP No. 2417 of 2012 the Hon'ble High Court vide order dated 09.04.2013 observed that offer of plots which were under litigation at the time when they were offered for sale amounts to cheating.
3. Instances are there that the Hon'ble High Court summoned the Chief Administrator, HUDA, Panchkula in a few cases taking a serious view that the alternative plots/clear alternative plots are not being allotted inspite of lapse of years and allottees have to indulge in rounds of legal battle. The concern of the Hon'ble High Court seems to be genuine and therefore, the following instructions are hereby being issued:-
 - a) The members of committee constituted vide instruction dated 25.01.2007 shall be charge sheeted if the plots are advertised without having been demarcated on the site and without ensuring that the plots are clear, vacant & free from all types of encumbrances and the possession of the same can be given immediately on allotment. Further, if the Hon'ble Courts grant damages to the allottees in case of default, the damages shall be recovered from the salary of the committee members.
 - b) Where the allotment of alternative plots has become imperative due to the floatation and allotment of disputed plots resulting in non delivery of possession due to omission/litigation/encroachment/irregular shape of the plot etc., the Administrator/Estate Officer shall refer the matter to the Chief Administrator (UB) immediately with the comprehensive proposal for the allotment of alternative plots only after ensuring that the plots to be included in the mini draw of lots are clear, vacant and free from all encumbrances, and possession thereof can be delivered forthwith. In fact, in some - cases where alternative plots were allotted, disputed and encumbered plots were included in the mini draw of lots and possession of even alternative plot could not be given. In case of default, the Administrator/Estate Officer shall be charge sheeted and if the Hon'ble Courts grant damages to the allottees, the damages shall be recovered from their salary.

- c) The Urban Branch shall put up the case for the allotment of alternative plots on the proposal of the Administrator/Estate Officer expeditiously to avoid the possibility of filing of writ petitions/ COCPs in the Hon'ble High Court which cannot normally be defended and the cases are disposed of only with the allotment and delivery of possession of the alternative plot to the petitioner. The embarrassment and litigation expenses in such cases are avoidable and therefore, litigation expenses, costs imposed by the Courts if any etc. Shall be recovered from the salary of erring officials of the Urban Branch who are found responsible for the delay and embarrassment.
4. The receipt of the instructions be acknowledged and complied with meticulously.

Memo No. CVO/AU-1/2007/43162-84

Dated: 10.12.2007

Subject:- Policy for exchange of plots – clarification regarding charge of rates.

This is in continuation to this office memo No. A-1-2004/23847 dated 25.06.2004 on the subject cited above.

The matter regarding charging of original rate of alternative plots if the plot is not available in the same sector and alternative plot is given in the adjacent sector was under consideration due to the fact that courts are not agree to the proposition that updated floatation rate of that sector has to be charged. Therefore, it has been decided as under:-

- a) The alternative plot should be given in the same sector by carving out any unplanned pocket if possible, on the same terms and conditions as the original plot was allotted.
- b) If the plot is not available in the same sector than alternative plot may be given in the adjacent sector on the same rate, terms and conditions of the original plot.
- c) The original allottee will be paid simple interest @9% on the amount deposited by him after the expiry of 03 years of the original allotment if the possession of the plot is not offered within 03 years of the allotment and the future instalments will be paid only after the possession of alternative plot is offered.
- d) The size category of the plot will not change in any case.
- e) In order to compensate the loss due to difference of flotation rates of different sectors the plots which will be available after the finalization of litigation or after the removal of encroachment will be put on auction.

This policy will be made applicable with prospective effect but shall cover such cases which are pending before any Court/Consumer Forum.

Approval of Chairman, HUDA has been obtained on file, Ex-post-facto approval of Authority shall be obtain in the forthcoming meeting of the Authority.

Memo No. A-1(P)-2002/17598-17618

Dated: 15.07.2002

Subject:- Policy for exchange of plots - modification thereof.

This is in continuation of this office memo No. A-11(P)-98/9040-60 dated 15.04.1998 on the subject cited above.

It has come to the notice of this office that courts have started allotting commercial/ residential plots in better sectors in lieu of disputed sites in not so good sectors at original price inspite of successive revision/ appeals in few cases and our counsels could not arrange relief and this is likely to encourage more and more allottees/purchasers to go in for litigation before the Consumer Courts on flimsy ground. The matter was placed in the authority meeting held on 26.06.2002 vide agenda item No. A-85(12) and it has been decided that if the plots in the same sector are not available we should carved out fresh residential/commercial sites in the same sector on similarly situated sites meant for other uses or change the size of the sites of similar/bigger sizes to bring them at par with the sites of the old purchasers, where due to stay orders from courts, we could not give the possession in time. This will help us in discouraging profiteering tendencies amongst allottees/GPAs and court will also not be left with excessive discretion to re-allot in premium oriented sectors. It has also been decided that in case the alternative plots offered by HUDA in the same sector are not accepted by the allottees, the amount deposited by the allottees may be refunded with simple interest @12% p.a. from the date of deposit to the date of refund and he will have no claim for the plot.

This also disposes of Administrator, HUDA, Gurgaon memo No. PA-33 dated 24.05.2002 in cases the alternative allotments of SCO sites in Sector-12-A are not accepted, the amount deposited by the allottees may be refunded with 12% interest as stated above.

Subject:- Policy for exchange of plots - modification thereof.

Reference this office memo no. A-11(P)-98/9040-60 dated 15.4.1998 on the subject cited above.

In this connection, it is intimated that in case alternative plot is allotted in the same sector as per policy dated 15.04.98, the same original rate will be made applicable and when the alternative allotment is offered in any other sector in the Urban Estate, the updated floatation rate of the sector or the rates at which the disputed plot was allotted, whichever is higher, should be charged from the allottee. In case of old sectors, left out plots have been floated at the current rates. Now, the matter was under consideration of this office, whether the updated floatation rate should be calculated on the basis of original floatation rate of the alternative sector or the current floatation rate of the sector. Now, after detailed deliberation, it has been decided that in case the alternative plot is allotted in the other sector, the updated current floatation rate may be charged. This also disposes of Administrator, HUDA, Faridabad memo no. 8044 dated 29.10.01.

Memo No. A-1-99/25677-97 Dated 30.07.1999

Subject: Allotment of alternative plots in lieu of disputed plots.

As per decision taken in the various Departmental Officers, meetings, it was decided that efforts be made to offer alternative plots, in lieu of disputed plots, in the same sector to avoid any sort of complications regarding rate etc. As such additional plots be got carved out accordingly in the same sector in which disputed plots exists, as far as possible.

It has come to the notice of this office that various courts allot specific plot number in other sectors on undertaking/information supplied by our offices, preferably in the sectors, in which market rate is much higher as compared to the original sector, in which original plot was located. This not only gives monetary benefit to such allottees but at the same time gives heart burning to other similar placed allottees.

Keeping in view this aspect, you are directed not to give any committee to the courts to give alternative plots in other sectors. Rather you should file affidavit while filing written statement to such plaintiffs giving undertaking to the fact that we are providing them alternative plots within the same sector as per policy of HUDA to ensure that no contrary orders against policy of HUDA are passed by the concerned courts. If it is not possible to carve out additional plots to accommodate disputed plots in the same sector, then before giving any undertaking to the court to the contrary, the Estate Officer concerned will seek prior approval of the Chief Administrator, HUDA, otherwise the concerned Estate Officers, HUDA will be personally responsible for this lapse.

These instructions may be noted for strict compliance.

Memo No. A-11-P/98/9040-60

Dated: 15.04.1998

Subject: Policy for exchange of plots - modification thereof – detailed procedure.

This is in continuation of this office memo No. A-NRI-91/25714 Dated 12.12.1991 and No. HUDA-Accts-95/5707-27 dated 01.03.1995 on the subject cited above.

The existing policy for giving alternative plots does not provide detailed procedure for the allotment of alternative plots in lieu of disputed plots. In order to streamline the procedure and to work out the modalities for allotment of alternative plots in lieu of disputed plots, the Authority in its 73rd meeting held on 31.03.1998 have approved the following procedure for allotment of alternative plots in lieu of disputed plots:-

The Estate Officer shall maintain a separate register in which all the disputed plots shall be entered category-wise in ascending order (on the basis of date of allotment). Simultaneously the list of vacant plots free from all encumbrances shall be prepared and entered in a separate register/Sector-wise and category-wise. The allottee shall give in writing that he would abide by the policy of allotment of alternative plots laid down from time to time and he will accept plot that would be offered by draw of lots before his particular are entered in the register otherwise the allottee can claim refund of the amount deposited by him as per the existing policy or he may give an undertaking that he will take the original plot as and when it is free from all encumbrances and shall have no right either of an alternative plot or for the interest on the amount deposited by him.

Every year, preferably in the months of January and July the draw of lots will be held for allotment of alternative plots in place of the disputed plots, out of the list available in the register, with the first preference going to the same sector. In case it is not possible to give plot in the same sector, then the draw will be for any of the developed sector in the Urban Estates as the second priority. In case even that is not possible, equal number of plots will be earmarked for allotment in lieu of disputed plots in the new sectors to be floated in that particular Urban Estate. To avoid such situation, in future, no allotment shall be made in any Urban Estate without demarcation of plot and approval of demarcation plan by the competent authority.

Regarding pricing of the alternative plots, when the offer is made in the same sector, the same original rate will be made applicable (as per the existing policy) and when the alternative allotment is offered in any other sector in the Urban Estate, the updated floatation rates of that sector or the rates at which disputed plots was allotted, whichever is higher should be charged from the allottee. In the cases where rates of allotment of alternative plot, works out to be higher than of original rates of allotment, then interest shall be allowed on the earlier deposits made by the allottee as per existing HUDA policy. The other terms and conditions of the original allotment shall however remain the same.

As and when the disputed plots (in lieu of which alternative plots have been allotted, as discussed above) are free from all encumbrances, the same shall be disposed off by way of auction.

It shall be ensured that the lists/registers/documents as per laid down procedure, as aforesaid are prepared immediately. A copy of the same shall be supplied to Head Quarters for reference and record. In future all the claims for allotment of alternative plot shall be disposed off strictly in accordance with the above laid down procedure.

You are therefore, requested to take further follow up in action accordingly and a comprehensive proposal in respect of all the disputed plots, in the Urban Estate, falling within your jurisdiction may be sent to Head Quarters within a month positively.

Memo No. HUDA-Acctts-95/5707-27

Dated: 01.03.1995

Subject: Policy regarding allowing interest on the amount deposited by the plot holders in the case of exchange of plots.

The Authority in its 51st meeting held on 09.10.1991 has authorized the Chairman to allow exchange of plots where such exchange is necessary on account of following conditions:-

- i) Where HUDA could not deliver the possession of plot due to litigation pending in the court by the original land owners.
- ii) Where the plot is not actually available on the ground as per layout plan.
- iii) Where the land is under un-authorized encroachment which cannot be easily removed and HUDA cannot deliver the possession.

The change of site will be subject to the followings:-

1. The category of the plot holder will not be changed.
2. The size of the plot will not be changed.
3. The rates will be same if allotted in the same sector. Now prevalent rates will be charged for the changed plot if it is allotted in the other sector.

According to the above said policy, the rate of the alternative plot will be remain the same if allotted in the same sector. However, new prevalent rate will be charged for the changed plot if it is allotted in the other sector.

Estate Officer, HUDA, GURGAON vide his letter No. 6670 dated 29.04.1994 has raised the issue as to whether interest on the amount deposited by an allottee in respect of earlier allotment is to be allowed in the same manner in which the updated/prevalent rates of the alternative plot in other sector is charged.

Therefore, the aforesaid matter regarding allowing interest on the amount deposited by the allottee was submitted before the Authority in its 62nd meeting held on 24.01.1995.

The Authority has decided to allow interest on the amount deposited by the allottee in respect of earlier allotment in case the alternative plot is allotted in the other sector at the prevalent rate. The interest may be allowed in the same manner in which the updated/prevalent rate of the alternative plot in the other sector is charged. However, in case where the alternative plot is being allotted at the same rate in the same sector on the same terms & conditions interest will not be allowed on the amount deposited by the allottee.

You are, therefore, requested to take action accordingly.

Exclusively institutional Sector-32, Gurugram was floated in the year of 1990/1992. Thereafter, institutional plots in this sector were floated time to time. Such plots were allowed to complete the construction by 31.12.2007 & were given one time extension upto 31.12.2007 to raise/ complete at least minimum required construction provided they got the building plans approved by 31.12.2007. However vide policy dated 02.07.2007, slite amendment was done & these plots were also required to get their building plan approved by 30.06.2007 and apply for Occupation Certificate by 31.12.2007. In these cases, the extension fee for the year 2007 has been charged at the normal rate as per the policy dated 13.10.2006. On the contrary, in the case of plots where the period of 15 years expired during the year 2007 and one year period was allowed upto 31.12.2008 on the same terms & conditions that the allottee will complete at-least minimum required construction on their plots and apply for Occupation Certificate by 31.12.2008. But some field staff is charging double the extension fee for the plots wherein calendar year 2007 is the 15th year.

The intention of policy dated 02.07.2007 was to allow one time extension upto 31.12.2007 to the plots where 15 years or more period expired by 31.12.2006 and to allow extension upto 31.12.2008 where 15 years period expired during the calendar year 2007. In both the cases it allowed the allottee the period of one additional year to raise the minimum required construction on the payment of prescribed extension fee. Thus the charging of extension fee at double the rate for the year 2008 in such cases is against the spirit of the policy dated 02.07.2007.

It is therefore clarified that in all such cases, where calendar year 2007 is the 15th year, extension fee for the year 2008 will be charged at normal applicable rates instead of double the rates of extension fee.

This instruction/clarification may be brought to the notice of all concerned to implement in letter and spirit.

Agenda : workshop on New Extension Policy circulated vide letter no. A-UB- 6/2013/18221-42 dated 12.04.2013.

In Chair : CCF, HUDA.

Participants : As per Annexure 'A'

Date of Meeting: 24.08.2013 at 11.00 A.M.

Pursuant to the orders of CA, HUDA, a workshop was organized on 24.08.2013 at 11.00 A.M. to train the relevant staff of Estate Officer/Administrator offices throughout the State in respect of the New Extension Policy circulated by HUDA vide letter dated 12.04.2013. In this workshop Supdt./Dy.Suptd./Accounts Officers/Accountants of Estate Offices/Administrator offices were called. GM(IT) and Dy. Supdt. Urban Branch also attended the workshop.

During the discussions in the workshop, it was observed that there is lot of confusion amongst the employees of HUDA regarding the New Extension Policy. The employees of different offices are calculating the extension fees differently particularly in the cases where the earlier prescribed period of 15 years (i.e. 2+13years) has been exhausted. In order to make the New Extension Policy clear to the filed officers, the following points were discussed in detail and clarification was issued as under:

1. New Extension Policy has been notified on 12.04.2013 but for the convenience of calculation Policy may be made applicable from 01.04.2013.
2. There are two types of cases where the earlier prescribed periods of 15 years have been exhausted. In some case the period has been exhausted on 31.12.2007 or thereafter. In other cases the period has been exhausted on 30.11.2009. It was made clear that for the cases where the prescribed period has been exhausted on 31.12.2007. The rate of extension fee for the calendar year 2008 will be double the rate of the extension fees charged for the calendar year 2007. Similarly the rate of extension fees for the year 2009 shall be the double the rate of extension fees charged for the year 2008 and so on (Example 1 to 5).
3. In respect of plots where the prescribed period has been exhausted in Nov. 2009 the extension fees for one month i.e for Dec., 2009 (If not charged) may be charged at the same rate (proportionately for one month) at which the extension fees was charged for the year 2009. For the next calendar year i.e. for the year 2010, the rate of extension fees shall be double the rate at which the extension fee was charged for the year 2009 and so on.
4. This process will continue and no surcharge will be charged on the extension fees due from 01.01.2008 to 31.12.2013 in respect of the first category of plot and from 01.01.2010 to 31.12.2013 for the 2nd category of plots. Surcharge will be charged from 01.01.2014 on the total outstanding as on 31.12.2013.
5. The extension fee in respect of residential plots of size upto 4 marla plot will not be doubled and same rate will continue to be charged till 31.03.2013. However from 01.04.2013 the new rates of extension fee will be applicable i.e. for first 3 months of the calendar year 2013 the old rate will be applicable on proportionate basis and for the next 9 months of the calendar year 2013 the new rates will be applicable proportionately. After the expiry of prescribed period of 13 years and 12 years as per new extension Policy, the last rate charged or new rate as per New Extension Policy whichever is higher shall be applicable for the future years and it will not be doubled.

6. 50% rebate will be allowed in the extension fee to the Defence Personnel/Para Military Forces from 01.04.2013 i.e. the date of applicability of New Extension Policy. No such rebate will be allowed prior to the period 01.04.2013. In this case also the extension fee for the first 3 months for the calendar year 2013 will be charged at the old rate without any concession and for the balance 9 months of the calendar year 2013, it will be charged at the new rate as per New extension Policy with 50% rebate (Example 6).
7. The rebate on women and widows will continue to be given as per the previous policy.
8. Prior to the introduction of New Extension Policy, the rates of previous extension policy will be applicable in respect of all the plots. The new rates will only be charged from 01.04.2013. In this case also the old rates will be charged for 3 months for the calendar year 2013 on proportionate basis and for the balance 9 months of the calendar year 2013, the new rates will be charged proportionately. If a plot completes 12 years of extension during the calendar year 2013, in that case the extension fees charged during the year 2013, as per calculations stated above will be doubled for the year 2014 and so on. In case the 13 years period is going to exhaust on 31.03.2013, in that case the extension fees of first 3 months i.e. for the period from 01.01.2013 to 31.03.2013 will be charged as per the rates of previous policy and the double of this rate will be charged for balance – months of the year 2013 on proportionate basis (as there are no rates prescribed for 13th years in the New Extension Policy). For the year 2014, the extension fees charged for the year 2013 shall be doubled and so on. It is made clear that if the period of 13 years is expired in the year 2013 i.e. or after 31.03.2013, in that case the period allowed for payment of extension fee at the normal rate will be 31.03.2013.
9. 10% rebate shall continued to be given in the extension fees in case the total extension fees of the calendar year is paid in advance before 31st March of the calendar year. But in such case previous outstanding amount should be nil otherwise the amount paid will be adjusted towards the previous dues and no rebate will be given.

Memo. No. A-K.K.12 / 17346-68 Dated: 9.5.2012

Subject: Grant of extension in time for construction on institutional sites-Charging of extension fee thereof – revised policy.

This is in partial modification of the policy guidelines issued on the subject vide memo no. A-1-99/11199-219 dated 2.4.1999, A-1(P)-2002/16787-16808 dated 10.7.2002 and A.K.K.-2009/21046-49 dated 9.6.2009.

The matter has been re-examined and it has been observed that the institutional sites allotted by HUDA can be categorized as under:-

- i) Sites allotted to Social/Charitable Trusts/Religious institutions/Philanthropic institutions/Trusts.
- ii) Sites allotted to institutions/organizations other than the ones mentioned at Sr. No. (i) including Educational Institutions.
- iii) Sites allotted in exclusive institutional sectors of HUDA.
- (iv) Sites allotted to Government Departments/organizations.

The following policy has been finalized for grant of extension in time for construction on institutional sites.

i) Sites allotted to Social/Charitable Trusts/Religious institutions/ Philanthropic institutions/Trusts.

An extension of 3 years is permissible for completing construction on such institutional sites on payment of extension fee. Therefore, total period allowed for completing construction is 5 years (2+3 years) from the date offer of possession.

It has been decided that a period of additional 2 years be granted to the allottees on payment of extension fee. The rates of extension fee be revised as under:

Year of extension	Existing rates	Revised rates
Over & above 8 years upto 31-12-2010	Rs. 40.00	--
Upto 31-12-2011	--	Rs. 240.00
Upto 31.12.2012	--	Rs. 480.00

In case the allottee fails to complete the construction within above mentioned period then the Estate Officer shall initiate resumption proceedings under Section-17 of the HUDA Act.

(iv) Sites allotted to Government Departments/organizations

The institutional sites allotted to Govt. Departments are governed by the extension policy applicable in case of category (ii) above i.e. initial period up to two years from the date of offer of possession and extension of further 3 years on payment of extension fee at the rates prescribed by HUDA.

It has been decided that the Institutional plots allotted to Government Deptt., Board & Corporations and Public Undertaking may be given additional 5 years period for completing the construction on payment of double the extension fee prescribed for the previous year i.e. extension fee for the 6th year will be double the extension fee for 5th year and extension fee for 7th year will be double the extension fee of 6th year and so on.

In case the allottee of an Institutional plot allotted to department of Govt. or its Organizations fails to complete the construction within 10 years from the date of offer of possession then the case of further extension in the time limit upto 2 years only can be considered by the Authority if it is satisfied that such an extension is in the larger public interest. But such an extension can be granted on payment of the current price of the plot minus the price already paid by the allottee.

In case the allottee fails to complete the construction within 12 years from the date of offer of possession then the Estate Officer shall initiate resumption proceedings under Section-17 of the HUDA Act.

These instructions should be brought to the notice of all concerned/plot holders and due publicity be given at the local level.

These instructions issue with the approval of Hon'ble Chief Minister cum Chairman, HUDA.

Memo No. A-MK-2009/UB-I/1683-1705

Dated: 15.01.2009

Subject- Clarification regarding grant of extension in time limit for construction of residential/ commercial plots beyond stipulated period of 2 years.

The extension policy instructions dated 02.07.2007 read with instructions dated 28.04.2007 provide that every allottee may avail an extension of maximum 13 years beyond the stipulated period of 2 years for construction of building on Residential/Commercial plots, on payment of prescribed extension fee.

A clarification was sought by Estate Officer, HUDA, Kurukshetra as to whether in case of those allottees, who were offered possession in May 1994, the dead line for completing the construction and applying for occupation certificate would be 31.12.2008 or 31.12.2009.

The matter has been examined accordingly, and it is clarified that full fifteen years (2+13) to the allottees reckoned from the date of offer of possession have to be allowed. It has, therefore, been decided that the last date for completion of construction/applying for occupation certificate shall be the last day of the quarter in which 15 years period reckoned from the date of offer of possession is expiring, as we are charging extension fee on quarterly basis. Extension fee would be chargeable for the full quarter in which the said month falls.

You are requested to take action as per above clarification.

Memo No.A-1-2007/23187-208

Dated: 02.07.2007

Subject: Revised HUDA Extension Policy-Grant of extension in time limit for construction of residential/commercial plots, beyond stipulated period of 2 years-Clarification thereof.

This is with reference to this office memo no. A-1-2007/3265-86 dated 29.01.2007 & memo no. A-1-2007/15857-78 dated 28.04.2007 on the subject cited as above.

The Authority in its 98th meeting held on 12.12.2006 had decided that no extension shall be granted beyond 7 years (2+5 years) after offer of possession. For those plots in respect of which the period of 7 years either had already expired or would have expired on 31.12.2007 "all such allottees who have already availed a period of 7 years on or before 31.12.2007, shall have to get the building plan sanctioned and complete at least minimum required construction on their plots and apply for occupation certificate by 31.12.2008, on payment of prescribed extension fee". Thereafter, the matter was reviewed and it was decided that a maximum 13 years beyond the stipulated period of two years may be granted on payment of prescribed extension fee. The above policy guidelines also states that for those plots in respect of which their allottees that have already availed a period of 15 years or more by 31.12.2006 shall be given one time extension up to 31.12.2007 to raise/complete at least minimum required construction on their plots. They shall have to get their building plan approved by 30.06.2007 and apply for occupation certificate by 31.12.2007.

The decision to get the building plan sanctioned and complete the construction by 31.12.2007 was not applicable in the cases wherein the calendar year 2007 was the 15th year.

Accordingly all such allottees in the cases wherein the calendar year 2007 is the 15th year may be allowed to get their building plan approved and complete at least minimum required construction on their plots and apply for occupation certificate by 31.12.2008, on payment of prescribed extension fee.

You are requested to take further action accordingly.

Memo No. HUDA-Acctts-86/22591-98

Dated 29-9-1986

Subject: Policy guidelines regarding grant of extension in time for construction of plots-charging of extension fee thereof – introduction of extension policy for residential & commercial.

I am directed to address you on the subject cited above and to state that the extension in the construction of plots shall now be allowed with effect from 2.9.86, in accordance with the following guidelines:-

1. The extension in time for the construction of plots will now be allowed after charging extension fee at the following rates:-

A) IN CASE OF RESIDENTIAL PLOTS

In case of residential plots, the extension fee will be charged @rs 1.50 per sq. meter for the 1st calendar year. For the subsequent calendar years, an additional amount of Re. 0.50 per sq. mt per year will be charged. For example, for the 1st calendar year of extension, the rate of extension fee will be re.1.50 per sq. mt. for the 2nd calendar year the rate would be Rs.2.00 per sq. mt, for the 3rd calendar year, the rate would be rs.2.50 per sq. mt, for the 4th calendar year Rs.3.00 per sq. mt and for the 6th calendar year Rs. 4/- per sq. mt and so on.

B) IN CASE OF COMMERCIAL PLOTS

(I) For single storey building: 2 times of the rates applicable in case of residential plots. For example, for the 1st calendar year the rate would be rs. 3.00 per sq. mt. for the 2nd calendar of Rs. 4/- per sq mtr. year 3rd calendar year Rs.5.00 per sq. mt and so on.

(II) For double storey 3 times of the rates applicable in case of residential or one storey and plots. For example, for the first calendar year the 1st rate would be Rs.4.50 per Sq.Mt., for the 2nd calendar year Rs.6.00 per sq. mt., for the 3rd calendar year Rs.7.50 per sq. mt. and so on.

(III) For more than two storey building 5 times of the rates applicable in case of residential Plots. For example for the 1st calendar year the rates would be Rs.7.50 per sq. mt. and for the 2nd calendar Rs.10.00 per sq. mt., for the 3rd calendar year Rs.12.50 per sq. mt. and so on.

2. For the 1st calendar year, the extension granted after 30th June shall be valid up to 31st December of the next year and the extension granted before 30th June will be valid up 31st December of the same years. For example, if the previous extension or period of 3 years after the offer of possession expires on 20.9.87 i.e. after 30th June, 1987 then the extension for the 1st calendar year will be valid up to 31.12.1988 with the payment of requisite extension fees. Similarly, if the previous extension or period of 3 years after the offer of possession expires on 6th may 1987 i.e. before 30th June, 1987 then the extension for the first year shall be valid up to 31.12.87 with the payment of the requisite extension fee. Since this policy has been made effective from 29/9/86 thus, all the extension allowed from 29/9/86 to 31.12.86 shall be valid upto 31.12.87 with the payment of requisite extension fee.

3. The extension fee will be applicable in respect of all the plots irrespective of the fact whether a plot holder apply or does not apply for the extension of the construction of plot. Notices may be served to the plot holders who have neither applied for the extension of the construction of plot nor constructed the house. In the event of non-payment of extension fee resumption proceedings under section 17 may be initiated.

4. In future no security will be charged in case of transfer of plots.

5. In case of old allottees, the extension fee will be charged on the expiry of the extension already granted to them. However, the rate of extension fee in such cases will be the same as applicable for the 1st calendar year. The previous guidelines regarding forfeiture of security etc. will remain enforce in respect of the extensions granted/time limit given (in case of transfer of plots) before the formation of these policies.
6. The period of two years allowed for the construction of plots after the offer of possession has now been increased to three years.
7. The transfer fee has been increased from Rs.50/- to Rs.100/-.
8. The amount so collected may be kept in a separate account to be called as "Receipt on account of extension fee" to be shown under the head "Capital Receipts" in column No. D-5 of the monthly account of the Estate Offices.
9. Estate Offices may also maintain sector-wise ledger in the proforma enclosed as Annexure-'A' for the maintenance of accounts and receipts under this head.
10. It has also been decided that all the allottees may be informed of those decisions and those decisions may be given wide publicity for the information of the general public. Estate Officers may take necessary action in this regard.

Memo No.UB-A-6-2016/46612-13

Dated: 11.08.2016

Subject: Providing one time opportunity to all allottees of Mandi Township/HUDA Urban Estates, who have occupied the buildings without obtaining valid Occupation Certificate, to make an application for issuance of Occupation Certificate - also waiving of fee beyond the actual date of completion – Revised policy.

This is with reference to the subject cited as above.

1. HUDA in the past had formulated policy guidelines on the subject, in the year 2004, which remained in force till the year 2014. These policy guidelines provided that “an allottee who has constructed and occupied the building constructed on residential/commercial/industrial & institutional plot, without obtaining a valid occupation certificate, may subsequently make an application before the Zonal Administrator, HUDA for issuance of the same alongwith cogent evidences to the completion of building by a specific date and, get the violations, if any, compounded. No extension fee was payable beyond the deemed date of completion of building as determined by the Zonal Administrator, HUDA”.
2. On the basis of reports received from field offices from time to time, it has been found that there still remain a considerable nos. of allottees who have been occupying the building without having a valid occupation certificate. The state of Haryana is celebrating the Year 2016 as “Golden Jubilee Year” of formation of Haryana State, and has decided that as a gesture and goodwill, all such allottees of Mandi Townships as well of Urban Estate carved by HUDA, may again be given another, but one time opportunity to those remaining allottees, to make an application for issuance of Occupation Certificate, for a limited period between 15.08.2016 to 31.12.2016
3. Under this one time relief, the allottees, who are desirous to get a valid occupation certificate, may make an application for issuance of a occupation certificate, along with cogent proof/documentary evidence to facilitate determining the date of completion of houses to the satisfaction of Zonal Administrators, get the violations (if any) compounded after depositing the payable compounding fee, as per policy. Besides the compounding charges the allottees shall have to pay one time processing fee of Rs. 10,000/-.
4. For cases where building was constructed before 11.09.87, the old rates of erstwhile Colonization Department shall be made applicable and for cases pertaining the period from 11.09.1987 onwards, the present HUDA compounding rates, as circulated vide memo no. A-UB-A6/ 2013/18221-42 dated 12.04.2013 would be applicable to the allottees of Mandi Township and Urban Estate areas both. Cases where Occupation Certificate has already been obtained under the previous policies shall not be opened again and reconsidered under this limited period facility.
5. Occupation Certificate requests of such allottees shall be examined/decided as per present extension policy, on the basis of date of application and not on the actual date of construction of building.
6. You are requested to take further action accordingly. Wide publicity of these policy guidelines may be done, through press note, distribution of pamphlets and beating of drums.
7. A copy of Agenda item and extract of proceedings of the meeting are sent herewith. You are therefore requested to take further action accordingly and action taken report may be sent to this office immediately. The above guidelines may be brought to the notice to the all concerned for implementation in letter and spirit.

Memo No. A-4-UB-2014/22550

Dated:-10.09.2014

Subject: Policy regarding Waiving of Extension fee and Issue of Occupation Certificate – Withdrawal thereof.

Reference on the subject cited above.

It is intimated that as per the decision of the Authority in its 79th meeting held on 29.08.2000, one time relief was given to the allottees who had completed construction but have not yet applied on prescribed form for obtaining valid occupation certificate and making the payment of extension fee upto the date when the construction was actually made by giving sufficient documentary proof in support of the time of construction of the building. All the Administrator(s) were empowered to compound the cases as per building bye-laws by charging compounding fee and extension fee for issuing valid occupation certificate as per instructions issued vide memo no. 24110-13 dated 19.09.2000.

This scheme was further extended time and again and circulated on 20.04.2001, 10.07.2002 and dated 23.04.2004. These policies were affectively windows for a shorter period to the plot owners to avail benefit of relaxation in extension fee & compounding fee to avoid resumption of their property on account of non construction within the stipulated period. The policy was in vogue for the last more than 10 years. Now new extension policy has been issued vide memo no.A-UB-A6/2013/18221-42 dated 12.04.2013 for the time extension for construction of residential/commercial plots and there is no time limit in the construction on residential/commercial plots and extension fee payable has been fixed for infinitum.

Therefore, the matter was placed before the Authority in its 108th meeting held on 07.08.2014 vide agenda item no. Auth-108(20) for consideration decision with the proposal to withdraw the policy guidelines issued vide memo no. A-1-2004/18664-84 dated 23.04.2004 as the scheme was open ended and sufficient period of over 10 years has elapsed. The Authority has accorded its approval & decided to withdraw the policy guidelines dated 23.04.2004 with prospective effect.

A copy of agenda item and copy of extract of proceedings of meeting are sent herewith for further necessary action.

You are therefore requested to take further action accordingly and action taken report may be sent to this office immediately.

Subject: Execution of conveyance deed at the time of issuance of Completion Certificate-clarification thereof.

Your attention is invited to headquarters instructions issued vide memo No. 4513-33 dated 9.2.99 wherein it has been clarified that the conveyance deed will be got executed before issue of completion certificate in such cases, where the schedule of payment is over, it was not specified in the said instructions whether it includes the payment schedule of enhanced compensation or not. The Estate Officers are thus insisting for execution of conveyance deed during the pendency of the recovery of enhanced compensation as per fixed schedule. It is observed that enhanced compensation is a part of the cost of plot and it becomes very difficult for the allottee to make the lump sum payment required for execution of conveyance deed and subsequently occupation certificate.

After due consideration of the matter, it has now been decided that where the schedule is fixed for the payment of enhanced compensation and the same is pending, in that case HUDA should not insist on the allottee for execution of conveyance deed for issuance of occupation/completion certificate. However, this will not be applicable in case of transfer of plot.

These instructions will come into force with immediate effect.

Memo No. A-6-UB-2019/160269-70

Dated:04.09.2019

Subject: Policy for allotment of residential plots to Defence Category – amendment in eligibility criteria thereof.

This is with reference on the subject cited above.

As per eligibility conditions specified in the brochure, officers of the ranks of Colonel and above and equivalent ranks of Navy & Air Force/Paramilitary Forces are eligible to apply for 1 Kanal Plot only. Other Commissioned Officers upto Lt. Col. and equivalent rank are eligible for 14 Marla & 10 Marla plots.

Various writ petitions were filed against the eligibility criteria of defence personnel as stated above before the Hon'ble High Court of Punjab & Haryana which were allowed with the directions to allot plots to the petitioners and in some cases, directions were issued to respondent- HSVP to verify the claim of the petitioner and determine their eligibility in the light of the decision in Chander Bhan Sharma's case. The SLP filed by HSVP in Chander Bhan's case has been dismissed leaving the questions of law open.

In the meantime Hon'ble High Court dismissed the CWP No. 6377 of 2016 titled as Badan Singh vs. State of Haryana & ors involving similar issue as is involved in the aforesaid cases. The review application no. 492/2017 was filed in CWP No. 5736/2013, the same was also dismissed.

The matter was discussed in the officers meeting held on 20.02.2018 under the chairmanship of CA, HSVP and it was observed that no policy has been found in respect of the ibid eligibility criteria of defence personnel. After deliberations, a view was formed that no useful purpose will be served by filing SLP even though questions of law are still to be decided. A view, therefore, emerged that orders passed in the writ petition may be complied with.

The matter was placed before the Pradhikaran in its 118th meeting held on 10/12.07.2019 with the proposal that the eligibility criteria for allotment of a particular size of plot to the Defence personnel, depending upon their ranks, which was set-aside by the Hon'ble High Court/Apex Court may be dispensed with for future floatations. The Pradhikaran has approved the proposal with the stipulation that if the number of applications are more than the available plots of defence category then e-auction may be held between the applicants. A copy of Agenda alongwith extract of the decision of the Pradhikaran is sent herewith.

You are requested to take further action in the matter accordingly and action taken report may be sent to this office immediately. These instructions may be brought to the notice of all concerned.

Memo No. A-11-87/805-15

Dated:- 09.01.1987

Subject: Amendments Change in policy of allotment of residential plots in the Urban Estates.

As per the existing policy, a person or his dependents can not acquire more than one plot in an Urban Estate in Haryana. HUDA also reserved 5% plots for allotment to Haryana Govt. Employees and the employees of the various Boards/Corporations etc. Under the Haryana Govt. If an employee is allotted a plot under this category he will not be eligible for allotment of another plot under this category. If an employee in this category has ever been allotted plots and subsequently he has disposed it of in that case also he will not be eligible to get the plot again under this category. These conditions were not applicable to certain other reserved categories like DQ, SC, BC, ESM, Defense Personnel, Freedom Fighters etc. Where like wise the plots are also reserved in certain proportion.

Therefore, in order to keep at par all the reserved categories, it has been decided that the condition applicable to the Govt. Employees and the employees of the various Boards and Corporations etc. Under the Haryana Govt in getting the plot be also made applicable to other categories where the plots are reserved. Keeping in view the requirement that the speculation in the allotment of land /house should be curbed as far as possible, it has been decided that when a person has been debarred to get more than one plot in any Urban Estate in the fresh allotment he should also be debarred from getting more than one plot in the said urban estate by way of transfer or otherwise. Therefore, while allotting/transferring the plot an affidavit in the allotment of residential plots in general category and in the reserved categories are also enclosed.

For Chief Administrator, HUDA.

AGENDA ITEM NO. A- XIX (4)

Allotment of residential plots under Discretionary quota of the Govt. all resumed, surrendered, cancelled and unsold plots by the Govt.

Before the constitution of the Haryana Urban Development Authority, the residential plots in the Urban Estates, Department were normally allotted by the various Estate Officers in accordance with the matter of allotment decided by the Govt. Consideration was given to the various sections of society depending upon their economic conditions. Policy of first come, first served was also adopted in a number of cases.

In the year 1971-72 the previous policy reservation of plots to the people of various sections of society was dispensed with. However, a certain percentage of plots was ought to be reserved for Govt. servants at the discretion of the Government. Accordingly, whenever a newly sector was carved 5% of the total numbers of plots in each category were reserved to be allotted by the Govt. at its discretion and another 5% were reserved for allotment to the Govt. servants. Besides, if additional plots were carved out, then also a reservation of 5% of plots at Govt. discretion and another 5% for Govt. servants were reserved. Thus the remaining plots used to be allotted either on first come first served basis or by row of plots to the general public as the case may be. But no reservation other than Govt. Quota/Govt. servants was allowed to any class/society.

In addition to the above reservation a small number of plots which become available from time to time on account of their having been surrendered by the original allottees or on account of their having been resumed for violation of any of condition of allotment, were also allotted by the Govt. at its discretion.

Again the Govt. desired that besides 5% becoming available from the newly carved out plots, resumed/surrendered plots be also continued to be allotted by the Govt. as here to force. Accordingly the proposal to this effect was placed in the 6th meeting of the Finance Committee held on 15.02.1978 which was duly approved. The policy was made applicable to plots in Faridabad and Panchkula. The Govt. desired that the plots in Faridabad and Panchkula. The Govt. desired that the plots becoming in the manner mentioned above in other estates be also allotted by the Govt. It is also mentioned here that after the allotment of plots as per regulations the allottee has to deposit the balance 15% price of the plots within 30 days from the date of allotment. If as a result of such plots are cancelled, these are being allotted by the Govt. and the instructions have been issued accordingly.

The Govt. has now issued instructions that the plots left unsold from the lottery shall also be kept at the discretion of the Govt. for allotment. In addition it may also be mentioned here that additional plots when carved out of the land kept for undetermined used as in sector 15A, Faridabad and at Panchkula would also be allotted by the Govt.

Thus from the above explanation following types of plots become available from time to time are to be allotted by the Govt.

- (i) Out of newly carved out plots in any sector/estate, 5% plots of all sizes are reserved for allotment by the Govt.
- (ii) All resumed/surrendered plots become available are also to be allotted by the Govt.
- (iii) All cancelled plots become available as a result of non payment of 15% price after allotment are also to be allotted by the Govt.
- (iv) All unsold plots left out of the lottery are also to be allotted by the Govt.

The committee may kindly consider and approved that above proposal.

Proceedings of the meeting of the HUDA held on 6th October, 1981 at 3.30 P.M under the Chairmanship of Ch. Khurshed Ahmed, Minister of Town & Country Planning and Urban Estate, Haryana in the Primary School Building (Chief Engineer's officer) sector-8, Panchkula.

Item No. XIX(4)

Allotment of residential plots under discretionary quota all resumed surrendered, cancelled and unsold plots by the Govt.

The proposal as contained in the agenda item was approved by the Authority. It was further decided that if Govt. considers to allot a part or whole of the Sector like 15-A or 21A Faridabad then it may be taken as a direction of the Govt. with retrospective effect.

1. Presently, the allotment of petrol pump/CNG/PNG station site is made on 99 years lease hold basis, however, the initial lease period of petrol pump sites is kept for 15 years. The matter was discussed in the 113th Meeting of the Pradhikaran held on 16.02.2018 under the Chairmanship of Hon'ble CM-cum-Chairman, HSVP. After detailed deliberations, it was desired to explore the possibilities of allotment of petrol pump/ CNG/PNG stations sites by way of e-tendering to the various oil companies/ CNG Companies etc.

Any person including OMCs(Oil Marketing Companies) and CNG, PNG Distribution company authorized for that city shall be eligible to participate in the open E-tendering/bidding.
3. Henceforth, the existing system of nominating the site as Petrol/Diesel Pump or CNG Stations is discontinued. These sites shall now be designated as "filling cum charging station". The sites can be used by the allottee for CNG and/or Petrol and/or Diesel Pump or allied activities (e.g. battery charging station for future e-vehicles etc.). The allottee can use the site for any/ all of the above specified purpose. However for CNG site, the size of the plot shall not be less than 30 x 60 sq. mtrs.

5. In addition to the premium payable in lump-sum, the successful bidder shall be liable to pay Annual Ground Rent equal to 2.5% of the accepted premium amount in the bid. GST or any other tax as applicable shall be payable extra.
6. This annual ground rent shall be increased Severy year based on the WPI (Wholesale Price Index). The WPI applicable on 1st April of allotment year shall be taken as “Base Year WPI”. For example, if a site is allotted during the financial year 2019-20 and WPI is 109.5 as on 1.4.2019. This shall be taken as “Base Year WPI”.
 - (i) The WPI of the year 2024-25 as on 1.4.2024 is say 118.6, then the annual ground rent for the financial year 2024-25 payable shall be $=[\text{Premium} \times (2.5/100) \times (118.6/109.5)]$. The figure of 2.5% is as per Regulation 8 (i) of HUDA (Disposal of Land and Buildings) Regulations, 1978 applicable for first 33 years of lease.
 - (ii) Similarly in the 35th year of lease i.e. for the financial year 2054-55, if the WPI as on 1.4.2054 is 275.1, the annual ground rent payable shall be $=[\text{Premium} \times (3.75/100) \times (275.1/109.5)]$. The figure of 2.5% shall change to 3.75% for next 33 years of lease, as per Regulation 8 (i) of HUDA (Disposal of Land and Buildings) Regulations, 1978.
 - (iii) The figure of 3.75% shall further change to 5% for remaining period of lease, as per Regulation 8 (i) of HUDA (Disposal of Land and Buildings) Regulations, 1978.
7. Annual Ground Rent shall be payable, in advance, in lump-sum by the 30th April of every Financial Year, failing which interest @9% p.a. (simple), or decided by the Pradhikaran from time to time shall be charged extra.
8. The site shall be allotted only for 10 Years on lease hold basis. The said lease period can further be extended upto 30 Years subject to the condition that the lessee continues to abide by all the conditions of the lease at the time of such extension and during the extended period.
9. All other terms & conditions of allotment shall be continued to remain the same.
10. The above matter was placed before the Pradhikaran in its 116th meeting held on 22.11.2018 vide Agenda item No. SUPPL.(1), 117th meeting held on 18.02.2019 vide Agenda item No. SUPPL. Memo No.A-1-2007/7179-7200 Dated: 26.02.2007

Subject: Allotment of Petrol Pump sites in the Urban Estates, developed by HUDA. Policy guidelines for Conversion of initial 15 years lease into 99 years perpetual lease.

This is in continuation of this office Memo No.A-1[P]-2000/6020-42 dated 22.3.2000 on the subject cited as above.

The current HUDA policy dealing with disposal of petrol pump sites, in force approved by the Authority, in its 77th meeting held on 24.02.2000 and further circulated vide memo referred to above, stated that henceforth the available petrol pump sites shall be floated for leasing out only in favour of the Nationalized oil companies, Private oil companies, Govt. departments, Boards and corporations, once in a year. In cases, where more than one application has been received, against a specific site, the allotment shall be made by holding draw of lot. The war widows of operation Vijay (Kargil) shall be given preference in the allotment.

The allotment is made on 99 years lease hold basis, however the initial lease period is kept for 15 years.

Before formulation of the above policy, the allotment of petrol pumps sites was being made in favour of the individual letter of intent holder also. In number of such allotments made in the past, the initial period of 15 year's lease has either expired or is going to expire. Since, so far no specific policy procedure for conversion of 15 years lease after its expiry to that of 99 year's perpetual lease has been formulated and circulated; therefore, the matter has been engaging the attention.

The matter was processed and placed before the Authority, in its 98th meeting held on 12.12.2006. It has been decided that conversion of initial lease period of 15 years after its expiry may be converted into 99 years perpetual lease under the following situations.

1. Wherein the allottee, either an individual or oil Company/Board or Corporation has not violated any of the terms and conditions of the allotment, during the period.
2. The lessee is not in the arrears.

The conversion shall further be subject to the payment of the Premium/capitalized value and revised ground rent, which shall be worked out as under.

The capitalized value of the site shall be worked out taking into account the 7.85% as an average rate of interest, or as revised and circulated by the Authority from time to time. The premium payable and revised ground rent shall be worked out and charged on the basis of following formulas:-

1. Area of the site to be allotted.
2. Institutional rate of the year.
3. Cost including commercial element =
Area x Institutional rate of the year x 2.
4. Monthly Rent for one filling point of petrol and one filling point of diesel=

$$\text{Amount of } \frac{\text{Sr.No. } 3 \times 5}{100 \times 12}$$

5. Yearly Rent= Amount of Sr. No. 4 × 12.

6. Capitalized value = $\frac{\text{yearly Rent} \times 100}{7.85}$

The revised ground monthly rent shall be worked out and recovered as under:

1. Equal to 2% of the premium per annum for the first 33 years.
2. Equal to 3% of the premium per annum for the next 33 years.
- Equal 4% of the premium per annum for the next 33 years

The above premium and ground rent shall be for one filling point each of diesel and petrol.

For every additional point, premium and ground rent @ 12.5% shall be charged extra. For sites falling on state Highways the schedule road, the premium shall increased by 25%. For sites falling on National Highways the premium shall be increased by 50%.

Premium shall be payable either in lump sum within a period of 30 days from the date of issue of demand notice or in four equated bi annual 4installments, along with interest @ 9% p.a.(simple), or as decided by the Authority from time to time.

All other terms and conditions of allotment shall however remain unchanged.

It has further been decided that the Zonal Administrators HUDA shall be the final accepting Authority in the matter, who shall decide such cases in the manner given here before.

You are, requested to take further action accordingly.

Memo No. A-7-UB-2021/187377

Dated:29.10.2021

Subject:- Allotment of incidental open spaces to the allottees of corner plots in various Urban Estates in Haryana.

In modification of this office memo no. A-11-87/7949-64 dated 19.03.1987 and memo no. A-6-UB-2018/96076-77 dated 11.05.2018 on the subject cited above.

The matter has been considered and examined. It is observed that large number of incidental open spaces adjoining the corner plots in the sectors floated by HSVP in the entire Haryana State is available and in some cases these spaces available are more than the size of adjoining corner plots. These vacant lands are prone to encroachment. It is felt that this land needs to be utilized in the manner to maximize the revenue for HSVP through monetization of said vacant land. It is therefore, considered desirable to amend the existing policy on the subject. Hence, the present instruction is issued to provide for the modification in the existing policy to make it in line with the aforesaid object in following terms:

- i. Only such incidental open spaces which are irregular in shape and cannot be planned for carving out of plots will be considered for allotment. Such entire incidental open space be considered for allotment to the allottee of 'P' in case such 'P' plot is already allotted. Such an allotment will be made at present base price of the similarly situated plot in said sector with 1 FAR. The allottee will be allowed to construct on such incidental open spaces to the extent the zoning of the plot permits. Alternatively, the allottee may consume the FAR of plot carved out of incidental open space for additional construction on the existing structure of 'P' plot within permissible zoning parameters & keep such incidental open spaces open for gardening.
- ii. In case the existing allottee of 'P' plot did not agree for allotment of entire incidental open space, then feasibility of carving out the plot be examined and carried out. In such a case, if the allottee has paid 10 % additional charges for "P" plot, then it will be refunded to the existing allottee along with interest calculated @ 5.5% per annum, from date of deposit till its payment by HSVP.
- iii. In case where plot of 'P' category has not been allotted and is still with HSVP and site conditions/zoning allows, then new plots be carved out in the available incidental open space wherever feasible. Such plot be disposed of through process of e-auction and any allottee thereof will be allowed to construct the plot as per provisions contained in Haryana Building Code, 2017 and as amended from time to time and as per zoning regulations.
- iv. Allotment of such incidental open spaces should not obstruct/affect traffic circulation.
- v. An agreement may be executed with the plot-holder to the effect that no construction other than as specified in this policy will be carried out and in case of violation of this condition, the plot shall be resumed and the construction, if any, shall be demolished without any compensation.
- vi. Online application will be submitted on HSVP portal for allotment of incidental open space. No physical application will be permitted.
- vii. The Chief Administrator, HSVP will be the competent Authority to allot the additional incidental open spaces as per above policy.
- viii. The one time exercise to identify and list all such incidental open spaces, as per para(i) & (iii) be carried out and submitted by the Estate Officers within 30 days of issue of this memo. The allotment/auction shall be initiated after apprising the Chairman of the same.

This has the approval of Hon'ble Chief Minister-cum-Chairman, HSVP.

Memo No. A-KK-2008/UB/39838-68

Dated 26-11-2008

Subject Policy regarding utilization of pockets earmarked as HUDA land to be planned later on or open space.

1. It has been observed that while planning of an area in an Urban Estate or a Sector, sometimes such like unusual or uneven open spaces, strips, isolated island type pockets which cannot be planned as regular usage are left out un-planned which cannot be gainfully utilized as an integral part of the sector's planning. Such parcels of land are marked either as "HUDA land to be planned later on" or as an "open space". In the absence of any specific policy guidelines on the subject, these pockets are subsequently disposed off on case to case basis with the prior approval of the State Govt. / Council of Ministers. It has been observed that this process delays the disposal of such land which makes it prone to unauthorized encroachment or its usage as garbage dumps since it is very difficult to guard such isolated strips with the available work force.

2. It has, therefore, been decided by the Council of Ministers in its meeting held on 21st October, 2008 that for expeditious and appropriate disposal of such parcels of land, Hon'ble Chief Minister shall be competent to make allotment of such areas not exceeding two acres on case basis. All other cases pertaining to more than two acres of land will continue to be dealt with as per the existing procedure.

Memo No.A11-P/77/88/19149-59 Dated 30.05.1988

Subject :Hiring of shops in the Urban Estates developed by HUDA.

I am directed to address you on the subject noted above.

In the past Haryana Urban Development Authority has been following the practice of letting out built up shops and booths in the Urban Estates to private individuals and Government agencies in the initial stages of the development of the sectors. The shops run by the individuals and some commercial organizations of the Government such as Confed, Haryana State Handloom & Handicrafts Corporation Ltd., etc. have proved to be very effective in creating nucleus of growth in these sectors. However, in that case of private individuals, quite often, it has become difficult for Haryana Urban Development Authority to evict them after the lease period was over lessees continue to be extended. In some of the old sectors the shops/booths were letter allotted to these lessees at the reserve price.

The Authority accorded its approval for allotting the built up shops booths in Urban Estates developed by HUDA to the lesees at the reserve price as per details given below:-

1. In respect of private individuals.

The token of appreciation of the pioneering efforts of the leases of shops/booths in various sectors of HUDA, it was decided that after a period of 5 years from the date of original lease, the lease would be given an option either to purchase of shops/booths, the same be offered to him at the reserve price fixed after the first auction. The option would be withdrawn thereafter, and would not be available to him. Rent would be, however, be charged at commercial rates.

2. In case of Govt. Agencies.

It was decided that Haryana State Govt. Agencies such as Confed, Handloom Corporation etc. may be given shops/booths on lease at a nominal rent of Rs.1 per sq.ft. for the first two years for pioneering activity in a sector, and subsequently rent may be charged at commercial rates. If at any time the Govt. agencies wanted to purchase the shops/booths, they may be charged at commercial rates. If at any time the Govt. agencies wanted to purchase the shops/booths, they may be treated at par with the individual leases.

This may be brought in the notice of all concerned.

Regarding regularization of unauthorized religious construction on public places.

This is in partial modification in memo No. A-2-UB-I-2010/13068-91 dated 30.03.2010 on the subject cited above.

The matter regarding charging of rates for regularization of unauthorized religious construction on HSVP land has been re-examined and considered. It has been decided that rates for regularization of such buildings may be charged as per following formula:

- (i) Rates of institutional plot in that Town at the time of allotment of religious site plus present rates of institutional plot divided by 2 and 15% resultant rates may be charged.
- (ii) In cases where rates of allotment is not available, the prevalent rates on the date of formulation of HSVP policy dated 30.03.2010 plus present rates of institutional plot divided by 2 and 15% resultant rates may be charged.

Illustration:

1. Prevalent rates of institutional plot in the year 2010 at Gurugram was Rs.7500/- per sq. mtr. and present rates is Rs. 50000/- per sq. mtr. then rates to be charged would be as under:
 $Rs.7500 + Rs.50000 = Rs.57500$ divided by 2 = Rs.28,750/-
15% of Rs. 28,750/-=Rs.4313/-per sq. mtr.
2. Prevalent rates of institutional plot in the year 2010 at Karnal was Rs.4600/- per sq. mtr. and present rates is Rs. 17,000/- per sq. mtr. then rates to be charged would be as under:
 $Rs.4600 + Rs.17,000 = Rs.21,600$ divided by 2= Rs.10,800/-
15% of Rs.10,800/-= Rs.1620/-per sq. mtr.

It has been further decided that cost of the land may be recovered in 2 half yearly installments from the concerned institution and after the recovery of full cost of the land, letter may be issued to the concerned institution regarding regularization of such building. Other terms and conditions will be remains as such mentioned in memo No. A-2-UB-I-2010/13068-91 dated 30.03.2010.

- Memo No. A-2-UB-I-2010/ 13068-91

Dated: 30.03.2010

Subject: Regarding framing a policy for regularization of unauthorized religious construction on public places.

In compliance with orders dated 07.12.2009 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India on the issue, a policy for regularization of unauthorized religious construction on public places has been formulated and got approved from the Hon'ble Chief Minister, Haryana and the same is as under:-

A. BACKGROUND

The Department of Urban Estates Haryana has been making acquisition of land for Haryana Urban Development Authority. The Administrative Department i.e. Town & Country Planning Deptt. have formulated specific policy guidelines bearing No.5/30/2007/2TCP dated 26/10/07 for release of land from acquisition proceedings. These guidelines specifically lay down that the land falling under built up structures and further any religious institution or any building owned by a community will also be considered for release. Hence, religious buildings are normally released from acquisition before issuance of notification U/S 6 of the Land Acquisition Act. However, some of the built up structures/religious buildings are acquired due to the reasons that some institution do not come forward to lodge objections U/S 5 of the Land Acquisition Act 1894.

To deal with such a situation, there are no specific policy guidelines for release of such land structure after announcement of award. In some of the cases, Hon'ble courts have also observed that release of land after announcement of award is not an appropriate action. Hence, there is a need of specific policy guidelines for release of such structures/religious buildings which although were in existence before issuance of notification U/S 4 of the Land Acquisition Act, but the land falling under these structures/buildings was not released due to some procedural lapses, or otherwise.

After acquisition of land while planning the area due weightage is given to carve out the sites for religious/social/charitable buildings. As per norms at-least two sites for religious/social/charitable institutions are provided in each sector, thus leaving little chance of tolerating any unauthorized religious buildings in the planned areas.

B. PROPOSED POLICY

- a) Under the normal circumstances, the religious buildings existing unauthorisedly on public places shall be removed/demolished in due course of law.
- b) Fresh and up coming encroachment by way of unauthorized religious construction shall not be allowed under any circumstances and be removed immediately. Only the religious buildings constructed before 29th September, 2009 (the date of direction of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India) falling in the following categories shall be considered for regularization under this policy:-
 - i) The religious buildings involving large public sentiments demolishing where of may pose serious threat to law and order of the area.
 - ii) The religious buildings of a particular sect/religion, whose followers have been residing in the locality in large numbers, but no institution of the sect/ religion exists in & around that sect/area. Besides, broad composition of different sect/religion at the State/District/ Town level with due regard to minority community shall also be taken into consideration.
 - iii) The religious buildings functioning on a site of conforming land use provided.
 - iv) The existing building does not obstruct laying of infrastructure like roads, water supply, electrification etc etc.

- v) The structures do not exist in such a way as to cause traffic hazards and endanger the life of the people.
- vi) The religious buildings/structures are not being used by any individual for their own personal interest/gains.
- vii) The functioning of the institution in a particular area is not spoiling any social system setup of the area.

- 9) An equal number of residential plots, to that of claims, received from the land owners, whose land has been acquired for the development of sectors are reserved for allotment in their favour, under oustee policy.

All other terms and conditions of eligibility will remain the same as per previous policy.

The Cabinet in its meeting held on 27.03.1997 had decided that all institutional plots would be allotted by the Authority after inviting applications on the basis of recommendations of the Committee constituted for the purpose headed by Zonal Administrator. In case of allotment of land to Govt. Departments, Public Sectors Undertakings, Corporations it has been decided that the earlier policy being followed may be continued with the approval of the Authority as in these cases the allotment is to be made to Govt. Department/Undertakings.

The Authority in its 70th meeting held on 23.04.1997 vide agenda item No.22 and 31 has approved the above decisions. The copy of the memorandum to modify the auction policy placed before the Cabinet in its meeting dated 27.03.1997 its decision thereon alongwith copy of agenda copy of agenda item No.A-70(22) and A-70(31) and decision of the Authority are also sent herewith for strict compliance.

Memo No. A-5-UB-2016/2941

Dated: 28.06.2016

Subject: - Regarding amendment in Transfer Policy of Nursing Homes/Clinic Sites.

In continuation of policy guidelines approved by the Authority on 05.12.1990 & subsequent amendment made on 03.03.1999, 21.05.1999, 08.03.2000 on the subject cited above.

In the existing policy guidelines there was no provision for grant of transfer permission of Nursing Homes/Clinic sites allotted before 03.03.1999. It was engaging attention and in order to redress the grievances, the existing policy was reviewed again. After detailed deliberation on the above policies it was felt that for all practical purposes, the sites allotted through auction after 03.03.1999 are treated at par with commercial sites.

Accordingly, the matter was placed before the Authority in its 110th meeting held on 12.05.2016 under the Chairmanship of Hon'ble CM, Haryana-cum-Chairman, HUDA vide Agenda Item No. 22 for consideration and approval. The proposal has been approved by the Authority as under:-

- i) For the first transfer: - As allottee has already got benefit of allotment of site at reserved price, for the Nursing Home Sites allotted (not auctioned), transfer fee may be charged at double of the transfer fee rates of commercial sites that were allotted through auction.
- ii) For the second transfer: - For the second transfer, the rate for transfer of allotted Nursing Home sites (not auctioned) shall be at par with commercial rates of transfer.
- iii) Presently, for transfer of built up residential/commercial sites, Administrative Charge of Rs. 5000/- is applied where full payment has been made and conveyance deed has been executed by the allottee. It was decided that the rates for transfer of residential/commercial sites, built up or not built, as mentioned in the policy dated 08.03.2000 be updated as per present rates by the Accounts Branch, HUDA (HQ).
- iv) For future allotments transfer permission can be allowed only in case where the Nursing Home has been running for at least 5 years.
- v) Vacant plots should not be allowed to be transferred.
- vi) Minimum 25% built up area should be a pre-condition for transfer of nursing home sites.

You are therefore requested to take further action in the matter accordingly. These instructions may be brought to the notice of all concerned for strict compliance.

Memo No.UB-A-6-2016/46603-04

Dated: 11-08-2016

Subject:Allotment of hospital sites earmarked for private parties/other entrepreneurs in the Urban Estates developed by HUDA-Modification thereof.

This is in-partial modification of this office memo. No. A-1-90/32463-83 dated 06.11.1998 on the subject cited above.

2. Some times in the past, it was being felt that owing to changed scenario, the allotment process of disposal of hospital sites requires some immediate modifications, so as to make it more transparent and further at par with mode being adopted by other state agencies, like HSIIDC, who have been allotting such sites through auction only. It has also being experienced that in case, open auction is allowed then there is highly probability that the sites will be acquired by businessmen with no experience/expertise in health, but only with a motive of profit. This will also increase the cost of health services.
3. Therefore, after careful consideration it has been decided that hence forthwith, the hospital sites carved out in Urban Estates developed by HUDA shall be disposed of by way of “limited auction”. In the process firstly application from the eligible applicants in accordance with the eligibility criteria laid down in existing policy guidelines bearing memo. no. A-1-90/32463-83 dated 06.11.1998 shall be invited through press/public notices. The applications, so received, shall be processed by the existing standing Screening Committee handed by Chief Administrator, HUDA. The applicants found eligible vis-à-vis laid down eligibility criteria may only be permitted to participate and submit their bid/e-auction. The highest bidder shall be declared successful.
4. The Chief Administrator, HUDA shall be the final accepting authority in the matter. He shall be authorized to withdraw any site or reject any bid without assigning any reason. In case only single bid is received /only a single applicant qualifies for the bid, the bid shall be straightway rejected and the site shall be re-advertised. If however, single bid is received subsequently also then it will be accepted, provided it is more than the reserve price.
5. The mode of recovery of cost and other terms and conditions of allotment as envisaged in the HUDA Guidelines bearing no. A-1/1990/32463-83 dated 06.11.1998 shall however remain the same.
6. This issues with the prior approval of Authority accorded in its 111th meeting held on 27.07.2016.
7. A copy of Agenda item and extract of proceedings of the meeting are sent herewith. You are therefore requested to take further action accordingly and action taken report may be sent to this office immediately. The above guidelines may be brought to the notice to the all concerned for implementation in letter and spirit.

Memo No. A-6-UB-2019/72503

Dated: 18.04.2019

Subject: Policy for allotment of college sites to the private parties – amendment in schedule of payment.

As per existing policy 50% college sites are auctioned to the private parties. The cost of these sites are recovered as under:-

- The 10% of the quoted bid amount shall be deposited by the successful bidder by 5 PM of the day succeeding to final bid closing day.
- The 15% amount of the bid amount shall be deposited within 45 days of the date of auction.
- The remaining 75% amount in lump sum within a period of 180 days from the date of auction.

RKKR Foundation made a recommendation that system of payment by installments may be introduced in respect of e-auction of college sites at various sectors of Gurugram and bring it at par with the educational institution site located RGEC Sonipat as the Charitable Trust and Societies find it difficult to take bank loans as the bank do not take educational properties as collateral securities making it impossible to get a loan. The e-auction payment terms and conditions by HSVP will eliminate genuine educational trust/societies and bring in commercial bidders.

The representation of RKKR Foundation for relaxation of lumpsum payment was placed before the Pradhikaran for due deliberation and decision vide agenda item no. 117th (12). After careful consideration it was decided that the representation of M/s RKKR Foundation be accepted and in-future college sites auctioned by way of e-auction be provided same terms & conditions for payment as is available in case of allottees of RGEC Sites. The Authority (HSVP) shall endeavour to tie up with Banks for front-end payment tie-up of auction price to safeguard its financial interest. Henceforth the cost of college sites shall be recovered as under:-

- The 10% of the highest bid amount is paid on the spot by the highest bidder.
 - Remaining 90% amount in lump sum within a period of 60 days without interest.
- OR
- 15% within a period of 30 days from the date of issue of letter of intent.
 - Remaining 75% in 6 equal annual installments with 12% interest or as revised by the Authority from time to time. However, the interest on remaining amount of installments shall accrue from the date of offer of possession. On delayed payments, penal interest @ 15% p.a. shall be charged extra or as revised by the Authority from time to time.
 - On the receipt of lump sum OR 25% amount, regular letter of allotment shall be issued and the possession of the site shall be offered.
 - No moratorium period on any size category of plot shall be available and the allottee shall be required to make payments as per schedule given in the allotment letter.

All other terms and conditions of eligibility will remain the same as per previous policy.

The Cabinet in its meeting held on 27.03.1997 had decided that all institutional plots would be allotted by the Authority after inviting applications on the basis of recommendations of the Committee constituted for the purpose headed by Zonal Administrator. The Authority after consideration of this matter vide agenda item No.A-70(31) has decided that the policy being followed earlier in respect of petrol pumps, LPG Godowns, kerosene depots etc. be followed with the approval of the Authority as those sites cannot be put to auction there being only one dealer for a site. However, rent being charged has further been revised, which is being communicated separately.

In case of allotment of land to Govt. Departments, Public Sectors Undertakings, Corporations it has been decided that the earlier policy being followed may be continued with the approval of the Authority as in these cases the allotment is to be made to Govt. Department/Undertakings.

The Authority in its 70th meeting held on 23.04.1997 vide agenda item No.22 and 31 has approved the above decisions. The copy of the memorandum to modify the auction policy placed before the Cabinet in its meeting dated 27.03.1997 its decision thereon alongwith copy of agenda copy of agenda item No.A-70(22) and A-70(31) and decision of the Authority are also sent herewith for strict compliance.

Memo No –A-1-2003/21050

Dated: 4/7/2003

Subject: Mortgage permission in respect of Institutional Plots.

This is with reference to the subject cited as above.

It is intimated that HUDA has been granting permission to mortgage the allotted residential/commercial plots in favour of Financial Institutions /Banks subject to the condition the HUDA shall have first and paramount charge over the ownership of plot to the extend of unpaid portion of cost of plot, and other usual terms and conditions.

However, in case of institutional sites, as per terms and conditions of allotment letter, allottee was not being permitted to transfer the institutional site by way of sale, gift, mortgage or otherwise, the plot/building or any right/title or interest therein. The allottees have been making request/representations to allow mortgage permission for institutional plots, as most of the plots/sites are of bigger size and under normal circumstance, and it was not possible to raise the construction on these plots without availing loan facility. The matter has been considered and examined. The matter/proposal was placed before the Authority in its 88th meeting held on 22.05.2003 vide agenda item No. A-88 (11) for consideration and decision. The Authority has approved the proposal. Accordingly, it has been decided that the mortgage permission in case of institutional plots may also be allowed so as to facilitate them to raise loan from financial institutions/ banks, on usual terms and conditions, as are being made applicable in case of residential, commercial plots and group housing flats.

You are, requested to take further action accordingly and compliance report may be sent to this office immediately

Memo No.UB-A-4-2014/19590

Dated: 04.08.2014

Subject: - Policy regarding de-resumption of residential plots which have been resumed due to misuse.

It has come to the notice that many residential plots have been resumed by HUDA in the past due to misuse of plot for purposes other than residential after following due process of law. However, the allottees of such plots or their successors have challenged the same before the Appellate/Revisional Authorities and also in Courts of law. The Govt. has carefully considered the matter in exercise of the powers conferred under Section 30 (I) of the HUDA Act, 1977 and directs that such resumed plots may be restored to its owners subject to following conditions:-

1. The misuse of the plot has been stopped and the report of the field office alongwith photographs has come on record.
2. The allottee gives an affidavit in writing that it has stopped the misuse and will not use the plot in future for purposes other than what is permitted failing which he will not claim any leniency.
3. The total consideration money of the plot including enhancement price has already been paid in full.
4. The appeal/revision case has been filed by the allottee only and not by any GPA. The Govt. does not want to encourage trading of resumed plots and give benefit to the GPA holders except where the GPA has been executed within the family and is not hit by the orders of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in SLP (C) No. 13917 of 2009 titled as Suraj Lamp & Industries Pvt. Ltd. Vs. State of Haryana & Anr.
5. The allottee shall be liable to pay charges on account of misuse @ Rs. 100/- per sq. mtr. irrespective of the period of misuse.
6. Initiation of eviction proceedings under Section 18 of the HUDA Act shall not be a bar for restoration of such plots. However, where the resumption of plots has been upheld by the Hon'ble High Court/Supreme Court, such cases shall not be reopened.

These orders will be effective in respect of all the residential plots which have been resumed till 30.04.2014. If appeals/revisions in respect of such plots are pending before the Appellate/Revisional Authorities, the necessary orders in terms of this policy shall be passed by the Appellate/ Revisional Authorities. In case these resumption orders have been challenged in the Courts of law, the concerned Estate Officer shall move a Civil Miscellaneous Application in the Court where the case is pending mentioning that HUDA is willing to restore the plot in terms of this policy. In respect of all other plots where no appeal/revision/Court is pending, a time period of 3 months from the date of issuance of this policy is given to such allottees to move an application before the concerned Estate Officer. Thereafter, a decision shall be taken by the concerned Estate Officer with the approval of the concerned Zonal Administrator.

This policy will be applicable with immediate effect and shall cease to operate on 31.12.2014.

This is in continuation of this office memo No. A-6-UB/2011/97771-93 Dated.14.06.2011.

It has been observed that the notices under section 17 of the HUDA Act are not being sent to the allottees under registered cover. As a result of this lapse it becomes difficult to defend the resumption order when the same is challenged in the courts. All the notices under HUDA Act including the notices under section 17 are required to be sent through registered post in view of provision of section 42 of the HUDA Act.

It has also been observed that the notices under section 17 are not being sent on the changed address inspite of the fact that the request of the allottee for change of address is available on the file. The resumption order passed on the basis of such a notice can also not be sustained in the eyes of law.

In view of this all the Estate Officers are directed to strictly follow the instructions given here under:

1. The notices under HUDA Act including the notices under section 17 of the HUDA Act shall be sent under registered cover.
2. All the notices under the HUDA Act shall be sent to the allottee on the changed address if any.

Subject: Allotment of residential plot under GSRQ-Removal of integrity certificate thereof.

Reference on the subject cited above.

Out of total plots, 10% plots are reserved for Haryana Government Servants including the employees of Boards, Corporations established by Haryana Government. After being declared as successful in the draw of lots, a certificate to the effect that there is nothing adverse against the integrity for the last 10 years of the successful official, is required to be furnished by the competent Authority. The requisite certificate is to be given within a period of 90 days from the date of demand by the respective Department/corporation as the case may be.

It has been observed that while issuing the integrity certificate, a considerable time is taken by the concerned Department. In certain case the said certificate is not issued even after months due to non-availability of ACRs causing un-necessary delay in issuing allotment letters to the successful applicant/ employees. In some cases, the integrity certificate is not issued in favour of successful employees due to adverse entry in the record of the employees concerned. This matter has been re –considered and after careful consideration, it has been decided that the condition of integrity certificate in GSRQ category will not remain inforce and is hereby dispensed with. This decision will be made applicable with immediate effect.

Memo No. A-1-2006/15704

Dated :26.04.2012

Subject:-Regarding acceptance of 15% payment in respect of fresh allotment after draw of lots.

It has been brought to the notice of the authorities that Estate Officers continue to accept the installments against the plots where the allottee has failed to deposit the 15% amount within 30 days of the issue of the allotment letter, whereas it has been clearly provided in sub Regulation-5 of the Haryana Urban Development Authority (Disposal of Land and Buildings) Regulations 1978 that in case the allottee fails to either accept or refuse the allotment within stipulated period, the allotment shall be deemed to be cancelled. The allottees later on approach the courts for restoration of the allotment on the ground that the Estate Officer has accepted the instalments and it becomes difficult to defend the interest of HUDA in such litigation.

In view of this the Estate Officers are directed not to accept the installments where the allottee has failed to deposit the 15% amount within the stipulated period of 30th April, 2012.

Any failure to comply with these instructions shall be viewed seriously and strict disciplinary action will be taken against the defaulting officials/ officers.

Memo No. A-6-UB-2019/42329-30

Dated:05.03.2019

Subject: Policy with regard to transfer of plot on the basis of registered sale deed – amendment thereof.

This is in partial modification of this office memo No. A-4(VKS)-2011/1182-1215 dated 12.01.2011 on the subject cited above.

It was decided to dispense the practice of physical presence of transferor/transferee at time of submission of final documents for issuance of re-allotment letter, in cases of transfer where transfer is being effected through registered sale deed as the transferor/transferee had to appear before the Registrar/Sub-Registrar for execution of sale deed. Therefore, the transferor/transferee may not be called for physical presence after issue of transfer permission in the cases where transfer is effected through sale deed. However, these instructions are not being followed by HSVP offices.

The matter has been re-considered and examined. It has been decided that the same procedure as is done in case of transfer of plot on the basis of registered WILL may also be followed where transfer is affected through registered sale deed by dispensing with the practice of physical presence of transferor/transferee at the time of submission of final documents for issuance of re-allotment letter. Thus the following procedure shall be followed in such case:-

The Estate Officer, concern after doing due diligence as to the genuineness of a registered sale deed may issue a public notice at the cost of the applicant(s) within 30 days of the receipt of the request in 2 newspapers – One in Hindi & other in English, having wide circulation in the area, giving particulars of the property and applicants, who have applied for transfer of ownership rights The public notice should clearly state that if any persons/legal heir(s) is/are having any objection against the transfer of ownership, the objector(s) can submit the objection to the Estate Officer in writing along with supporting documents within one month of the publication of the notice and if no objection is received within 30 days of the publication of the notice in the aforesaid manner, then the property shall be transferred in the name of the holder of the registered sale deed in the records of HUDA subject to the fulfillment of other conditions regarding submission of the affidavit, indemnity bond etc. if any objection is received, then the objector should be asked to get the dispute settled from the competent court of jurisdiction regarding the genuineness of the sale deed but during the pendency of the dispute, the ownership shall be transferred in the name of the holder of the registered sale deed subject to the final outcome of the case and fulfillment of other conditions regarding submission of the affidavit, indemnity bond etc. and payment of all outstanding dues.

The matter was placed before the Pradhikaran in its 117th meeting held on 18.02.2019 vide Agenda item No. A-117th(17) for consideration and decision.

The Pradhikaran has accorded its approval. Further, it has also been decided that before issuance of re-allotment letter the verification of sale deed will be made. If the sale deed is found bogus on verification the same will be cancelled. A copy of agenda and extract of proceeding of the Pradhikaran is enclosed herewith for your reference and record.

You are requested to take further action accordingly and action taken report may be sent to this office immediately. This has the approval of CA, HSVP.

Memo No.A-4 (VKS)-2011/1182-1215

Dated: 12.01.2011

Subject : Press Clipping letter as “REGISTRY KE BAAD HUDA ME HAZRI KO LEKAR BAWAL” – dispense with physical presence of transferor/ transferee.

Reference on the subject cited above.

This office has been receiving complaint time and again regarding harassment caused to general public during the process of marking of attendance. In the recent past, a news item also appeared in the “Punjab Kesri” dated 03.12.2010 regarding alleged harassment during the process of marking of attendance of transferor / transferee being forced after issue of transfer permission letter. The matter has been looked into. It has been found that no instructions for physical presence of transferor/transferee at the time of submission of documents for re-allotment letters have even been issued by this office. Probably this procedure has been adopted by the different Estate Officers at their own level for their own convenience.

The above issue was discussed in a meeting with Financial Commissioner & Principal Secretary to Govt., Haryana, Town & Country Planning Department in a meeting held on 04.01.2011. After a careful consideration and deliberation(s), it has been decided to dispense with the practice of physical presence of transferors/transferee at the time of submission of final documents for issuance of re-allotment letter, in cases of transfer where transfer is being effected through a registered sale deed as the transferor/transferee had to appear before the Registrar/Sub-Registrar for execution of sale deed. Their photos/identity is also captured at the time of registry. Hence the transferor/transferee may not be called for physical presence after issue of transfer permission in the cases where transfer is effected through sale deed. This instructions may be brought in the notice of all concerned and be also displayed at notice board for the information and convenience of general public.

The matter has been legally examined and the advice of LR, Haryana has also been taken. It has been decided on the basis of law laid down by Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Bhoop Singh V. Ram Singh Major & others reported in AIR 1996 SC 196, Hon'ble High Court in Kishori Lal Vs. Babu Ram and others reported in 2003 (2) PLR 54 and Sh. Sona Ram and others Vs., Sh. Mulkh Raj and another reported in 1999 (1) PLJ 165 that a decree of order of a court (except decree or order expressed to be made on a compromising immovable property other than that which is the subject matter of the suit of proceeding) passed by dint of an oral exchange with delivery of possession of immovable property of any value does not require registration.

The permission to transfer of such plot/built up property on the basis of such decrees passed by the courts should be effected without execution of deed of conveyance. However, the collusive decree which is violative of HUDA policies should be challenged through a different suit and efforts be made to get the earlier order reversed.

It is, therefore, requested, that all such similar cases may be dealt with the disposed off accordingly.

The matter regarding permission to transfer of built up/Constructed plots within family members on the basis of decrees passed by the courts and without execution of deed of conveyance has been examined on a reference on the subject received from Administrator, Gurgaon and it has been decided that decrees passed by Civil courts is binding upon HUDA unless the same is got reversed from the court of competent jurisdiction. In case HUDA has not been impleaded as party, the collusive decree passed by the court should be challenged through a different suit and efforts be made to get the earlier order reversed.

It is therefore requested, that all such similar cases may be dealt with and disposed off accordingly.

3. Within 30 days of the provisional permission the transferor should submit his indemnity bond duly attested by Magistrate Ist Class, alongwith security and attested affidavit for the transferee. Other legal documents supporting the case as required for the satisfaction of the Estate Officer (e.g. Succession certificate, registration deed etc.) should also be submitted.

Memo No. A-7-UB-2024/64912

Dated:13.03.2024

Subject: Regarding allotment of land to Govt. Departments in Urban Estates developed by HSVP- Charging of rates thereof.

Reference to the subject cited above.

Government through order dated 04.01.2024 has directed to work out differential rates for government departments and agencies particularly when the purpose is public utility.

Agenda item No. 34 was placed before Pradhikaran in its 126th meeting held on 07.02.2024 and same has been approved. Further, it was decided that HSVP policy dated 27.06.2023 with regard to waiver off interest and penalty shall be applicable w.e.f. 05.08.2019 i.e. date of allotment of 512 sq. mtr. land in Sector-4 extension, Rohtak to the Intelligence Bureau.

Therefore, henceforth in case of allotment of land by HSVP to Haryana Govt. Departments (not Corporation/Boards) a price equivalent to 50% of rates fixed by the HSVP for that financial year for allotment of institutional land shall be charged. In such cases there is a trend where Departments delay payments citing budgetary approvals and request for waiving of interest and penalty interest, therefore, in such cases where allotment is made on the 50% rates as stated above benefit of HSVP Policy dated 27.06.2023 with regard to waiver of interest and penalty shall not be available to the allottee Department. Copy of agenda and approval of Pradhikaran attached.

Memo No. A-7-2021/UB/125001

Dated: 16.07.2021

Subject: Guidelines regarding providing space for opening of liquor vends.

Reference: In supersession of instructions issued vide merio no. A-7- 2011/UB-1/27000-28 dated 11.08.2011 and memo no. A-4 (VKS)-UB-2015/5040 dated 16.03.2015 on the subject cited above.

HSVP issued above referred instructions for providing space for liquor vends with terms and conditions. However, it is observed that these instructions have not achieved the desired result and has become an article of abuse. HSVP has suffered financial losses as recovery of charges has not been achieved. It is also observed that uniform charges are specified for establishing liquor vends irrespective of the area in occupation of the vend holder. It is also felt that task of allotting sites for setting up the liquor vends needs to be dealt with at HQ level to ensure uniformity and prevent abuse of provisions of policy.

After deliberations, it has been felt to review the existing instructions and issue comprehensive guidelines. It has been decided with approval of Hon'ble Chairman, HSVP that henceforth, providing of land/site for liquor vends shall be governed by the following terms:

Memo No. A-6-UB-2019/134873-74

Dated:26.07.2019

Subject:- Registration of independent floor – clarification/ amendment in policy regarding transfer /floor on the basis of WILL.

This is in continuation of this office memo No. A-PHK-UB-1/2009/6552-83 dated 13.03.2009 and further correspondence on the subject cited above.

As per these guidelines the present allottee/owner is required to made an application on prescribed performa along with administrative charges, approved building plan (duly marked the proposed area to be transferred) and details of common areas/facilities to the concerned Estate Officer, only thereafter the division of plot/house is allowed and no provision has been made there for division of house in case of death/WILL, the policy is silent on this issue.

It was observed that there are cases where the testator has bequeathed the house/property to the beneficiaries floor wise, but no provision was incorporated visualizing such situations in the floor-wise partition policy dated 13.03.2009. Though the policy dated 03.06.2013 governing transfer of immovable property to the legal heir(s)/legatee after death of the allottee/re-allottee, clearly provides for mode of transfer of immovable property on the basis of WILL, therefore, in such cases to avoid hardship to the allottee and unnecessary litigation as well as honouring the last WILL of deceased, it may be clarified/considered that the Estate Officers shall transfer the house/property floor wise in favour of beneficiaries in accordance with WILL instead of joint transfer.

The matter was got examined legally and it was observed that the following para 4.7 after para 4.6 may be added in the policy guidelines dated 13.06.2009:-

4.7 “Floor wise partition on the basis of Will”

Where the testator has bequeathed the house/property floor wise the transfer in favour of the beneficiaries shall be made floor wise in accordance with the WILL and not jointly. Before floor wise transfer, the procedure given in the policy pertaining to WILL dated 03.06.2013 shall be followed, where after, the Estate Officer concerned shall suo motu pass an order registering the house/property floor wise. After floor wise transfer, the transferee shall abide by Rules/Regulations/Policy etc. governing floor wise partition issued from time to time. All pending representations and Court cases, if any, shall be dealt with accordingly”.

Besides, administrative charges of Rs. 10,000/- per floor shall be charged at the time of submitting application for transfer of plot/floor on the basis of WILL. The all pre-requisite formalities as prescribed in the policy guidelines dated 03.06.2013 governing transfer of plot on the basis of WILL shall be made applicable.

The above matter was placed before the Pradhikaran in its 118th meeting held on 10.07.2019 vide Agenda item No. 118th (10) for consideration and decision. The Pradhikaran has approved the proposal. A copy of Agendas alongwith extract of the decision of the Pradhikaran is sent herewith.

You are requested to take further action in the matter accordingly and action taken report may be sent to this office immediately. These instructions may be brought to the notice of all concerned.

Memo No.UB-A-6-2016/46599-600

Dated: 11.08.2016

Subject: Guidelines for Allotment of Plots in Transport Nagars & Auto Markets developed by HUDA in the State -amendment in policy.

This is in supersession of this office memo. No. UB-I/8400-8423 dated 24.03.2009 on the subject cited above.

2. As per existing guidelines, a Zonal Committee has been constituted for survey of the areas to be de-congested and identification of beneficiaries. But such existing business activities could not be shifted/rehabilitated to new/designated places, where HUDA has acquired and developed land to develop Transport Nagar/Auto Market, mainly due to the reason that survey to identify the individuals/firms which are to be shifted has not been carried out. This issue was discussed at various levels and a consensus view emerged that the existing policy may be partially modified so that the requirement of survey does not become a handicap in the allotment of sites. Thus in the larger public interest and further to reduce the time period involved in the process of allotment of sites in Transport Nagars & Auto Markets developed by HUDA in the State, it has been decided to scrap the existing policy guidelines bearing No. UB-I/8400-8423 dated 24.03.2009, and the revised policy as under, will be applicable.

A. Identification of areas and calling of applications with relevant proofs justifying the requirement of land:

- i. Development of Specialized Markets and Sectors in a particular area will be considered where a particular trade or activity is being performed or business is being carried out in an unorganized manner which is causing public nuisance and it is felt that the development of a specialized Market or a Sector will not only decongest the old city or town but also has a potential to boost the economy of the beneficiaries.
- ii. A Zonal Committee under the chairmanship of the concerned Zonal Administrator, HUDA and consisting of the concerned Deputy Commissioner (in case the Deputy Commissioner is senior to the Administrator HUDA, the representative of the Deputy Commissioner will be a member), Estate officer, HUDA, Executive Officer of the concerned Municipal Corporation/Council and District Town Planner concerned shall in the first instance, identify the areas or stretch of roads from where the individuals or firms running a particular type of business are to be shifted & rehabilitated.
- iii. Thereafter, the concerned Estate Officer shall formulate a scheme for floatation of plots for Booking Agencies and Repair/Spare Part shops in the Specialized market/Sector in that urban estate and get it approved from the Zonal Administrator. After approval by Zonal Administrator, the clear available sites (Booking Agencies and Repair/Spare Part Shops) as per approved demarcation plan, shall be advertised by the concerned Estate Officer through newspapers.
- iv. Subsequent upon the calling of applications through a public notice by Estate Officer in a prescribed time limit, the individuals/firms (i.e. actual practitioners of the trade) engaged in the identified activity for the last two (2) years in the area identified to be decongested shall apply for allotment of plot of size as per their requirement, alongwith earnest money equivalent to 10% of total cost and his/her Aadhar Number, passport size photographs as well as the relevant proofs in support of their activity/ business, viz. photographs/ videography of present site/ activity, tax receipt, electricity bills, VAT/Sales tax registration number, certificate from local Association that he/she is an actual practitioner of the identified trade, justifying the requirement of land. These applications alongwith attached documents shall be scrutinized by the concerned estate office for inclusion in the draw of lots against the availability of vacant plots of different sizes. The format of application is attached at Annexure- A.

- v. In case of any dispute or complaint, concerned Zonal Administrator shall be the deciding authority.

B. Terms and Conditions of Allotment:-

- i. Allotment of plots shall be made by draw of lots. The remaining plots, if any, in a sector/scheme after accommodating the identified beneficiaries shall be disposed off by way of auction only. In case the number of eligible applicants exceeds the number of plots available, allotment of plots shall be made to the extent of availability of plots by draw of lots.
- ii. The Commercial Sites and other connected sites like SCO, Tea Shops, Dhabas and Body Building Sites etc. in these specialized sectors shall be disposed off only through auction.
- iii. The specific site number shall be allotted only through draw of lots.
- iv. The allotment shall be made through a Letter of Intent (LOI) which shall be valid for a period of 17 (seventeen) months from the date of offer of possession. The LOI holder shall have to get the building plans approved within three months of offer of possession and complete the construction within 12 months from the date of sanction of the building plans.

He/She/They shall be given a further period of two months to vacate the old premises and shift to the new premises. No further extension shall be allowed thereafter under any circumstances.

- v. Regular Letter of Allotment will be issued to the applicant only after he has obtained the Completion Certificate for the allotted site & discontinued the old trade or business from the old site, failing which the new allotted site along with all structures raised thereon by the allottee shall automatically revert to HUDA.
- vi. The regular allotment will be made on free hold basis at the reserve price as fixed by the Authority. The enhancement in compensation, if any, awarded by the Court (s) in future shall, however, be payable extra.
- vii. Besides making allotment through an allotment letter, the Estate Officer shall enter into an agreement with the allottee so that the allottee is contractually bound by the provisions of this policy.
- viii. The cost of land shall be recovered from the allottee within the time schedule as applicable in the case of allotment of Commercial Sites.
- ix. Any transfer or sale of the site or building shall not be allowed for a period of next 10 (ten) years to be reckoned from the date of issue of Regular Allotment Letter except in the case of death or succession of the allottee. The transfer or sale of the site on GPA basis which entails passing of some consideration from the allottee to the GPA holder or any person on behalf of GPA holder shall not be considered as a transfer and in such a case, the allotment shall automatically be cancelled. The resultant resumption of the plot in such cases shall be done by the concerned Estate Officer by giving a show cause notice in this behalf. No compensation for constructed building or structure raised on the plot by the allottee or any other person on his behalf shall be paid except the amount paid by the allottee as cost of land to HUDA after making 10% deduction. No interest shall be payable on the amount paid by such allottee in this behalf.

- x. The allotment shall be governed by the relevant provisions of HUDA Act, 1977, rules and regulations framed there under, except the specific provisions enumerated above which form an integral part of this policy.
3. This issues with the prior approval of Authority accorded vide Agenda item no. Auth. 111th (15) in its meeting held on 27.07.2016
4. A copy of Agenda item and extract of proceedings of the meeting are sent herewith. You are therefore requested to take further action accordingly and action taken report may be sent to this office immediately.

Memo No. A-4-UB-2014/23532

Dated:-26.09.2014

Subject: Policy framed U/S 43 of the Persons with disabilities Act, 1995 – Amendment thereof.

This is in continuation of this office memo no. A-PWM-2009/UB-II/21403-25 dated 11.06.2009 on the subject cited above.

In CWP No. 3199 of 2008 titled as Handicapped Welfare Group Housing Society Ltd. Panchkula Vs. State of Haryana, the Hon'ble High Court vide order dated 21.01.2009 directed the respondents i.e. the State of Haryana and HUDA to formulate an appropriate scheme U/S 43 of the Persons with Disabilities (Equal Opportunities, Protection in Rights and Full Participation) Act, 1995. In compliance of these directions, the policy guidelines were formulated and circulated on 11.06.2009 with the approval of Authority. As per this policy, the benefit is admissible only to those domiciles of Haryana who are suffering with 70% or above disability.

Sh. N.S. Bhinder, Advocate filed a Civil Writ Petition No. 278 of 2014, challenging the said policy with the prayer that Section 2 (t) of the Persons with Disabilities (Equal Opportunity, Protection of Rights and Full Participation) Act, 1995 prescribes that 'persons with disability means a person suffering from not less than 40% of any disability as certified by a Medical Authority', therefore the policy dated 11.06.2009 framed by HUDA is in derogation of the provisions of Persons with Disabilities Act, 1995 and deserves to be quashed. The Hon'ble High Court disposed of the writ petition vide orders dated 23.01.2014 with directions to the concerned authority to take a decision on merits on the representation of the petitioner by passing a speaking order in this regard within one month.

In compliance of directions of Hon'ble High Court it was decided to review the policy dated 11.6.2009 by a Committee constituted for the purpose. After deliberations, the Committee is of unanimous view that since the Disability Act, 1995 prescribes that "persons with disability means a person suffering from not less than 40% of any disability as certified by a Medical Authority", no rule of the policy shall be framed in contravention of that Act. Even the Govt. of Haryana vide instructions dated 01.01.1999 has fixed the quantum of disability to be 40% and above in Govt. jobs. Therefore the Committee constituted for the purpose recommends that the policy dated 11.06.2009 may be amended and disability limit may be kept as 40% or above instead of 70%. Rest of the conditions/ concessions of policy be kept intact.

Therefore, the matter was placed before the Authority in its 108th meeting held on 07.08.2014 with the proposal that the policy dated 11.06.2009 be amended and disability limit be kept 40% or above instead of 70%. Rest of the conditions/concessions of policy will remain the same. The Authority has accorded its approval. A copy of agenda item alongwith extract of the proceedings of the meeting are sent herewith for information & necessary action. This will be made applicable with prospective effect.

You are therefore requested to take further action accordingly and action taken report may be sent to this office immediately.

Memo. No. A-Pwn-UB-I-2009/28161-83

Dated: 05.08.2009

Subject: Policy guidelines for offer of possession to the allottees of HUDA plots. Modification thereof.

This is in partial modification of the Policy Guidelines regarding offer of possession to the allottees of HUDA plots circulated vide memo no. A-Pwn-2008/UB-I/39995-56 dated 27.11.2008.

The guidelines circulated vide memo referred to above stated that the allottee should be asked to take possession of the allotted plot within a maximum period of three months of offer of possession. They should also construct a boundary wall atleast of nine inches height within another three months.

Now, it has been decided that;

- (I) If the allottee, after taking over physical possession of his/her plot at site, gives an affidavit (on non-judicial stamp paper) that he/she will start the construction on the allotted plot within one year of the date of taking over of possession, then, it will not be compulsory for such an allottee to first raise the construction of nine inches high boundary wall, and the allottee can complete construction of boundary wall before applying for Occupation Certificate.
- (II) In case of those allottees who have submitted an affidavit for starting construction on the plot within one year of the taking of possession, the request for approval of building plans shall be entertained, even if he has not construct nine inches high demarcation boundary. However, requests for re-allotment, mortgage permission, transfer permission etc in such cases also shall not be entertained without construction of either the nine inches high demarcation boundary or the actual boundary wall as per affidavit.
- (III) Those allottees, who do not intend to start the construction within one year, and do not submit such an affidavit, will be required to under take construction of the nine inches high boundary wall as per Para (i) of the existing policy. The period of one year for starting construction, as stipulated in this policy, shall be strictly non extendable, and those allottees who do not actually start the construction even after submitting the affidavit, will also be required to first construct a nine inches high demarcation boundary within 3 months of the expiry of the period committed in the affidavit, failing which no requests for re-allotment, mortgage permission, transfer permission, sanction of building plan etc. shall be entertained. All other shall remain unchanged.

Memo No. A-Pwn-2009/UB-II/ 21403-25

Dated: 11.06.2009

Subject: CWP No.3199 of 2008- Formulation of policy under Section 43 of the Persons with Disabilities Act 1995.

In compliance of directions dated 21.01.2009 passed by the Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court in CWP No. 3199 of 2008 titled as Handicapped Welfare Group Housing Society Ltd. Panchkula V/s State of Haryana. The Hon'ble High Court has directed to formulate an appropriate Scheme under Section 43 of the persons with disabilities (Equal Opportunities, Protection in Rights and Full Participation) Act, 1995 casts which reads as under:-

“43. Schemes for preferential allotment of land for certain purposes: - The appropriate Governments and local authorities shall by notification frame schemes in favour of persons with disabilities, for the preferential allotment of land at concessional rates for-

- A. house
 - B. setting up business;
 - C. Setting up of special recreation centres;
 - D. establishment of special schools;
 - E. establishment of research centres;
 - F. establishment of factories by entrepreneurs with disabilities.”
2. It is intimated that HUDA has already formulated Policy guidelines for reservation of 1% residential plots upto 8 Marla category for Blinds and 1% for Disabled Persons. 10% subsidy is also provided in the rate of allotment of such earmarked plots. As per provisions of EMP-2005, 2% of Industrial Plots upto 500 sq. mts. are reserved for the Entrepreneurs with Disabilities. 10% subsidy is also provided in the rate of allotment to such persons. Further, HUDA has formulated a policy for leasing out of Creche/School Buildings constructed by HUDA in various Urban Estates and community buildings constructed by HUDA in villages within HUDA sectors to reputed NGOs for running of Creche/School for special children and for undertaking welfare works in villages. The policy was circulated vide memo.no.4611 dated 20.02.09.
 3. However, there is no policy of HUDA to earmark commercial, institutional and recreational sites for the persons with disabilities. Therefore, following policy decisions have been taken:-
 - A. COMMERCIAL SITES:
 - i) 2% of commercial sites designated as Kiosks and Booths in Shopping Centres shall be reserved for the persons with disabilities.
 - ii) The above reservation of sites shall be done in all the Shopping Centres in all the Urban Estates where more than 50% of total commercial sites designated as Kiosks and Booths are un-sold and are available for allotment.
 - iii) The commercial sites so reserved for persons with disabilities shall be allotted on the reserved price fixed by HUDA.
 - iv) The applications for allotment of commercial sites earmarked for persons with disabilities shall be invited through advertisement and in case of more than one applicant for a particular site, the site shall be offered through draw of lots.

- v) Milk Booth and Fruit & Vegetable shops are earmarked by HUDA in various Shopping Centres which are offered to Government agencies like Haryana Dairy Development Corporation, Mother Dairy etc. 25% of such sites allotted to above agencies shall be offered to the persons with disabilities and a condition to this effect be incorporated in the allotment letter.

B. INSTITUTIONAL SITES:

- i) Since, Institutional sites earmarked as Social and Charitable sites are allotted by HUDA only to registered organizations, such sites can not be allotted to individuals. Therefore, no reservation of sites earmarked for social and charitable purposes can be made for persons with disabilities. However, preference should be given in allotment of such sites to the organizations constituted with the persons with disabilities in case of 10% of the advertised sites.
- ii) In the institutional plots carved out by HUDA in exclusive institutional sectors, 2% plots shall be reserved for organizations of persons with disabilities.

C. RECREATIONAL SITES: Recreational sites such as community centres, Gymkhana Clubs, Auditorium, Sports Complexes, Stadium, Parks etc. are not allotted by HUDA to any of the organization. Therefore, no reservation can be made in such sites for organizations of persons with disabilities. However, it has been decided that:

- (i) HUDA shall create barrier free environment in buildings constructed by HUDA where handicapped/persons with disabilities can move easily.
- (ii) The entry of persons with disabilities shall be free in the Auditorium and the parks being developed by HUDA.
- (iii) The persons with disabilities will be given 10% concession in the fee prescribed for membership of Gymkhana Clubs and sports facilities developed by HUDA in Sports Complexes/Stadium.

D. General conditions: The above mentioned concessions to persons with disabilities shall be allowed to:

- i) Only the domiciles of Haryana with 70% or above disability;
- ii) On submission of disability certificate from the Chief Medical Officer of a Govt. Hospital.
- iii) The allotted sites shall not be transferred by the persons with disabilities for a period of atleast 10 years. Execution of Power of Attorney in favour of any persons for consideration paid either to such persons with disabilities or to any persons on their behalf shall be construed as sale which will result in resumption of plots/sites.
- iv) The allotment of the sites shall also be governed by the provisions of Haryana Urban Development Act, 1977, Rules and Regulations framed there under.
4. You are therefore, requested that the above decision may be implemented letter and spirit and compliance thereof may be sent to this office.

This issues with the approval of Hon'ble Chief Minister, Haryana-cum- Chairman, HUDA.

Memo No. A-PWN-2009/UB-II/11775-11809

Dated: 17.04.2009

Subject: Regarding increase in Malba Security / Fee.

1. The present rates for Malba Fee/Security as specified in clause (v) of regulation 3 of HUDA erection of buildings regulations were approved by the Authority in its 74th meeting held on 20.08.1998 i.e. about a decade back. With passage of time it has been fault that the amount of Malba Fee/Security being small, the allottees/contractors do not bother to clear the Malba and take the refund. Besides, imparting a shabby look to the sector/area, many essential services and assets of HUDA also get damaged (Roads, kerbs and Channels etc.) due to uplifted Malba. Therefore, a proposal was placed before the Authority in its 102nd meeting held on 24.02.2009 vide agenda item no. A-102nd (Suppl.-3) for revision in the rates of Malba fee/Security.
2. The Authority has approved the proposal, and it has been decided that the amount of Malba Fee/Security shall be revised as under:-

Residential Plots:

(i)	Upto 6 Marla	Rs. 5,000/-
(ii)	Above 6 Marla and upto 1 Kanal	Rs. 10,000/-
(iii)	Above 1 Kanal	Rs. 20,000/-

Industrial, Institutional and Group Housing Plots:

(i)	Upto 1/4 th acre	Rs. 25,000/-
(ii)	Above ¼ acre and upto 1 acre	Rs. 50,000/-
(iii)	More than 1 acre	Rs. 1,00,000/-

Commercial:

(i)	Booths	Rs. 10,000/-
(ii)	SCOs/SCFs/DSS/ etc. (Governed by Architectural Control)	Rs. 50,000/-
(iv)	Others	Rs. 1,00,000/-

3. It has been further decided that the non-refundable amount may be kept only as 10% of the above fees and remaining 90% may be refunded, if the allottees clear the Malba after construction to the satisfaction of the concerned Estate officer which shall be refunded immediately alongwith grant of occupation. The Malba fee / security shall be deposited by the allottee with the Executive Engineer, HUDA concerned, before the start of construction of house/building or release of water connection. The amount of Malba security shall be refundable only after the Malba completely removed, the area is leveled and the occupation certificate is issued by the Estate officer, HUDA concerned. The refund of Malba security shall further be subject to the condition that allottee shall construct Pucca approach to his house by connecting it from the edge of channel / road towards his house and not from any other point of the road.

4. The above instructions supercede the earlier instructions issued vide memo no. A-11-P/98/24777-817 dated 02.09.1998 and shall be made applicable with immediate effect.

Memo. No. A-PHK-UB-I-2009/ 11563-85

Dated: 16.04.2009

Subject: Regarding handing over of possession of plots. Modification thereof.

1. As already emphasized a number of times in the past through specific communications, and discussed regularly in the various review meetings, it is once again requested that the status of handing over of possession of allotted plots in the urban estates under your jurisdiction may be comprehensively reviewed periodically say atleast in three months.
2. Terms and conditions contained in the brochures for floatation of residential plots clearly specify that possession of the plot shall be delivered to the allottee in about 3 years of the date of allotment. However, possession may be given earlier if the development of basic services in a scheme is completed before the above mentioned period. At the time of offer of possession, only the basic services i.e. water supply, approach road, sewerage and electrification shall be made available in the sector. Administrators should start reviewing the progress of development works immediately after floatation of the sectors/plots.
3. Besides inviting litigations and adversely affecting the credibility of the organization, delay in handing over of possession has financial implications also, because interest on balance instalments of any allotted plot accrues only after the date of offer of possession. Moreover, the Authority in its 98th meeting held on 12.12.2006 has decided that in case the possession of the plot is not offered within the prescribed period of 3 years from the date of allotment, the allottee will have to be paid simple interest @ 9% per annum (or as may be fixed by the Authority from time to time) on the amount deposited by him after the expiry of 3 years of allotment, and the allottee will be required to pay future instalments only after the possession of plot/alternative plot is offered. Instructions regarding the same were issued vide memo no. HUDA-Acctts-Acctt-I-2007/2912-47 dated 25.01.2007. Estate officers should review it on monthly basis and Administrators on Quarterly basis. Administrators and/or Estate Officers shall be personally held liable for payment of interest to allottees and also loss of interest to HUDA if there are no sufficient reasons for not offering possession.
4. In an effort to minimize the problems arising out of handing over of possession, guidelines have been issued vide memo no. A-PWN-2008/UB-I/39995-96 dated 27.11.2008, making it compulsory for the allottee to take physical possession of his allotted plot within a maximum period of three months of offer of possession. They should also construct a boundary wall at least of 9” height within another three months, so that if there are any disputes regarding shape /size /clear availability of the allotted plot, the same can be taken care of immediately. In order to eliminate this problem in future sectors, it has also been decided that offer of possession will only be made after the plot is demarcated at site & 9” boundary wall is constructed by HUDA , cost of which will be included in the cost of allotment. You are requested to ensure compliance of these instructions.
5. With a view to ensure that in future sectors only those plots get allotted which are available at site free of dispute/encumbrances, the Authority in its meeting dated 12.12.2006 decided that the plots will be advertised only after their demarcation at site, and a committee under the chairmanship of concerned Administrator, comprising of S.E, DTP and Estate Officer will verify the clear number of plots available at site. Block of plots will be marked, roads will also be marked on the ground before the verification in order to ensure that only clear plots i.e. free from litigation & free from encroachment are advertised. Instructions regarding the same have been issued vide letter dated 25.01.07. You are once again requested to ensure compliance of these instructions.

6. To redress the grievance of such allottees to whom possession of the plot could not be given, HUDA has framed a policy for Exchange of plots/ allotment of alternative plots. Conditions where such exchange of plots/allotment of alternative plots is necessary are:

- i) Where HUDA could not deliver the possession of plots due to litigation pending in the courts,
- ii) Where the plot is not actually available on the ground as per layout plan.

Recently, in its 102nd meeting held on 24.02.09, Authority has decided that allotment of alternative plots can be made in those cases also where the plot is of an irregular shape/size. Definition/criteria for the same is being finalized.

7. Time and again, the Zonal Administrators and Estate Officers have been requested to identify the disputed plots (those plots whose possession could not be offered due to conditions mentioned in Para 6 above) and to send urban estate wise consolidated cases for allotment of alternative plots in lieu of all the disputed plots in the sectors/urban estates under their respective jurisdiction. Such an exercise has been carried out for a number of sectors of Urban Estate Gurgaon, Faridabad, Panipat, Sonipat, Gohana, Hisar etc. However, still a number of cases for adjustment of the allottees of disputed plots are being regularly received, inspite of the HQs stressing for sending of Urban Estate wise consolidated cases for allotment of alternative plots to the allottees of disputed plots.

8. Through this letter you are once again called upon to comprehensively review the status of handing over of possession of all the plots in various sectors/pockets/schemes and to take following action:-

- i. Compile details of Sectors/Schemes where the time limit of more than three years since allotment of plots has already passed or is approaching soon, but possession has not yet been handed over. For your convenience a list of schemes floated during the last five years is enclosed as annexure-‘I’.
- ii. Analyse the reasons for non-handing over of the possession especially in case of those plots where land is under litigation, because the execution of development works and the offer of possession of a large number of plots in HUDA sectors is held up due to operation of stay orders granted by various Courts. Kind attention is invited to memo no. 10705-65 dated 02.12.2008 vide which all the Superintending Engineers/Executive Engineers of HUDA and all the Estate Officers of HUDA were requested to compile list/details of cases where the development works and offer of possession are held up due to stay orders, and to peruse the cases in various courts in the right earnest so that the stay orders are got vacated (copy enclosed as annexure-II). It is requested that while sending the proposals for allotment of alternative plots in lieu of plots effected due to land under litigation, the court/case number, specific orders of the court, whether written statement has been filed by HUDA or not, and the present status/next date of the case must be specifically indicated. Land under litigation in each court case must also be distinctly marked on the layout/ demarcation plan so as to exactly ascertain the total number of plots actually affected by litigation.
- iii. Prepare an inventory of disputed allotted plots, which qualify for allotment of an alternative plot of same size category in terms of prevailing policy for allotment of alternative plots.
- iv. Prepare an inventory of all unallotted plots clearly available, in various sectors of each Urban Estate, for allotment as alternative plots.
- v. Formulate and send consolidated proposal for allotment of alternative plots as per policy to the allottees of all the disputed plots in the Urban Estates under your jurisdiction.

This exercise for all the plots allotted upto 31.12.2008 must be completed by 30th June, 2009. Thereafter, the Zone wise review of possession shall be conducted at headquarters level. It is not out of place to mention that with completion of 100% computerization of allottee accounts, this review can easily be done through MIS reports which can be generated from the system.

Memo No. UB-I-NK-2009/ 8400-8423 Dated: 24.03.2009

Subject- Policy guidelines for allotment of plots in Transport Nagars & Auto Markets developed by HUDA in the State.

HUDA has been acquiring land and developing Specialized Markets and Sectors for decongesting the existing cities or towns and providing modern amenities in these markets. Plots have been carved out and allotted in Transport Nagar of Karnal, Panipat & Faridabad and Marble Markets in Faridabad and Gurgaon. Individual persons and firms who were carrying out this business in identified areas were rehabilitated in new markets and sectors by allotting them plots at reserve price i.e. at rates cheaper than the prevailing market rates.

Although development of specialized markets & sectors has been going on for quite some time yet no uniform policy guidelines have so far been framed and circulated. Individual schemes have been framed keeping in view the local needs from time to time and implemented with the approval of the Authority.

Hence, a comprehensive policy for development of these Specialized Markets and Sectors & allotment of sites was placed before the Authority in its 102nd meeting held on 24.02.2009 vide agenda item no. A-102nd (19). The Authority has approved a uniform policy proposal having the following Salient Features:-

I. IDENTIFICATION AND SURVEY:-

1. Development of Specialized Markets and Sectors in a particular area will be considered where a particular trade or activity is being performed or business is being carried out in an unorganized manner which is causing public nuisance and it is felt that the development of a specialized Market or a Sector will not only decongest the old city or town but also has a potential to boost the economy of the beneficiaries.
2. A Zonal Committee under the chairmanship of the concerned Zonal Administrator, HUDA and consisting of the concerned Deputy Commissioner (in case the Deputy Commissioner is senior to the Administrator HUDA, the representative of the Deputy Commissioner will be a member), Estate Officer, HUDA, Executive Officer of the concerned Municipal Corporation/ Council and District Town Planner concerned shall in the first instance identify the areas or stretch of roads from where the individuals or firms running a particular type of business are to be shifted & rehabilitated.
3. The requisite survey, thereafter, shall be conducted by a sub-committee consisting of the following-
 - a. A representative of the District Administration (SDM or City Magistrate).
 - b. A representative of the Shop-owners' Association.
 - c. Junior Engineer of concerned Municipal Council/Corporation.
 - d. SDE Survey, HUDA-Member Secretary.

The Survey report shall be submitted to the Zonal Administrator being Chairman of the Committee. Videography of the proceedings and bio-metric survey of the likely beneficiaries shall be must. They shall fill up form in Annexure 'A' for each and every surveyed person.

4. The Zonal Committee shall be required to counter-check at least 10% of the survey conducted by the sub-committee to ascertain its authenticity.
5. The Zonal Committee shall forward its recommendations to the Chief Administrator, HUDA who shall obtain the approval of the Authority.
6. The identified individuals or firms shall be asked to submit their applications to the concerned Estate Officer within the prescribed time-limit along with the earnest money equal to 10% of the cost as per the procedure laid down. The individuals or firms shall have to submit documentary evidence justifying their requirement of land.

II. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA:-

The identified individuals and firms shall be considered for allotment of sites provided for Booking Agencies, Repair and Spare Parts Shop as per the criteria decided by HUDA with approval of the competent authority. The SCO's, Body Building Shops, Service Station and Dhaba sites would be disposed off through open auction after the market is considerably developed.

III. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ALLOTMENT:-

1. The allotment of plots shall be made by draw of lots. However, remaining plots, if any, in a sector/scheme after accommodating the identified beneficiaries shall be disposed off by way of auction only. In case the number of eligible applicants exceeds the number of plots available, allotment of plots shall be made to the extent of availability of plots by draw of lots.
2. The Commercial Sites and other connected sites like Tea Shops, Dhabas and Body Building Sites etc. in these specialized sectors shall be disposed off only through auction.
3. The specific site number shall be allotted only through draw of lots.
4. The allotment shall be made through a Letter of Intent (LOI) which shall be valid for a period of 17 (seventeen) months from the date of offer of possession. The LOI holder shall have to get the building plans approved within three months of offer of possession and complete the construction within 12 months from the date of sanction of the building plans. He shall be given a further period of two months to vacate the old premises and shift to the new premises. No further extension shall be allowed thereafter under any circumstances.
5. Regular Letter of Allotment will be issued to the applicant only after he has obtained the Completion Certificate for the allotted site & discontinued the old trade or business from the old site, failing which the new allotted site along with all structures raised thereon by the allottee shall automatically revert to HUDA.
6. The regular allotment will be made on free hold basis at the reserve price as fixed by the Authority. The enhancement in compensation, if any, awarded by the Court (s) in future shall, however, be payable extra.
7. Besides making allotment through an allotment letter, the Estate Officer shall enter into an agreement with the allottee so that the allottee is contractually bound by the provisions of this policy.
8. The cost of land shall be recovered from the allottee within the time schedule as applicable in the case of allotment of Commercial Sites.
9. Any transfer or sale of the Site or building shall not be allowed for a period of next 10 (ten) years to be reckoned from the date of issue of Regular Allotment Letter except in the case of death or succession of the allottee. The transfer or sale of the site on GPA basis which entails passing of some consideration from the allottee to the GPA holder or any person on behalf of GPA holder shall be considered as a transfer and in such a case, the allotment shall automatically be cancelled. The resultant resumption of the plot in such cases shall be done by the concerned Estate Officer by giving a show cause notice in this behalf. No compensation for constructed building or structure raised on the plot by the allottee or any other person on his behalf shall be paid except the amount paid by the allottee as cost of land to HUDA after making 10% deduction. No interest shall be payable on the amount paid by such allottee in this behalf.
10. The allotment shall be governed by the relevant provisions of HUDA Act, 1977, rules and regulations framed thereunder, except the specific provisions enumerated above which form an integral part of this policy.
11. A copy of the agenda item no. A-102nd (19), alongwith relevant extract of proceedings, is enclosed herewith for further necessary action. A report on the follow up action taken may be sent to this office within a month.

Memo No. A-Pwn-2008/UB-I/39995-96

Dated: 27.11.2008

Subject: Policy guidelines for offer of possession to the allottees of HUDA plots.

1. It has been observed that the Allottees face a lot of problem in taking possession of the allotted plots particularly in old HUDA sectors. Such problems arise due to change in the size of plot, non-availability of plots, change in the shape of plots etc. The root cause of these problems is that the plots are not actually being demarcated at site. Such problems come to notice only when the Allottee asks for taking the possession of the allotted plot after a long gap. In order to fulfill its commitment for allotment of plot, HUDA has to either offer alternate plots by carving out additional plots in unplanned pockets or in case the plots are not available in the same sector, offer plots in adjoining sectors at the rates applicable at the time of allotment. It causes great financial loss to HUDA and also invites litigations from the Allottees.
2. In order to solve such problems, the following decisions have been taken-
 - (i) That the Allottees should be asked to take possession of the allotted plot within a maximum period of three months of offer of possession. They should also construct a boundary wall atleast of nine inches height within another three months so that if there are any disputes regarding possession, the same can be taken care of immediately.
 - (ii) That in case the Allottee fails to take possession of the allotted plot within the prescribed time limit and subsequently it comes to the notice that the allotted plot is not available at site, he/she will not be entitled for offer of alternative plot at subsequent stage on the same terms and conditions on which the original plot was allotted. In such an eventuality, the Allottee will be offered alternative plot at current rates.
 - (iii) That no request of the Allottee for re-allotment, mortgage permission, transfer permission, approval of building plan etc. shall be entertained if the Allottee fails to take possession of the allotted plot and construct nine inches high boundary wall within the prescribed time limit as mentioned in para (i) above.
 - (iv) That mere taking of possession by the Allottee and construction of nine inches boundary wall shall not exempt the Allottee from the payment of extension fees unless he or she constructs minimum 25% area as per the existing bye-laws.
3. You are, therefore, requested that all the Allottees may be asked to take the possession of the plots within three months wherever the possession of the plots have already been offered by HUDA. A public notice to this effect is also being issued in prominent news papers by the Head Quarter to give wide publicity to this policy decision. However, you may also issue Press Release for wide publicity in your jurisdiction. You are also requested to take further action accordingly and a compliance report of the above guidelines be sent to the HQ.

This issues with the approval of Hon'ble Chief Minister-cum-Chairman HUDA.

Dated 29.06.2004

Subject:-Regarding charging of interest on the increased area from the allottees.

Reference on the subject cited above.

The offer of possession is normally offered, once- the demarcation/zoning plan and development works in the area are completed. In certain cases, during demarcation /dimensions of plots, are either increased or even decreased. It has-been observed that at the time of offer of possession the Increased/decreased area of the specific plot is not allotted to the allottees. The allottee too takes over the possession. As per their convenience. Consequently exact area is known to the allottee as and when an allottee takes over the possession in such cases. As per HUDA Policy the cost of increased area is recovered along with Accrued /calculated amount from the date of offer of possession. This lapse has been creating necessary disputes/litigation. The-matter has been looked into^{&it} has been decided to follow the following instructions to settle these cases.

1. As and when the offer of possession is given to the allottee, an intimation regarding increased area, if any may also be given. The offer of possession may be given strictly as per the approved demarcation plan. Any laxity on this account will be-viewed, seriously and if the increased area is not intimated along with the offer of possession, loss of interest on this account shall be recovered-from the defaulting officer/official.
2. In respect of past cases where increased area has not been intimated along with the offer of possession but it was known/intimated only at the time of taking over physical possession of the plot, the rate for the increased area may be worked out and after updating the price of the plot at which it was allotted by HUDA as per HUDA policy i.e. to be reckoned from the date of offer of possession till the date of actual intimation of excess area to the allottee. No extension area shall however be charged, for this period.

The above instructions may be brought into the notice of all concerned. This also disposed off Administrator, HUDA, Hisar memo No. 11388 dated 27.1012003.

Subject:-Instruction regarding finalization of zoning plan before offer of possession to the Urban Estates HUDA.

It has come into notice that usually the possession of plot is offered to the allottees and possession interest charged from the date of offer, while the zoning plan of the area is not finalized. Due to this, no allottee can raise construction upon the plot. This is happened due to non coordination of HUDA's wings. As per policy guidelines on the subject, the possession interest cannot be charged, if the zoning plan is not finalized as offer of possession has no meaning without approval of zoning plan.

In view of above, it has been decided that zoning plan should be finalized well before the completion of development works.

The above instruction should be adhered to letter & spirit.

Subject: Regularization of violations in the constructions made by the allottees of plots in various Mandi Township Area.

Please refer to the subject cited above.

Since all the violations made in constructions of plots in the Mandi Townships are extremely old and are on large scale in all the Mandi Township Areas. Therefore, it has been decided to adopt the following one time measure in all Mandi Township areas to solve the issue:-

- I) It shall be advertised and also placed on notice boards of our offices that the allottees of Mandi Township areas may come forward for the regularization of construction/sanction of building plans latest by 30th August, 1996.
- II) The violations made prior to 11.09.1987 shall be examined and decided by the respective zonal Administrators in terms of the prevalent compounding fee structures as was charged by the erstwhile colonization department (Annexure 'A').
- III) Since the HUDA Act 1977 also became applicable to the Mandi Township areas also, on 11.09.1987, therefore, HUDA's extension policy shall also be applicable as such on the areas with effect from 11.09.1987. Extension fee shall accordingly be calculated and recovered from the allottees of Mandi Township areas.
